Captive Genders Trans Embodiment And The Prison Industrial Complex Second Edition:

Captive Genders Eric A. Stanley, Nat Smith, 2015-10-01 Captive Genders is an exciting assemblage of writings analyses manifestos stories interviews that traverse the complicated entanglements of surveillance policing imprisonment and the production of gender normativity Focusing discerningly on the encounter of transpersons with the apparatuses that constitute the prison industrial complex the contributors to this volume create new frameworks and new vocabularies that surely will have a transformative impact on the theories and practices of twenty first century abolition Angela Y Davis professor emerita University of California Santa Cruz The contributors to Captive Genders brilliantly shatter the assumption that the antidote to danger is human sacrifice In other words for these thinkers where life is precious life is precious Ruth Wilson Gilmore author of Golden Gulag Prisons Surplus Crisis and Opposition in Globalizing California Captive Genders is at once a scathing and necessary analysis of the prison industrial complex and a history of queer resistance to state tyranny By analyzing the root causes of anti queer and anti trans violence this book exposes the brutality of state control over queer trans bodies inside and outside prison walls and proposes an analytical framework for undoing not just the prison system but its mechanisms of surveillance dehumanization and containment Mattilda Bernstein Sycamore author of Why Are Faggots So Afraid of Faggots Captive Genders was the first book of its kind It remains the touchstone for studies of trans and gender queer people in prison It has been revamped to appeal to recent broadened interest With a new Foreword by CeCe McDonald and essay by Chelsea Manning

Captive Genders Eric A. Stanley, Nat Smith, 2015-10-05 A Lambda Literary Award finalist Captive Genders is a powerful tool against the prison industrial complex and for queer liberation This expanded edition contains four new essays including a foreword by CeCe McDonald and a new essay by Chelsea Manning Eric Stanley is a postdoctoral fellow at UCSD His writings appear in Social Text American Quarterly and Women and Performance as well as various collections Nat Smith works with Critical Resistance and the Trans Variant and Intersex Justice Project CeCe McDonald was unjustly incarcerated after fatally stabbing a transphobic attacker in 2011 She was released in 2014 after serving nineteen months for second degree manslaughter

