

CHAPTER 27

Quest for Consensus, 1952-1960

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

After you read and analyze this chapter, you should be able to:

1. Explain what expectations reflected the American dream and which ones conflicted with it during the 1950s and describe the choices people made as they tried to fulfill their expectations.
2. Discuss the constraints encountered by Eisenhower and the Republicans in trying to roll back the New Deal and tell how the outcome reflected what Eisenhower called the “middle path.”
3. Describe how African American leadership chose to attack de jure segregation in American society during Eisenhower’s administration.
4. Explain what expectations and constraints were behind Eisenhower’s foreign policy choices and how the “New Look” differed from Truman’s foreign policy. Include a discussion of the role Third World Nations played in Eisenhower’s foreign policy.

CHAPTER OUTLINE

- I. Politics of Consensus
 - A. Eisenhower Takes Command
 1. In 1952, Republicans expected finally to end the Democrats’ twenty-year monopoly on the White House and selected General Dwight D. Eisenhower, who appeared to be the perfect candidate.
 - a) Ike was well known and revered as a war hero, and he carried the image of an honest man being thrust into public service.
 - b) The Republican campaign took two paths, with one group of party members concentrating on Eisenhower’s popular image and the other, including McCarthy and Nixon, brutally attacking the Democrats’ Cold War and New Deal record.
 2. Eisenhower buried Democratic candidate Adlai Stevenson in popular and electoral votes, and the Republicans also ensured their majority in Congress.
 - a) The 1956 campaign would be a repeat of Eisenhower’s triumph over Stevenson, but the Democrats maintained their 1954 majorities in both houses of Congress.
 - B. Dynamic Conservatism
 1. Eisenhower called himself a modern Republican and labeled his approach “dynamic conservatism: conservative when it comes to money and liberal when it comes to human beings.”
 2. Eisenhower’s “middle path” produced budget cuts and reduced federal involvement.
 3. Following the launching of the Soviet space satellite Sputnik I (1957), Eisenhower quoted national security needs to support spending more federal money on education.
 - a) American schools, many critics argued, stressed soft subjects and social adjustment rather than hard subjects such as science, languages, and mathematics.
 - C. The Problem with McCarthy
 1. During the 1952 presidential campaign, Senator Joseph McCarthy had taken a prominent role in attacking Democrats as being soft on communism.
