Ecodeviance Somatics For The Future Wilderness:

ECODEVIANCE CAConrad,2014-09-09 The Soma tic Exercises are innovative and crucial to our art form Conrad must be one of the most original practitioners of poetry forging new territory The Rumpus There was a time some of us believed poetry and poets could save the world CAConrad never stopped believing it The Huffington Post From M I A ESCALATOR The ultrasound machine gives the parents the ability to talk to the unborn by their gender taking the intersexed nine month conversation away from the child The opportunities limit us in our new world Encourage parents to not know encourage parents to allow anticipation on either end Escalators are a nice ride slowly rising and falling writing while riding notes for the poem meeting new people at either end Excuse me EXCUSE ME My escalator notes became a poem CAConrad s ECODEVIANCE contains twenty three new Soma tic writing exercises and their resulting poems in which he pushes his political and ecological efforts even further These exercises unorthodox steps in the writing process work to break the reader and writer out of the quotidian and into a more politically and physically aware present In performing these rituals CAConrad looks through a sharper lens and confirms the necessity of poetry and politics CAConrad is the author of several books of poetry and essays A 2014 Lannan Fellow a 2013 MacDowell Fellow and a 2011 Pew Fellow he also conducts workshops on Soma tic poetry and Ecopoetics ECODEVIANCE CAConrad,2014-09-09 Twenty three new Soma tic exercises and rituals for creating an extreme present and their resulting poems The Best American Poetry 2014 David Lehman,Terrance Hayes,2014-09-09 Collects poems chosen by the editors as the best of 2014 featuring works by John Ashbery Anne Carson Mary Ruefle Frederick Seidel and others Places in the Making Jim Cocola,2016-05 7 From Aztl n Gloria Anzald a and Jimmy Santiago Baca 8 Remilitarized Poems Theresa Hak Kyung Cha and Myung Mi Kim 9 Forget Your Pastoral Haunani Kay Trask and Craig Santos Perez Coda Look Through to Somewhere Notes Works Cited Index Breathing Aesthetics Jean-Thomas Tremblay,2022-08-29 In Breathing Aesthetics Jean Thomas Tremblay argues that difficult breathing indexes the uneven distribution of risk in a contemporary era marked by the increasing contamination weaponization and monetization of air Tremblay shows how biopolitical and necropolitical forces tied to the continuation of extractive capitalism imperialism and structural racism are embodied and experienced through respiration They identify responses to the crisis in breathing in aesthetic practices ranging from the film work of Cuban American artist Ana Mendieta to the disability diaries of Bob Flanagan to the Black queer speculative fiction of Renee Gladman In readings of these and other minoritarian works of experimental film endurance performance ecopoetics and cinema v rit Tremblay contends that articulations of survival now depend on the management and dispersal of respiratory hazards In so doing they reveal how an aesthetic attention to breathing generates historically culturally and environmentally situated tactics and strategies for living under precarity

Readings in Contemporary Poetry Vincent Katz,2017-01-01 Culled from Dia Art Foundation s Readings in Contemporary Poetry series this anthology includes ninety four poets who have participated in the reading series from 2010 to 2016 Edited by poet and author Vincent Katz the book stresses the experimental aspects of contemporary poetic practice highlighting commonalities among poets and placing their diverse voices in conversation with one another The Cambridge History of Queer American Literature Benjamin Kahan, 2024-06-06 Moby Dick's Ishmael and Queequeg share a bed Janie in Zora Neale Hurston's Their Eyes Were Watching God imagines her tongue in another woman's mouth And yet for too long there has not been a volume that provides an account of the breadth and depth of queer American literature This landmark volume provides the first expansive history of this literature from its inception to the present day offering a narrative of how American literary studies and sexuality studies became deeply entwined and what they can teach each other It examines how American literature produces and is in turn woven out of sexualities gender pluralities transness erotic subjectivities and alternative ways of inhabiting bodily morphology In so doing the volume aims to do nothing less than revise the ways in which we understand the whole of American literature It will be an indispensable resource for scholars graduate students and undergraduates

The Practice of Rhetoric Debra Hawhee, Vessela Valiavitcharska, 2022-10-18 Rhetoric broadly conceived as the art of making things matter is both a practice and theory about that practice In recent decades scholars of rhetoric have turned to approaches that braid together poetics performance and philosophy into a practical art By practical art they mean methods tested in practice by trial and error with a goal of offering something useful and teachable This volume presents just such an account of rhetoric The account here does not turn away from theory but rather presumes and incorporates theoretical approaches offering a collection of principles assembled in the heat and trials of public practice The approaches ventured in this volume are inspired by the capacious conception of rhetoric put forth by historian of rhetoric Jeffrey Walker who is perhaps best known for stressing rhetoric's educational mission and its contributions to civic life The Practice of Rhetoric is organized into three sections designed to spotlight in turn the importance of poetics performance and philosophy in rhetorical practice The volume begins with poetics stressing the world-making properties of that word in contexts ranging from mouse-infested medieval fields to the threat of toxin-ridden streams in the mid-twentieth century Susan C. Jarratt for instance probes the art of ekphrasis or vivid description and its capacity for rendering alternative futures Michele Kennerly explores a little-studied linguistic predecessor to prose logos psilos or naked speech exposing the early rumblings of a separation between poetic and rhetorical texts even as it historicizes the idea of clothed or ornamented speech In an essay on the almost magical properties of writing Debra Hawhee considers the curious practice of people writing letters to animals in order to banish or punish them thereby casting the epistolary arts in a new light Part 2 moves to performance Vessela Valiavitcharska examines the intertwining of poetic rhythm and performance in Byzantine rhetorical education and how such practices underlie the very foundations of oratory Dale Martin Smith draws on the ancient stylistic theory of Dionysius of Halicarnassus along with the activist work of contemporary poets Amiri Baraka and Harmony Holiday to show how performance and persuasion unify rhetoric and poetics Most treatments of philosophy and rhetoric begin within a philosophical framework and remain there focusing on old tools like stasis and disputation Essays in part 3 break out of that mold by focusing on the utility and teachability of rhetorical principles in education Jeanne Fahnestock and Marie Secor update stasis a classical framework that encourages aspiring rhetors to ask after the nature of things their facts and their qualities as a way of locating an argument's position Mark Garrett Longaker probes the medieval practice of disputation in order to marshal a new argument about why exactly John Locke detested rhetoric and the longstanding opposition between science and rhetoric as modes of proof that has lasting implications for the way argument works today Ranging across centuries and contexts the essays collected here demonstrate the continued need to attend carefully to the co operation of descriptive language and normative reality conceptual vocabulary and material practice public speech and moral self shaping The volume promises to rekindle long standing conversations about the public world making practice of rhetoric thereby enlivening anew its civic mission