Ecofeminism, Second Edition Carol J. Adams, Lori Gruen, 2021-12-16 This new edition of Ecofeminism Feminist Intersections with Other Animals and the Earth begins with an historical grounding overview that situates ecofeminist theory and activism within the larger field of ecocriticism and provides a timeline for important publications and events Throughout the book authors engage with intersections of gender sexuality gender expression race disability and species to address the various ways that sexism heteronormativity racism colonialism and ableism are informed by and support animal oppression This collection is broken down into three separate sections Affect includes contributions from leading theorists and activists on how our emotions and embodiment can and must inform our relationships with the more than human world Context explores the complexities of appreciating difference and the possibilities of living less violently Climate new to the second edition provides an overview of our climate crisis as well as the climate for critical discussion and debate about ecofeminist ideas and actions Drawing on animal studies environmental studies feminist gender studies and practical ethics the ecofeminist contributors to this volume stress the need to move beyond binaries and attend to context over universal judgments spotlight the importance of care as well as justice emotion as well as reason and work to undo the logic of domination and its material implications Transgender Aaron Devor, Ardel Haefele-Thomas, 2019-02-15 This book provides a crucial resource for readers who are investigating trans issues It takes a diverse and historic approach focusing on more than one idea or one experience of trans identity or trans history Transgender A Reference Handbook is a go to resource about the transgender experience The book takes contemporary as well as historic aspects into consideration It looks at ancient indigenous cultures that honored third fourth and fifth gender identities as well as more contemporary ideas of what transgender means Notably it focuses not only on Western medical ideas of gender affirmation but on cultural diversity surrounding the topic This book will primarily serve as a reference guide and jumping off point for further research for those seeking information about what it means to be transgender While a reference book it contains original work that may be cited in addition to the encyclopedia itself In particular the perspectives section of the book includes writings from some of the world's foremost trans writers activists artists and historians Classics and Prison Education in the US Emilio Capettini, Nancy Sorkin Rabinowitz, 2021-05-17 This volume focuses on teaching Classics in carceral contexts in the US and offers an overview of the range of incarcerated adults their circumstances and the ways in which they are approaching and reinterpreting Greek and Roman texts Classics and Prison Education in the US examines how different incarcerated adults male female or gender non conforming young or old serving long sentences or about to be released are reading and discussing Classical texts and what this may entail Moreover it provides a sophisticated examination of the best pedagogical practices for teaching in a prison setting and for preparing returning citizens as well as a considered discussion of the possible dangers of engaging in such teaching whether because of the potential complicity with the carceral state or because of the historical position of Classics in elitist education This edited volume will be a resource for those interested in Classics pedagogy as well as the role that Classics can play in different areas of society and education and the impact it can have Reproduction Reconceived Sara Matthiesen, 2021-10-26 The landmark case Roe v Wade helped cement a redefinition of family it is now commonplace for Americans to treat having children as a choice But the historic decision coincided with what would become a decades long trend of widening inequality ensuring that many families still struggle to obtain even basic necessities Reproduction Reconceived examines how family making actually became harder after the arrival of choice as different families confronted incarceration for profit and racist medical care disease poverty and a welfare state in retreat Drawing on diverse archival sources and interviews Sara Matthiesen illustrates how the last fifty years of state neglect have ensured that for most families meaningful choice is nowhere to be found Trans Biblical Joseph A. Marchal, 2025-04-08 Trans Biblical provides some of the most exciting new scholarly work in trans biblical interpretation to help us better understand our Bibles our bodies and one another in a fraught and fractious world Trans Biblical New Approaches to Interpretation and Embodiment in Scripture offers a collection of wide ranging essays exploring key issues animating trans biblical interpretation from a variety of angles and emphases Contributors who themselves represent a range of gender identities answer the question what makes a biblical reading trans or a trans reading biblical in diverse and exciting ways They also promote new ways of thinking about gender variation in the ancient world while more sensitively and critically addressing ongoing debates about gender and embodiment This collection is a helpful entrance into how biblical readers and interpreters can make new more creative reflexive and accountable connections to influential texts and traditions It represents a historic effort to situate expand and elaborate on the current trajectories of trans biblical interpretation Gender variance is as old as stories about creation and biblical texts are more variable than we have been trained to see They disrupt present day assumptions of a simple and stable gender binary often deployed against trans nonbinary and gender nonconforming people Taking us from Genesis through the Gospels and epistles and into rabbinic and early Christian scriptural engagement Trans Biblical sharpens our awareness of what is in these texts and builds up our capacities for what can be done with our encounter with biblical texts and traditions In short the work of the scholars gathered in this one convenient collection meets an important even urgent need by providing a range of entry points and approaches to biblical texts and traditions in a contextually and theoretically nuanced fashion

Trans Jack Halberstam, 2018-01-24 This title is part of American Studies Now and available as an e book first Visit ucpress.edu/go/americanstudiesnow to learn more In the last decade public discussions of transgender issues have increased exponentially However with this increased visibility has come not just power but regulation both in favor of and against trans people What was once regarded as an unusual or even unfortunate disorder has become an accepted articulation of gendered embodiment as well as a new site for political activism and political recognition What happened in the last few decades to prompt such an extensive rethinking of our understanding of gendered embodiment How did a stigmatized identity become so central to U S and European articulations of self And how have people responded to the new definitions and understanding of sex and the gendered body In Trans Jack Halberstam explores these recent shifts in the meaning of the gendered body and representation and explores the possibilities of a nongendered gender optional or gender queer future

