 mountain lion How will you go on living if we leave each other Colette 1873 1954 is one of the most widely read and critically acclaimed French writers of the twentieth century The Cat first serialised then published in volume form in 1933 is one of her short novels This story of a middle class couple in 1920s Paris follows the familiar romantic structure of the eternal triangle with the unexpected twist that the female rival is not a woman but a cat The novel displays her capacity to conjure up a vibrantly physical world and a particular social moment her radical yet nuanced view of gender roles and her empathy with non human creatures The Masked Woman is a collection of short texts mainly written for the daily newspaper Le Matin focusing on small moments that mark a transition in a person's life and on certain recurring themes the pleasure and the pain in relationships between women and men the wearing of masks both literal and metaphorical female complicity and solidarity They are also linked by Colette's inimitable narrative style by the vividly material fictional universe she creates and her liking for surprise and paradox that challenges a commonsensical view of the world ABOUT THE SERIES For over 100 years Oxford World's Classics has made available the widest range of literature from around the globe Each affordable volume reflects Oxford's commitment to scholarship providing the most accurate text plus a wealth of other valuable features including expert introductions by leading authorities helpful notes to clarify the text up to date bibliographies for further study and much more
