Ecoambiguity Karen Thornber, 2012-03-02 Delving into the complex contradictory relationships between humans and the environment in Asian literatures Asian American Literature and the Environment Lorna Fitzsimmons, Youngsuk Chae, Bella Adams, 2014-10-24 This book is a ground breaking transnational study of representations of the environment in Asian American literature Extending and renewing Asian American studies and ecocriticism by drawing the two fields into deeper dialogue it brings Asian American writers to the center of ecocritical studies This collection demonstrates the distinctiveness of Asian American writers positions on topics of major concern today environmental justice identity and the land war environments consumption urban environments and the environment and creativity Represented authors include Amy Tan Maxine Hong Kingston Ruth Ozeki Ha Jin Fae Myenne Ng Le Ly Hayslip Lan Cao Mitsuye Yamada Lawson Fusao Inada Jeanne Wakatsuki Houston Milton Murayama Don Lee and Hisaye Yamamoto These writers provide a range of perspectives on the historical social psychological economic philosophical and aesthetic responses of Asian Americans to the environment conceived in relation to labor racism immigration domesticity global capitalism relocation pollution violence and religion Contributors apply a diversity of critical frameworks including critical radical race studies counter memory studies ecofeminism and geomantic criticism The book presents a compelling and timely green perspective through which to understand key works of Asian American literature and leads the field of ecocriticism into neglected terrain East Asian Ecocriticisms S. Estok, W. Kim, 2013-03-26 East Asian Ecocriticisms presents original essays from Japan South Korea Taiwan and China that define and characterize trends in East Asian ecocriticism Drawing on diverse theoretical perspectives in environmental thought and scholarship this volume presents valuable and original contributions to global conversations

Southeast Asian Ecocriticism John Charles Ryan, 2017-11-08 Southeast Asian Ecocriticism presents a timely exploration of the rapidly expanding field of ecocriticism through its devotion to the writers creators theorists traditions concerns and landscapes of Southeast Asian countries While ecocritics have begun to turn their attention to East and South Asian contexts and particularly to Chinese and Indian cultural productions less emphasis has been placed on the diverse environmental traditions of Southeast Asia Building on recent scholarship in Asian ecocriticism the book gives prominence to the range of theoretical models and practical approaches employed by scholars based within and located outside of the Southeast region Consisting of twelve chapters Southeast Asian Ecocriticism includes contributions on the ecological prose poetry cinema and music of Indonesia Malaysia Myanmar the Philippines Thailand and Vietnam The authors emphasize the transnational exchanges of materials technologies texts motifs and ideas between Southeast Asian countries and Australia England Taiwan Formosa and the United States From environmental hermeneutics postcolonial studies indigenous studies and ecofeminism to critical plant studies ecopoetics and ecopedagogy the edited collection embodies the dynamic breadth of interdisciplinary environmental scholarship today Southeast Asian Ecocriticism foregrounds the theories practices and prospects of ecocriticism in the region The volume opens up new directions and reveals fresh possibilities not only for ecocritical scholarship in Southeast Asia but for a comparative environmental criticism that transcends political boundaries and national canons The volume highlights the important role of literature in heightening awareness of ecological issues at local regional and global scales

Routledge Handbook of Environment and Society in Asia Paul G. Harris, Graeme Lang, 2014-09-19 Nowhere is the connection between society and the environment more evident and potentially more harmful for the future of the world than in Asia In recent decades rapid development of Asian countries with very large populations has led to an unprecedented increase in environmental problems such as air and water pollution solid and hazardous wastes deforestation depletion of natural resources and extinction of native species This handbook provides a comprehensive survey of the cultural social and policy contexts of environmental change across East Asia The team of international experts critically examine a wide range of environmental problems related to energy climate change air land water fisheries forests and wildlife The editors conclude that with nearly half of the human population of the planet and several rapidly growing economies most notably China Asian societies will determine much of the future of human impacts on the regional and global environments As climate change related threats to society increase the book strongly argues for increased environmental consciousness and action in Asian societies This handbook is a very valuable companion for students scholars policy makers and researchers working on environmental issues in Asia

The Cambridge Companion to Literature and the Environment Louise Westling, 2014 This authoritative collection of rigorous but accessible essays investigates the exciting new interdisciplinary field of environmental literary criticism

