The Future of Centerville

Problem

Centerville is a Midwestern town of about 25,000 people, about 50 miles from a large metropolitan area. Its government consists of a mayor and a town council. In recent years, Centerville has come upon hard times. Its population is dwindling, with many of its young people moving to the city where the job market is good. When a large shopping mall is built about five miles outside of town, local shops and businesses in downtown Centerville cannot compete and start to close.