The Queerness of Childhood Anna Fishzon, Emma Lieber, 2022-07-21 This book represents a meeting of queer theorists and psychoanalysts around the figure of the child Its intention is not only to interrogate the discursive work performed on and by the child in these fields but also to provide a stage for examining how psychoanalysis and queer theory themselves interact with the understanding that the meeting of these discourses is most generative around the queer time and sexualities of childhood From the theoretical perspectives of queer theory psychoanalysis anthropology and gender studies the chapters explore cultural aesthetic and historical forms and phenomena that are aimed at or are about children and that give expression to and make room for the queerness of childhood America Through Transgender Eyes J. E. Sumerau, Lain A.B. Mathers, 2019-04 America through Transgender Eyes provides readers with important insights into the beauty and struggle of transgender people identities experiences and relationships Transgender Intersections Carey Jean Sojka, Kylan Mattias de Vries, 2025-07-21 While transgender lives are at the forefront of contemporary politics what do we really understand about the complexity of trans experience Trans people who go through various aspects of gender transition experience shifts not only in their gender but also with regards to other categories of identity such as race social class sexuality disability and more Centering the stories of trans people and their loved ones Sojka and de Vries investigate how intersectionality operates at various levels of social meaning the individual the interpersonal and the structural in the experiences of transgender people Collectively they present an argument about why gendered and racialized processes in intersection are central to understanding trans lives Introduction to LGBTQ+ Studies Deborah P. Amory, Sean G. Massey, Jennifer Miller, Allison P. Brown, 2022-11-01 Introduction to LGBTQ Studies offers accessible academically sound information on a wide range of topics including history culture and Queer Theory an exploration of LGBTQ relationships families parenting health and education and how to conduct research on LGBTQ topics The book explores LGBTQ issues from the ancient world to contemporary global perspectives Employing an intersectional analysis the textbook highlights how sexuality and gender are simultaneously experienced and constructed through other structures of inequality and privilege such as race and class The text supports multiple learning styles by integrating visual elements multimedia resources discussion and project prompts and resources for further research throughout the textbook An OER version of this course is freely available thanks to the generous support of SUNY OER Services Access the book online at <https://milneopentextbooks.org/introduction-to-lgbtq-studies> a cross disciplinary approach Trans Exploits Jian Neo Chen, 2019-11-06 In Trans Exploits Jian Neo Chen explores the cultural practices created by trans and gender nonconforming artists and activists of color They argue for a radical rethinking of the policies and technologies of racial gendering and assimilative social programming that have divided LGBT communities and communities of color along the lines of gender sexuality class immigration status and ability Focusing on performance film video literature digital media and other forms of cultural expression and activism that track the displaced emergences of trans people of color Chen highlights the complex and varied responses by trans communities to their social dispossession Through these responses trans of color cultural workers such as performance artist Yozmit writer Janet Mock and organizer Jennicet Gutierrez challenge dominating perceptions and institutions that kill confine police and discipline trans people Critical Mental Health in Australia and Aotearoa New Zealand Natalie Ann Hendry, Effie Karageorgos, 2025-04-24 This interdisciplinary volume examines the social production of mental health and illness in Australia and Aotearoa New Zealand It draws together cutting edge critical mental health scholarship from the region to interrogate how personal community institutional and mediated relations make and remake experiences of mental health In the wake of the widespread insertion of psy considerations into everyday lives here contributors demonstrate how the relations between communities practices professionals and institutions often replicate long standing histories of discrimination and violence motivated by psychiatric classification even as the psy disciplines move into supposedly more transformational domains digital technology schooling human resources and social media for example The book s chapters reflect the current diversity within academic studies of mental health and illness in Australia and Aotearoa This includes a wide range of case studies from war trauma in the Australian military and pornography addiction to the depathologisation of trans health and peer workers in mental health services Critical Mental Health in Australia and Aotearoa New Zealand offers unique insights particular to the region to students and scholars of critical psychology history sociology medical humanities and education