Sino-Japanese Transculturation Richard King, Cody Poulton, Katsuhiko Endo, 2012-01-01 This is a multi author work which examines the cultural dimensions of the relations between East Asia's two great powers China and Japan in a period of change and turmoil from the late nineteenth century to the end of the Second World War This period saw Japanese invasion of China the occupation of China's North east Manchuria and Taiwan and war between the two nations from 1937-1945 the scars of that war are still evident in relations between the two countries today In their quest for modernity the rulers and leading thinkers of China and Japan defined themselves in contradistinction to the other influenced both by traditional bonds of classical culture and by the influx of new Western ideas that flowed through Japan to China The experiences of intellectual and cultural awakening in the two countries were inextricably linked as our studies of poetry fiction philosophy theatre and popular culture demonstrate The chapters explore this process of transculturation the sharing and exchange of ideas and artistic expression not only in Japan and China but in the larger region which Joshua Fogel has called the Sinosphere an area including Korea and parts of Southeast Asia with a shared heritage of Confucian statecraft and values underpinned by the classical Chinese language The authors of the chapters who include established senior academics and younger scholars and employ a range of disciplines and methodologies were selected by the editors for their expertise in particular aspects of this rich and complex cultural relationship As for the editors Richard King and Cody Poulton are scholars and translators of Chinese literature and Japanese theatre respectively each taking a historical and comparative perspective to the study of their subject Katsuhiko Endo is an intellectual historian dealing with both Japan and China

Memorials Matter Jennifer K Ladino,2019-02-06 From the sculptured peaks of Mount Rushmore to the Coloradan prairie lands at Sand Creek to the idyllic islands of the Pacific the West's signature environments add a new dimension to the study of memorials In such diverse and often dramatic landscapes how do the natural and built environments shape our emotions In Memorials Matter author Jennifer Ladino investigates the natural and physical environments of seven diverse National Park Service NPS sites in the American West and how they influence emotions about historical conflict and national identity Chapters center around the region's diverse inhabitants Mexican Chinese Japanese African and Native Americans and the variously traumatic histories these groups endured histories of oppression exploitation incarceration slavery and genocide Drawing on material ecocritical theory Ladino emphasizes the ideological and political importance of memorials and how they evoke visceral responses that are not always explicitly storied but nevertheless matter in powerful ways In this unique blend of narrative scholarship and critical theory Ladino demonstrates how these memorial sites and their surrounding landscapes combined with written texts generate emotion and shape our collective memory of traumatic events She urges us to consider our everyday environments and to become attuned to features and feelings we might have otherwise overlooked

Remembering May Fourth Carlos Yu-Kai Lin,Victor H. Mair,2020-03-02 Read an interview with Carlos Yu Kai Lin Remembering May Fourth The Movement and its Centennial Legacy is a collective work of thirteen scholars who reflect on the question of how to remember the May Fourth Movement one of the most iconic socio political events in the history of modern China The book discusses a wide range of issues concerning the relations between politics and memory between writing and ritualizing between fiction and reality and between theory and practice Remembering May Fourth thus calls into question the ways in which the movement is remembered while at the same time calling for the need to create new memories of the movement

Chinese Shock of the Anthropocene

Kwai-Cheung Lo, Jessica Yeung, 2019-05-07 This book examines China s role and its cultural productions in the process of environmental destruction and transformation focusing on how various cultural media play a significant role in shaping and reproducing Chinese subject formation in relation to changing ecological conditions It argues that China under the leadership of Xi Jinping vowed in 2017 to play a leading role in preserving the planet for the future but many of its actions such as its Belt and Road initiative have aroused apprehension rather than inspired confidence Against this backdrop of environmental concern this volume brings together a cutting edge critical analysis of Chinese literature music and cinema offering a transdisciplinary and comprehensive vision of Chinese arts and literature under the current conditions of the Anthropocene This volume sets a high scholarly standard in the field and constitutes a valuable reference for scholars and students of Chinese cultural studies Chinese studies and Anthropocene studies

Handbook of Ecocriticism and Cultural Ecology

Hubert Zapf, 2016-05-10 Ecocriticism has emerged as one of the most fascinating and rapidly growing fields of recent literary and cultural studies From its regional origins in late twentieth century Anglo American academia it has become a worldwide phenomenon which involves a decidedly transdisciplinary and transnational paradigm that promises to return a new sense of relevance to research and teaching in the humanities A distinctive feature of the present handbook in comparison with other survey volumes is the combination of ecocriticism with cultural ecology reflecting an emphasis on the cultural transformation of ecological processes and on the crucial role of literature art and other forms of cultural creativity for the evolution of societies towards sustainable futures In state of the art contributions by leading international scholars in the field this handbook maps some of the most important developments in contemporary ecocritical thought It introduces key theoretical concepts issues and directions of ecocriticism and cultural ecology and demonstrates their relevance for the analysis of texts and other cultural phenomena
