Business of Influence Philip Sheldrake, 2011-05-04 Media has most definitely evolved as have the ways in which we contemplate design communicate and execute strategy And rather than technological evolution we're plainly in the midst of a technological revolution We have no choice then but to reframe marketing and PR in the context of 21st Century technology 21st Century media and disintermediation and 21st Century articulation of and appreciation for business strategy Today every organization is in the influence business We influence customers to buy from us employees to work for us and the media to write about us Gone are the days when you could be your own island Now to be successful you need to live within the influence ecosystem and that requires a change of mindset Fortunately Philip Sheldrake will show you how David Meerman Scott bestselling author of The New Rules of Marketing PR and the new hit Real Time Marketing PR

Stewardship Peter Block, 2013-05-20 One of the most provocative and revolutionary books written on leadership business and organizational design Stewardship remains just as relevant even twenty years later to transforming our organizations for the common good of the wider community We still face the challenge of fostering ownership and accountability throughout our organizations Despite all the evidence calling for profound change most organizations still rely on patriarchy and control as their core form of governance The result is that they stifle initiative and spirit and alienate people from the work they do This in the face of an increasing need to find ways to be responsive to customers and the wider community Peter Block insists that what is required is a dramatic shift in how we distribute power privilege and the control of money Stewardship he writes means giving people at the bottom and the boundaries of the organization choice over how to serve a customer a citizen a community It is the willingness to be accountable for the well being of the larger organization by operating in service rather than in control of those around us Block has revised and updated the book throughout including a new introduction addressing what has changed and what hasn't in the twenty years since the book was published and a new chapter on applying stewardship to the common good of the wider community He covers both the theory of stewardship in particular how it ameliorates the shortcomings of traditional leadership and the practice how it transforms every function and department for the better And he offers tactical advice as well on gearing up to implement these reforms
