Can We Be Good Without God:

Can We Be Good Without God? Robert Buckman, 2010-06-28 Recent neurological studies have shown that there are regions of the brain that seem predisposed to create beliefs Are we hardwired to believe And if so why do beliefs sometimes inspire major contributions to society while on other occasions they precipitate horrendous acts of destruction In this provocative and stimulating study of the connection between belief and behavior Dr Robert Buckman begins by reviewing the history of religious belief showing the many shared themes among religions of diverse cultures He then explains little publicized data from neuroscience on the limbic system and the right hand temporal lobe of the brain which when stimulated consistently produces deep seated spiritual feelings Recent experiments reveal that this portion of the brain may underlie the development of many common religious beliefs and perhaps the more aggressive and destructive behaviors associated with some of them Buckman also summarizes evidence regarding pheromones and their effect on the limbic system as a possible mechanism for certain types of crowd behavior whether in a religious or secular context Finally considering the long historical relationship between religion and ethics Buckman asks whether we can develop better nontheistic belief systems that avoid the destructive aspects of traditional religious beliefs He then describes ways in which we can become aware of and perhaps correct our limbic urges when they threaten to lead to destructive behavior This ambitious work covering important areas of social anthropology comparative religion neurology and psychology provides many insights into the mechanisms of belief Robert Buckman M D Toronto Ontario Canada is a cancer specialist professor in the department of medicine at the University of Toronto the current president of the Humanist Association of Canada and the author with Karl Sabbagh of Magic or Medicine

Can We Be Good Without God? John Blanchard, 2007-04 One of the things that distinguishes humankind from every other species on earth is that we have a moral dimension A moral law seems to be programmed into our psychological software and our awareness of it is triggered by the conscience a mysterious monitor that pokes its nose into every nook and cranny of our lives Why should this be the case Does our moral sense come from nature Is it nothing more than a cultural phenomenon Is personal preference the deciding factor Have we any right to question another person's moral choices Are there consistent guidelines for deciding whether something is good or evil right or wrong just or unjust Beyond these and other related questions lies an even greater one can we ever find a solid and coherent basis for morality unless our world view has God at the very centre of it Getting the right answers may change your life

Can We be Good Without God? Rob Buckman, 2000 Every religious code of behaviour no matter which doctrine offers a specific framework for human action Buckman explores the ethical behaviour of those who do not believe in a higher power Addressing some of humankind's most difficult questions he touches upon several myths theories and groundbreaking developments in the neurology of theology to provide an exploration of faith and the contradictions of religion in our modern world 2000

The Rational Bible: Exodus Dennis Prager, 2018-04-02 A national bestseller Why do so many people think the Bible the most influential book in world history is outdated Why do our friends and neighbors and sometimes we ourselves dismiss the Bible as irrelevant irrational immoral or all of these things This explanation of the Book of Exodus the second book of the Bible will demonstrate that the Bible is not only powerfully relevant to today's issues but completely consistent with rational thought Do you think the Bible permitted the trans Atlantic slave trade You won't after reading this book Do you struggle to love your parents If you do you need this book Do you doubt the existence of God because belief in God is irrational This book will give you reason after reason to rethink your doubts The title of this commentary is The Rational Bible because its approach is entirely reason based The reader is never asked to accept anything on faith alone As Prager says If something I write does not make rational sense I have not done my job The Rational Bible is the fruit of Dennis Prager's forty years of teaching the Bible to people of every faith and no faith On virtually every page you will discover how the text relates to the contemporary world and to your life His goal to change your mind and then change your life

A Christian Worldview

Primer for Twenty-First-Century Americans Stephen Heath, 2024-12-20 This primer begins by introducing the basic concepts of worldview It then outlines Christianity's answers to the worldview questions of origins purpose and destiny As a primer is wider than it is deep this one sets forth only broadly those concepts that shape the Christian worldview It seeks to provide a bird's eye view of the story of God's revelation for those who have begun their faith journey without necessarily having had the benefit of an in depth instruction in the faith It makes no claim to be a substitute for lifelong study and hopes ultimately to raise interest in and steer the reader toward that needed deeper understanding Toward that end it sets forth that conceptually Christianity's answers to worldview questions are built on a recognition that Christianity is revealed religion Its God reveals himself not as one but as three in one His revelation takes place at specific times and places through chosen individuals and groups Christianity has a history with a unique focus on the life ministry death resurrection and ascension of Jesus Christ The story of the events leading to that focus has been recorded for us in the Hebrew Scriptures and the story of God s revelation continues to be spread through the New Testament church The church is sustained by the Holy Spirit through worship and prayer Believers live in a context of faith love and hope Their mission is to serve others and to share with the world God s message of creation and fall judgment and redemption Christianity s understanding of the universe and life and law within it is unique comprehensive and coherent In every age the Christian worldview confronts a competing worldview which wrests authority from God and claims autonomy for humanity itself At this time and place the world on its own opposes the Christian worldview in many ways These ways include matters of authority truth rights sex social justice the relationship between religion and politics and society s dependence on three basic independent institutions the family a religious institution and a civic one This primer seeks to make the believer aware of these relationships and the differences between Christianity s understandings of them and those of the world It ends on a note of hope remembering the words of our Lord Be of good cheer for I have overcome the world Against the Tide Miroslav Volf,2010 This compelling collection gathers together articles previously published in The Christian Century from 1996 to 2008 The result is a cohesive book that unerringly points away from pettiness and selfishness and toward the love Christians are called to exemplify

