Ebook Undone Beautiful There Beauty Middle:

Powerful Poems Ralph Waldo Emerson, 2012 This is a collection of Emerson's poems. He, a leader in the Transcendentalist movement, was known for his inspirational and powerful lyrical works. The poems are divided into the following chapters: I Poems II May Day And Other Pieces III Elements And Mottoes IV Quatrains And Translations V Appendix VI Poems Of Youth And Early Manhood THE UNTOLD SECRET OF HER BEAUTY Jupshy Jasmin, 2020-05-18 A few years ago I went through a tough period in my life. In a culture where there is so much emphasis on physical attractiveness and beauty trends, my intrinsic value was not of interest to me. My dreams and aspirations reflected the things deemed important by society. This only led to disappointment and unfulfillment. For comfort, I looked to the story of Leah from the Bible because she was a woman who experienced the same feelings of insecurities and hopelessness because of her unmet desires as I did, and yet she still persevered. While reading the story of Leah, a deeper truth of Leah's story and my own was revealed to me. She received something greater than what she was seeking for because the untold secret of her beauty was found in the most uncommon place. The same goes for me; my beauty was in me all along, fighting to break free from the pressures of society and the unfairness of cultural expectations. It was then I decided to share this secret to help women break down the barriers created by societal standards, embrace their intrinsic value, and unlock the secret of their beauty. Probably many of you know about the ancient Hebrew woman Leah. She is famously known as the unattractive sister and wife who was never loved by her husband despite of her desperate prayer for his love. Like many of you, I was led to believe that Leah's experience was a story of defeat. However, her story was one of great victory and legacy. In my book, the untold secret of her beauty is found in the most uncommon place. Her inspirational message enables women to gain a new perspective of themselves from Leah's own struggle from desperation to magnificent glory. In a world that focuses on physical beauty, I am here to let you know the time has come to roll out your own red carpet and embrace your uniqueness. You are beautiful despite of the beauty standards that society has set before us. Get ready to navigate the story of Leah in a way that will allow you to reclaim your dignity and confidence. This book is going to revolutionize your life. I Was Beautiful Once, UNIQUELY BEAUTIFUL!. SANDRA W. American beauty Ethan Canin,1993 The World Beautiful Lilian Whiting,2000 The Illusion Of Beauty David Ocasio,2019-05-24 This parable is about a young lady s journey through the circumstances of life that can affect us for better or worse She starts out life disfigured but through the wonder of cosmetic surgery is transformed into a beauty queen During this time she gets caught up in a world that affords her all the advantages that come with pronounced physical beauty On the other hand having come from a humble background where beauty is determined by who we are rather than one s outward appearance she never completely embraces all of the superficialities laid before her While she is on this path she encounters an older man of significant stature and prominence who is caught in a conflict between good and evil but has always sided with good by using evil to achieve that outcome He embraces her with the love and affection of a father and brings attention to her humble beginnings reminding her that that which makes her truly beautiful is who she should hold on to if she wishes to avoid the pitfalls of the world that she s encountered Later she is embraced by a matriarch who possesses a good heart along with a generous and giving nature over time the two of them become close The strength of their bond along with their kind natures create a mother daughter type relationship between them enabling both to grow into even better and greater loving souls which further strengthens them as women Eventually the young lady experiences an accident which leaves her temporarily blind Once again she comes across another matriarch who aids her during this time of crisis The elderly lady shares her love time knowledge and wisdom enabling the girl to attain an even greater height of emotional and spiritual maturity During this moment of darkness the young lady encounters a gentleman who through their experience together returns her to the true essence of her being And by the love and guidance of the elder come to discover they are kindred spirits Finally when the girl is threatened the older father like gentleman protects her from any acts of evil against her or her love by once again using evil in the defense of good Though The Illusion of Beauty is but a work of fiction it is routed in and speaks to the good and bad in all of us Also the choices we make that at times may be imposed upon us or the ones we make simply because the circumstances allow us to for better or worse
