that are both legally robust and will support the effectiveness of the ETSs whilst limiting negative impacts on international trade

Including Consumption in Emissions Trading Manuel W. Haussner, 2021-03-26 This timely book addresses the need for further measures to reduce greenhouse gas emissions in the European Union arguing that the EU Emissions Trading Scheme does not offer sufficient incentives for the carbon intensive materials sector It highlights the challenge that emissions from industries such as iron and steel cement and aluminium amongst others pose to the EU's commitment to significantly cut emissions by 2030

Legal Issues on Climate Change and International Trade Law Deok-Young Park, 2016-04-29 This book provides an excellent overview of the legal issues surrounding climate change mitigation and international trade law It surveys key observed and potential challenges posed by responses to climate change in terms of international trade law By examining the controversial issues seen in legal cases in which domestic climate change or renewable energy measures conflicted with international trade regimes this volume promotes and broadens the understanding and debate of the issues Beyond the recognized challenges this book uncovers potential areas of conflict between climate change responses and international trade promotion by exploring previous cases and current efforts to prevent climate change Furthermore this volume sheds light on the future direction of international trade law and climate change responses pointing out that the development of climate change or renewable energy laws and policies must also consider international trade regimes in order to ensure the smooth implementation of said laws and policies and guarantee that international trade laws do not restrict environmental policy space

China's Influence on Non-Trade Concerns in International Economic Law Paolo Farah, Elena Cima, 2016-10-14 This volume examines the range of Non Trade Concerns NTCs that may conflict with international economic rules and proposes ways to protect them within international law and international economic law Globalization without local concerns can endanger relevant issues such as good governance human rights right to water right to food social economic cultural and environmental rights labor rights access to knowledge public health social welfare consumer interests and animal welfare climate change energy environmental protection and sustainable development product safety food safety and security Focusing on China the book shows the current trends of Chinese law and policy towards international standards The authors argue that China can play a leading role in this context not only has China adopted several reforms and new regulations to address NTCs but it has started to play a very relevant role in international negotiations on NTCs such as climate change energy and culture among others While China is still considered a developing country in particular from the NTCs point of view it promises to be a key actor in international law in general and more specifically in international economic law in this respect This volume assesses taking into consideration its special context China's behavior internally and externally to understand its role and influence in shaping NTCs in the context of international economic law

The World Trade System Jagdish N. Bhagwati, Pravin Krishna, Arvind Panagariya, 2016-12-12 Leading trade experts examine the world trading system today from the multilateralism of the WTO to explosive bilateralism and the mega regionals TPP and TTIP When the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade GATT metamorphosed into the World Trade Organization WTO in 1994 it seemed that the third pillar of the international economic superstructure was finally in place And yet with the failure of member countries to close the Doha Round of trade negotiations and the emergence of bilateral and plurilateral preferential trade arrangements PTAs such as the Trans Pacific Partnership TPP the future of the multilateral WTO seems uncertain In this volume leading economists examine issues in trade policy that have arisen during this shift The contributors discuss such topics as the effect of trade on poverty and inequality PTAs and litigation between trading partners the WTO Trade Facilitation Agreement and the relationship of food security and trade liberalization They also offer regional perspectives on the TPP and trans Atlantic free trade Contributors Rahel Aichele Jagdish Bhagwati Steve Charnovitz Gabriel Felbermayr Dimitar Gueorguiev Bernard Hoekman Jonas Kasteng Pravin Krishna Mary Lovely Petros Mavroidis Devashish Mitra Arvind Panagariya Tom Prusa Andre Sapir Stefan Tangermann

Energy in International Trade Law Anna-Alexandra Marhold, 2021-07-15 Against the backdrop of energy markets that have radically changed in recent decades this book offers an in depth study of energy regulation in international trade law The author seeks to clarify what we define as energy in the context of the applicable international trade rules and gives the reader a thorough analysis of the concepts history and law of the various legal frameworks underpinning international energy trade In addition several case studies address the ongoing quest for energy security and show how the existing rules relate to some of the vast challenges that energy markets face today notably the decentralisation and decarbonisation of energy markets
