Campaign Boot Camp 2.0 Christine Pelosi, 2012-03-05 Christine Pelosi presents leadership lessons from the campaign trail from a diverse array of over forty public figures lending advice for anyone who wants to run for office advocate for a cause or win a public policy issue This book draws from her leadership boot camps conducted in over thirty American states and in three foreign countries working with thousands of volunteers and dozens of successful candidates for office from city council to US congress Campaign Boot Camp 2.0 is basic training for future leaders who hear a call to service a voice of conscience that springs from their vision ideas and values and want to translate that call into positive change Pelosi outlines the seven essential steps to winning identify your call to service define your message know your community build your leadership teams raise the money connect with people and mobilize to win Each chapter concludes with a Get Real exercise so readers can personalize and integrate these ideas into individual efforts In this edition Pelosi updates the book's Call to Service profiles of political leaders and their calls to service details the expanding role of social media the Internet and technology as message multipliers explores challenges unique to women candidates and expands on the power of volunteers

Campaigns from the Ground Up John S Klemanski, David Dulio, Michael Switalski, 2015-11-17 Based on data from the most recent elections this book examines state house races in four key states California Texas Michigan and Virginia and creates simulations of campaign planning strategizing budgeting fundraising and winning in a variety of political contexts The authors have not only researched and taught about these issues they have conducted campaigns run for office and served in government at every level from the local to the national They have experience confronting questions of campaign ethics and crisis management and they actively embrace social media in their work Internet fundraising as well as campaign websites are among the many media subjects included This is a book not just for candidates campaign professionals and students but for all concerned citizens who want to understand the pathways of politics better Campaign Craft Michael J. Burton, William J. Miller, Daniel M. Shea, 2015-06-23 The go to source on campaign management for nearly two decades is now updated to cover the latest in contemporary campaign expertise from general strategy to voter contact to the future of political campaigns Political campaigning reinvents itself at a furious pace This highly respected text recounts the evolution of modern campaign management and shares strategies and tactics common to American elections Informed by the practical political experience of three scholarly authors the book weaves important academic perspectives with insights garnered from close observation of electoral practice The fifth edition lays out the foundations of modern campaign management going on to explore critical steps in running a new style campaign Using fresh stories and recent research the book follows American electioneering from the planning stages through Election Day and concludes with a view to the future of political campaigning Critical updates examine the Tea Party movement new political technologies advances and challenges in opinion polling and field experimentation and increasing polarization within the American electorate New material includes an exploration of the Super PACs and non candidate campaigns that are changing the strategic context of American elections

Winning Elections and Influencing Politicians for Library Funding Patrick "PC" Sweeney, John Chrastka, 2018-11-29 As the saying goes all politics is local And 90% of funding for public libraries comes from the will of local politicians and in turn from local voters So it is urgent that librarians library supporters and anyone interested in running an election or campaign for a library understand the strategies resources and tactics necessary for positive political action Whether election day is four months away or four years away there are immediate steps library leaders and local library ballot committees should take to help secure a successful ballot initiative later Written by two experienced library campaigners this action driven manual for anyone running a political campaign for libraries dives into proven successful campaigning techniques for rural suburban and urban settings expert analysis on how political perceptions are formed how political power works and ways libraries can reach funding or political goals starting the discussion internally the right approach to setting up the committee structure and identifying the core leadership team for the committee tips on networking cultivating good relationships with the power players in the community and building a winning coalition canvassing and direct voter contact responding effectively to opposition including voters who habitually resist taxes or library funding increases the differences between paid media and earned media and best practices for marketing and message development fundraising volunteer engagement and other key areas Filled with easy to follow strategies this book will guide ballot committees librarians trustees and library advocates through the process of winning an election for funding their library LIS students will also benefit from the early exposure to political literacy skills provided by this book Financing and Conducting a Political Campaign Corona Brezina, 2019-12-30 Many young people care passionately about social issues and are eager to participate in activism but they are often wary of the political establishment Participating in public service at a local level can give young people the opportunity to bring about positive change in their own neighborhoods and communities By providing an inside view into how to finance and conduct a successful campaign from the exploratory stages through election day this accessible narrative helps readers to understand and connect with the political process and to find a role for themselves within that process

Campaign Boot Camp 2.0 Christine Pelosi, 2012-03-05 1 Detailed practical advice on how to win any kind of campaign 2 Written by a veteran activist with a lifetime of experience running campaigns at every level 3 Updated throughout including new information on using social media challenges unique to women and the power of volunteers Campaign Boot Camp 2.0 is basic training for future leaders who hear a call to service a voice of conscience that springs from vision ideas and values and want to translate that call into positive change Pelosi offers the seven essential steps to winning identify your call to service define your message know your community build your leadership teams raise the money connect with people and mobilize to win Each chapter concludes with a Get Real exercise so readers can personalize and integrate these ideas into individual efforts In this edition Pelosi updates the book's Call to Service examples profiles of current political leaders and what motivated them to enter public service details the expanding role of social media the Internet and technology as message multipliers explores challenges unique to women candidates and expands on the power of volunteers Campaign Boot Camp ,2008 Christine Pelosi s boot camps for political candidates showcase techniques in management message money and mobilization that helped win Congress back for the Democrats in 2006 and made her mother the Speaker of the U S House of Representatives This book tells how it s done Distilling best practices from well known political figures and advocates Pelosi focuses on seven fundamental steps to launching successful campaigns for candidates and causes Campaign Boot Camp combines a call to public service with a concise methodology for successful involvement in participatory democracy