Transgender People and Criminal Justice Heather Panter,Angela Dwyer,2023-06-02 This cutting edge book examines the unique issues that transgender identities face globally in the criminal processing system through empirical and theoretical contributions The contributing authors range from established transgender scholars transgender equality rights activists transgender policy influencers researchers from non profit groups and former criminal justice practitioners The book covers many under developed issues for transgender identities like criminalization victimization court experiences law enforcement and the policing of gender the school to prison pipeline and incarceration It provides a significant advancement in queer criminology and trans studies globally

The Conversation on Gender Diversity Jules Gill-Peterson,2023-05-02 This book collects articles from nonprofit independent news organization The Conversation to present an important primer on the history of gender diversity and the current challenges transgender people face in American society

Queering Criminology in Theory and Praxis Carrie L. Buist,Lindsay Kahle Semprevivo,2023-06-13 This ground breaking book explores the practical applications of queer theory for criminal justice practitioners

Abolitionist Intimacies El Jones,2022-11-02T00:00:00Z In Abolitionist Intimacies El Jones examines the movement to abolish prisons through the Black feminist principles of care and collectivity Understanding the history of prisons in Canada in their relationship to settler colonialism and anti Black racism Jones observes how practices of intimacy become imbued with state violence at carceral sites including prisons policing and borders as well as through purported care institutions such as hospitals and social work The state also polices intimacy through mechanisms such as prison visits strip searches and managing community contact with incarcerated people Despite this Jones argues intimacy is integral to the ongoing struggles of prisoners for justice and liberation through the care work of building relationships and organizing with the people inside Through characteristically fierce and personal prose and poetry and motivated by a decade of prison justice work Jones observes that abolition is not only a political movement to end prisons it is also an intimate one deeply motivated by commitment and love

Nepantla Squared Linda Heidenreich,2020-10 2021 Lambda Literary Awards Finalist Nepantla Squared maps the lives of two transgender mestiz s one during the turn of the twentieth century and one during the turn of the twenty first century to chart the ways race gender sex ethnicity and capital function differently in different times To address the erasure of transgender mestiz realities from history Linda Heidenreich employs an intersectional analysis that critiques monopoly and global capitalism Heidenreich builds on the work of Gloria Anzald a s concept of nepantleras those who could live between and embody more than one culture to coin the term nepantla² marking times of capitalist transition where gender was also in motion Transgender mestiz s too embodied that movement Heidenreich insists on a careful examination of the multiple in between spaces that construct lives between cultures and genders during in between times of shifting empire and capital In so doing they offer an important discussion of race class nation and citizenship centered on transgender bodies of color that challenges readers to rethink the way they understand the gendered social and economic challenges of today

Trans Bodies, Trans Selves Laura Erickson-Schroth, 2014-05-12 There is no one way to be transgender Transgender and gender non conforming people have many different ways of understanding their gender identities Only recently have sex and gender been thought of as separate concepts and we have learned that sex traditionally thought of as physical or biological is as variable as gender traditionally thought of as social While trans people share many common experiences there is immense diversity within trans communities There are an estimated 700 000 transgendered individuals in the US and 15 million worldwide Even still there s been a notable lack of organized information for this sizable group Trans Bodies Trans Selves is a revolutionary resource a comprehensive reader friendly guide for transgender people with each chapter written by transgender or genderqueer authors Inspired by Our Bodies Ourselves the classic and powerful compendium written for and by women Trans Bodies Trans Selves is widely accessible to the transgender population providing authoritative information in an inclusive and respectful way and representing the collective knowledge base of dozens of influential experts Each chapter takes the reader through an important transgender issue such as race religion employment medical and surgical transition mental health topics relationships sexuality parenthood arts and culture and many more Anonymous quotes and testimonials from transgender people who have been surveyed about their experiences are woven throughout adding compelling personal voices to every page In this unique way hundreds of viewpoints from throughout the community have united to create this strong and pioneering book It is a welcoming place for transgender and gender questioning people their partners and families students professors guidance counselors and others to look for up to date information on transgender life