Objecting to God Colin Howson,2011-07-28 The growth of science and a correspondingly scientific way of looking at evidence have for the last three centuries slowly been gaining ground over religious explanations of the cosmos and mankind s place in it However not only is secularism now under renewed attack from religious fundamentalism but it has also been widely claimed that the scientific evidence itself points strongly to a universe deliberately fine tuned for life to evolve in it In addition certain aspects of human life like consciousness and the ability to recognise the existence of universal moral standards seem completely resistant to evolutionary explanation In this book Colin Howson analyses in detail the evidence which is claimed to support belief in God s existence and argues that the claim is not well founded Moreover there is very compelling evidence that an all powerful all knowing God not only does not exist but cannot exist a conclusion both surprising and provocative No Apology Necessary Atheism Refuted Eternal Causal Intelligence Affirmed A Comprehensive Compendium of Intelligent Refutations to Atheism Gregory Lessing Garrett,2018-11-15 This book contains my writings other apologetics writers top scientists thinkers and scholars on the topics of Ontology Evolutionary Theory Theology Biogenesis Quantum Physics Philosophy Science Physics Scientism and Epistemology pertaining to the core topic of Refutations to Atheistic Materialism Crucial to consider is the idea that it is not any one refutation or data point of evidence pointing to the plausibility of there being an Eternal Causal Intelligence that creates a case for the strong possibility of such an Eternal Causal Intelligence a Creator Rather it is the summation of ALL such robust data points and proofs that culminates in an over arching and inescapable conclusion that such a Creator is not only highly plausible and therefore worthy of serious scientific philosophic and theological consideration but moreover to reject such a conclusion based upon the cumulative data is tantamount to an overt confession of scientific malpractice and a glaring Naturalism biases May You Have a Merry Christmas John H. Leith, 2010-07-01 Dr John H Leith 1919 2002 enjoyed Christmas He appreciated it especially as a celebration of the goodness of this world that God not only created but also in the incarnation of Jesus Christ entered blessed with his presence and redeemed And at Christmas he especially wanted to be in contact with and to minister to those whom he loved those whom he had taught and those whom he cherished as colleagues in the Christian and Reformed ministry of preaching teaching and pastoral care This little book comprises a collection of Leith s Christmas letters to his former ministerial students at Union Theological Seminary in Virginia The letters grew lengthier and richer through the years We have gathered them here so that others may enjoy reading them also The Crucible of Religion Wojciech Maria Zalewski, 2012-02-13 Religion is commonly viewed through the lens of the world s religious traditions stressing the differences and often the conflicts among them The author of this book instead presents religion as a common and universal human phenomenon based deeply in a human nature shared by all In this view the underlining and unifying principle of religion is a particular affirmative attitude toward life which he presents as the Ultimate Value and as such the key cultural constituent and defining factor of all religion This Ultimate Value finds its expressions in various civilizations and results in a variety of forms these are what we know as the world s religious traditions By analyzing the roles of both culture and civilization in their attitudes toward life the author places religion beyond religious traditions and shows how the latter regardless of whether they are theistic or atheistic draw their principles from the former mainly by promoting the Golden Rule in its applications These Three Elaine A. Robinson, 2010-02-01 These Three reclaims the theological virtues of faith hope and love from a Protestant scriptural perspective Robinson surveys the current state of the church and the decline of morality and civility in American society explores the history of the virtues from Greek thought through Aquinas and focuses on three virtues in order to concede that contemporary churches must reclaim and teach the interrelationship of the virtues as our lifelines to God and the good life Would You Believe? Tom Harpur, 2010-12-17 A hundred years ago most people accepted without question what their priest or rabbi or imam taught them about God but many people today educated to think for themselves find that the concepts of God taught by the world s major religions either insult or contradict their intelligence At the same time they find that having no faith has left a yawning spiritual void in their lives In Would You Believe Tom Harpur deals with the tough questions raised today by real people such as how to reconcile the presence of evil pain and suffering with belief in a loving God The challenge we face Harpur writes is not to find a substitute but to rediscover God under the encrustation of ritual and doctrine that the various faiths have built up We can go beyond all narrow minded claims of being the only true religion the only correct interpreter of God he says when we understand that all faiths are simply routes towards God that humans have been inspired to create We can use our intelligence