R. Shea Watts,2023-03-06 This dissertation explores the experiential contours of Pentecostalism as a liberative praxis The connection between Pentecostalism and social change is a burgeoning line of inquiry particularly in the Global South but this study focuses on the history of Pentecostalism in the US beginning with the production and circulation of the African American Spirituals Bringing theories of affect into conversation with ritual studies this interdisciplinary work traces personal stories and experiences from the author and examines them in light of Pentecostal traditions that stem from the Azusa Street Revival in Los Angeles California the birthplace of the Pentecostal movement William J Seymour's vision at Azusa was egalitarian and transgressed the societal boundaries and norms of race and gender in the early twentieth century Pentecostalism was and is informed by Black queer female and other voices often silent or rendered invisible Without this representation Pentecostalism is simply one tradition among many co-opted and appropriated for the ongoing colonial projects of the modern Western world Therefore this book explores Blackpentecostal tradition specifically The Fellowship of Affirming Ministries TFAM a predominately Black LGBTQ movement that integrates Pentecostal worship and theology with an inclusive liberative theology Religion of White Rage

Finley Stephen C. Finley,2020-09-21 Critically analyses the historical cultural and political dimensions of white religious rage in America past and present This book sheds light on the phenomenon of white rage and maps out the uneasy relationship between white anxiety religious fervour American identity and perceived black racial progress Contributors to the volume examine the sociological construct of the e white labourere whose concerns and beliefs can be understood as religious in foundation and uncover that white religious fervor correlates to notions of perceived white loss and perceived black progress In discussions ranging from the Constitution to the

Charlottesville riots to the evangelical community's uncritical support for Trump the authors of this collection argue that it is not economics but religion and race that stand as the primary motivating factors for the rise of white rage and white supremacist sentiment in the United States

Canine Confidential Marc Bekoff, 2018-04-13 Get to know your best friend better Everyone who owns a dog breeds or trains dogs or works with dogs should read this informative book Library Journal Just think about the different behaviors you see at a dog park We have a good understanding of what it means when dogs wag their tails but what about when they sniff and roll on a stinky spot Why do they play tug of war with one dog while showing their bellies to another Why are some dogs shy while others are bold What goes on in dogs heads and hearts and how much can we know and understand Written by award winning scientist and lifelong dog lover Marc Bekoff Canine Confidential not only brilliantly opens up the world of dog behavior but also helps us understand how we can make our dogs lives better Rooted in the most up to date science on cognition and emotion fields that have exploded in recent years Canine Confidential is a wonderfully accessible treasure trove of new information and myth busting Peeing we learn isn't always marking grass eating isn't always an attempt to trigger vomiting it's okay to hug a dog on their terms and so much more There's still much we don't know but at the core of the book is the certainty that dogs do have deep emotional lives and that as their companions and trainers we must recognize them as the unique complex individuals they are so we can keep them as happy and healthy as possible Bekoff shares his own studies and others research along with real life stories in a winning tone

Booklist Kabbalah and Sex Magic Marla Segol, 2021-09-08 In this provocative book Marla Segol explores the development of the kabbalistic cosmology underlying Western sex magic Drawing extensively on Jewish myth and ritual Segol tells the powerful story of the relationship between the divine and the human body in late antique Jewish esotericism in medieval kabbalah and in New Age ritual practice Kabbalah and Sex Magic traces the evolution of a Hebrew microcosm that models the powerful interaction of human and divine bodies at the heart of both kabbalah and some forms of Western sex magic Focusing on Jewish esoteric and medical sources from the fifth to the twelfth century from Byzantium Persia Iberia and southern France Segol argues that in its fully developed medieval form kabbalah operated by ritualizing a mythos of divine creation by means of sexual reproduction She situates in cultural and historical context the emergence of Jewish cosmological models for conceptualizing both human and divine bodies and the interactions between them arguing that all these sources position the body and its senses as the locus of culture and the means of reproducing it Segol explores the rituals acting on these models attending especially to their inherent erotic power and ties these to contemporary Western sex magic showing that such rituals have a continuing life Asking questions about its cosmology myths and rituals Segol poses even larger questions about the history of kabbalah the changing conceptions of the human relation to the divine and even the nature of religious innovation itself This groundbreaking book will appeal to students and scholars of Jewish studies religion sexuality and magic

