volume is still a bit offset from the fifth Dot and there's a little snooze feature which is helpful if you use Dot for alarms and reminders. One notable thing about the new design is the elliptical band that rises to its height and the power button on the back. This means you shouldn't expect the omnidirectional microphone to be a new design, but it's a new design. In our test, the newer Dot does respond quicker. The fifth generation Echo Dot is a new design, but it's a new design. Ready to explore new features and know your device better?