to believe in God rather than deny it in order to swallow notions devised for a different people and a different time On Guard for Students William Lane Craig,2015-06-01 Do you wonder if God exists Do you wonder if life even has any meaning at all Do you wonder if Christian faith has answers to these and other difficult questions An intelligent faith begins with hard questions In On Guard for Students William Lane Craig tackles such questions with reason and precision He invites you to join him on a quest for ultimate reality This unique book takes you on an extraordinary journey of exploration as you probe for answers to life s deepest questions why anything at all exists the origin and fine tuning of the universe the nature of moral values and the reality of evil the historical person of Jesus of Nazareth and so on Five Views on the Church and Politics J. Brian Benestad,Robert Benne,Bruce Fields,Thomas W. Heilke,James K.A. Smith,2015-12-15 Learn to think deeply about the relationship between church and state in a way that goes beyond mere policy debates and current campaigns Few topics can grab headlines and stir passions quite like politics especially when the church is involved Considering the attention that many Christian parachurch groups churches and individual believers give to politics and of the varying and sometimes divergent political ideals and aims among them Five Views on the Church and Politics provides a helpful breakdown of the possible Christian approaches to political involvement General Editor Amy Black brings together five top notch political theologians in the book each representing one of the five key political traditions within Christianity Anabaptist Separationist the most limited possible Christian involvement in politics represented by Thomas Heilke Lutheran Paradoxical strong separation of church and state represented by Robert Benne Black Church Prophetic the church s mission is to be a voice for communal reform represented by Bruce Fields Reformed Transformationist emphasizes God s sovereignty over all things including churches and governments represented by James K A Smith Catholic Synthetic encouragement of political participation as a means to further the common good of all people represented by J Brian Benestad Each author addresses his tradition s theological distinctives the role of government the place of individual Christian participation in government and politics and how churches should or should not address political questions Responses by each contributor to opposing views will highlight key areas of difference and disagreement Thorough and even handed Five Views on the Church and Politics will enable readers to consider the strengths and weaknesses of the most significant Christian views on political engagement and to draw their own informed conclusions Reason and Reverence William R. Murry,2007 Beyond New Atheism and Theism Sal Restivo,2023-09-01 This book addresses the flaws and fallacies in the grounds for atheism and theism flaws and fallacies that contaminate the arguments of non believers and believers alike Focusing on the highly visible debates between the New Atheists such as Christopher Hitchens Daniel Dennett Richard Dawkins and Sam Harris on the one hand and their main theist opponents including Frank Turek John Lennox and William Lane Craig on the other it approaches these debates from the perspective of the sociology of religion and science With entire worldviews at stake it explores various failings in the logic language and knowledge of the protagonists revealing mistaken and oversimplified understandings of both science itself and the sociocultural and symbolic roles of religion on both sides Advancing a secular and humanist worldview unburdened by the problems that beset both atheism and theism the author argues for a sociological perspective on religion God and science as a practice together with a critical realist approach to the nature of the real world as we experience it Beyond New Atheism and Theism will therefore appeal to scholars and students of sociology and cultural studies with interests in the conflicting worldviews of science and religion

Moral Injury and the American Veteran Richard E. La Fleur, 2024-12-16 Richard E La Fleur's Moral Injury and the American Veteran Finding Meaning in Trauma Guilt and Shame explores how moral injury the collective manifestation of shame and guilt as a result of betrayal and transgression experienced by veterans returning from war deeply affects one's ability to recover from traumatic stressful events and to find meaningfulness in the world La Fleur combines a phenomenological framework with first hand testimonies from veterans experiencing moral injury and post traumatic stress disorder PTSD to deepen the reader's understanding of these life events Through this approach he examines two main ideas 1 moral injury is the main source of guilt and shame experienced by veterans and reduces a person's ability to find meaning in their life or to form meaningful connections with others and 2 moral injury cannot fully be understood through pathology rather it invites an integrative approach to explicate an existential healing process for the sufferer Connecting meaningfulness and the power of lived experiences this book uses a holistic approach to reveal the human condition Moral Injury and the American Veteran is an important resource for psychology scholars religious leaders health care workers practitioners and those who serve our veteran communities