more than a century ago the differences between animals and humans are of degree and not of kind Not long ago ethologists denied that animals had emotions or true intelligence Now we know that rats laugh when tickled magpies mourn as they cover the departed with greenery female whales travel thousands of miles for annual reunions with their gal pals seals navigate by the stars bears hum when happy and crows slide down snowy rooftops for fun In engaging text photographs and infographics Inside Animal Hearts and Minds showcases fascinating and heart warming examples of animal emotion and cognition that will foster wonder and empathy Learn about an orangutan who does macram monkeys that understand the concept of money and rats that choose friendship over food Even language math and logic are no longer exclusive to humans Prairie dogs have their own complex vocabularies to describe human intruders parrots name their chicks sea lions appear capable of deductive thinking akin to a ten year old child s and bears lemurs parrots and other animals demonstrate numerical cognition In a world where a growing body of scientific research is closing the gap between the human and non human Inside Animal Hearts and Minds invites us to change the way we view animals the world and our place in it

Roaming Free Like a Deer Daniel Capper,2022-03-15 By exploring lived ecological experiences across seven Buddhist worlds from ancient India to the contemporary West Roaming Free Like a Deer provides a comprehensive critical and innovative examination of the theories practices and real world results of Buddhist environmental ethics Daniel Capper clarifies crucial contours of Buddhist vegetarianism or meat eating nature mysticism and cultural speculations about spirituality in nonhuman animals Buddhist environmental ethics often are touted as useful weapons in the fight against climate change However two formidable but often overlooked problems with this perspective exist First much of the literature on Buddhist environmental ethics uncritically embraces Buddhist ideals without examining the real world impacts of those ideals thereby sometimes ignoring difficulties in terms of practical applications Moreover for some understandable but still troublesome reasons Buddhists from different schools follow their own environmental ideals without conversing with other Buddhists thereby minimizing the abilities of Buddhists to act in concert on issues such as climate change that demand coordinated large scale human responses With its accessible style and personhood ethics orientation Roaming Free Like a Deer should appeal to anyone who is concerned with how human beings interact with the nonhuman environment T&T

Clark Companion to the Bible and Film Richard Walsh,2018-06-28 The first decades of the twenty first century saw a resurgence of the biblical epic film such as Noah and Exodus Gods and Kings which was in turn accompanied by a growth of biblical film criticism This companion surveys that field of study by framing it in light of significant and recent biblical films as well as the voices of key biblical film critics Non Hollywood and seemingly non biblical films also come under investigation The contributors concentrate on three points context focusing on the Bible in specific film genres and cultural situations theory applying theory from both religion and film studies with an eye to their possible intersections and recent and significant texts reflecting on which texts and themes have been most important in biblical film and which are currently at

Violence Preity R. Kumar,2024-07-12 An Ordinary Landscape of Violence Women Loving Women in Guyana tells a new history of queer women in postcolonial Guyana While the country has experienced a rise in queer activism especially toward human rights efforts members of the Guyanese queer community have also been victims of extreme violence This book asks how a hetero patriarchal state shapes queer and women lovin women s experiences and how such women navigate racialized sexualized and homophobic violence With a unique focus on the lives of queer women in Guyana it reveals their manifold experiences of violence explores regional differences and shows their complicated understanding of what exactly constitutes rights and the limitations of those rights in their lives While activism against violence is crucial this book addresses not only the violence against women but theorizes the intimate partner violence between women and demonstrates the ways that violence is both racialized and sexualized Monsters vs. Patriarchy Patricia Saldarriaga,Emy Manini,2025-06-17 Across the globe the violent effects of patriarchy are manifest Women trans people gender nonconforming people and the racialized Other are regularly subjected to physical danger beginning with the denial of vitally important health care and in its most horrific form rape trafficking and murder Monsters vs Patriarchy links these real world horrors to the monstrification and dehumanization of people as expressed in contemporary global cinema This monstrification has been achieved through a toxic imagination attributed to women a trait that historically referred to the power of women to negatively affect others including their own children in the womb with only the use of their imagination This process reflects the misogynist and racist world in which we live where female bodies people of color and alternative identities represent a threat to patriarchal power Monsters vs Patriarchy examines female monstrosity as it appears in horror films from around the world and considers specific political scientific and historical contexts to better understand how we construct and reconstruct monstrosity using an intersectional approach to examine the imposition of gender and racial hierarchies that support national power structures The authors contend that monstrous female cinematic subjects including ghosts witches cannibals and posthuman beings are becoming empowered using the tools of their monstrification to smash the colonial white supremacist and misogynist structures that created them
