Capital Campaigns Andrea Kihlstedt, 2010 CD ROM contains resources charts graphs and checklists and campaign samples Conducting a Successful Capital Campaign Kent E. Dove, 2000 Conducting a Successful Capital Campaign has been the definitive resource on capital campaigns for a decade Now comes the new edition of this highly acclaimed guide in expanded handbook format Like the first edition this one of a kind resource presents an authoritative systematic guide to every aspect of a capital campaign Fundraising Basics: A Complete Guide Barbara L. Ciconte, Jeanne Jacob, 2008-12-18 As nonprofit organizations face heightened scrutiny by the general public donors regulators and members of Congress the Third Edition of the essential book on the basics of fundraising provides new up to date and valuable information that every fundraiser needs to know With ethics and accountability being the primary theme of the Third Edition this practical guide will continue to provide an overview of the field and give development staff managers and directors a platform from which to operate their fundraising programs The new edition also provides much needed information on giving trends computer hardware and software available for fundraisers cost estimates and workflow timetables and the importance of the Internet This primer remains a must have for anyone new to the fundraising arena Capital Campaigns: Strategies that Work , Fundraising for Social Change , 2011-01-07 Since it was first published in 1988 Fundraising for Social Change has become one of the most widely used books on fundraising in the United States Fundraising practitioners and activists rely on it for hands on specific and accessible fundraising techniques and it has become a required text in dozens of college courses around the country This fifth edition offers the information that has made the book a classic proven know how on asking for money planning and conducting major gifts campaigns using direct mail effectively and much more The book has been significantly changed to include new technology e mail online giving and blogs and contains expanded chapters on capital and endowment campaigns how to feel comfortable asking for money how to recruit a team of people to help with fundraising and how to build meaningful relationships with donors In addition this essential resource contains new information on such timely topics as ethics working across cultural lines and how to create opportunities for fundraising more systematically and strategically Fundraising Basics Barbara L. Ciconte, Jeanne G. Jacob, 2005 This primer helps new fund raisers learn the basics from the vocabulary of fund raising to the nuances of major trends affecting nonprofit fundraising today With up to date case studies and real life examples this practical guide will provide an overview of the field and give development staff managers and directors a platform from which to operate their fund raising programs This guide is a must have for anyone new to the fund raising arena Transforming Stewardship C.K. Robertson, 2009-02 At once a travel guide and a vision for the future this series is good news for the Episcopal Church at a time of fast and furious demographic and social change It analyzes the present plight of the church and sketches a positive way forward sprouting from the seeds of change those transformative practices already at work renewing the church What church models can help point us toward transformation What are the essential tools What will give us strength direction and purpose to the journey Each volume of the series will Explain why a changed vision is essential Give robust theological and biblical foundations Offer a guide to best practices and positive trends in churches large and small Describe the necessary tools for change Imagine how transformation will look For most Episcopalians stewardship is synonymous with pledge drives budgets and capital campaigns but the Bible is clear that God wants more than our tithes and offerings Looking to its scriptural roots in 1 Chronicles Luke Acts and the letters of Paul as well as St Francis third way Robertson offers a vision of holistic stewardship for the whole church holistic because it can't be separated from evangelism outreach scripture study and ministry to the newcomer It does not involve strong arm tactics only a willingness to risk changing existing structures and ideas in order to enrich the faith community and strengthen connections to the neighboring world Transforming Stewardship delivers both good and bad news about Episcopalians and stewardship Robertson provides essential models and spiritual practices in order to transform the church's outmoded attitudes toward stewardship and wealth into a broader context of faith
