Deutsch, 2014-05-09 For much of its history psychoanalysis has been strangely silent about sudden ruptures in the analytic relationship and their immediate and far reaching effects for those involved Such issues of betrayal and abandonment the death of an analyst a patient s suicide an ethical violation disrupt the stability and cohesion of the analytic framework and leave indelible marks on both individuals and institutions alike In Traumatic Ruptures an international range of contributors present first person highly personal and sometimes painful accounts of their experiences and the occasionally difficult yet redeeming lessons they have taken from them Presented in four parts the book explores multiple meanings and consequences of the break in the analytic relationship Part One Ruptured Subjectivity Lost and Found presents accounts of clinical encounters with death Part Two Rupture The Clinical Process addresses the sudden loss of an analyst the trauma of patient suicide and the issue of countertransference when working with patients who have suffered the unexpected loss of their first analyst Part Three The Long Shadow of Rupture examines the effects of ethical violations in the short and long term Finally Part Four Ruptures Impact on Organizations looks at the wider impact of ethical and sexual boundary violations in the context of an organization and the effect of trauma on a psychoanalytic institute By giving voice to issues that are usually silenced the authors here open the door to understanding the complex nature of traumatic rupture within the analytic field This intimate exploration of psychoanalytic treatments and communities is ideal for psychoanalysts psychologists clinical social workers psychiatrists and family therapists It is an important text for clinicians working with individuals who have experienced traumatic ruptures and for members of organisations dealing with their effects Singer's Library of Arias

before him appreciate the little things the quiet things the ripple on the pond stopping to breathe and reflect and perhaps to listen to the soft sounds of God's great work I have entered the sunset of my life My time on earth ordained by God wanes like the setting of the sun and as the brilliant colors light the sky so does my love for what God has given me through my many years To see the singular snowflake hear the cry of the chickadee I invite you to come with me as my stories tell of my journey to this moment in time Sit back in a quiet spot open this book feel its pages and see what I have seen May God bless and keep you and perhaps slow you down

We Bleed Zuzu Alexi, 2015-05-08 I reflect on the many routes I travelled and I see the variety of landscapes my eyes beheld I think of the many slopes and the stale hills I walked through valleys and rivers big and small I remember the great few mountains I gazed upon and the trees young old and tall I walked different trails and opened my eyes in different places I had seen grass dancing with the breeze and a clear blue sky I remember a sunset waving to say goodnight and a moon trying to outshine the stars I remember lying under the shade of a tree watching a worm crawling on its stump I have seen ants going about their business and insects great and small I strolled between weeds and shrubs and played with their stems As for my body it knows how it feels to lie on meadows I walked on sand and felt the tiny stones between my toes Some late afternoons I heard birds singing with operatic voices As a child I played in the rain and heard the thunder above my head After the rain I saw the promise of God in the skya rainbow Ive watched the flow if a stream breaking on pebbles and when I gazed up to the sky I saw clouds moving by I already heard the wind in its fury and witnessed the ocean in its rage I have seen a desert storm and hid my face from its rusty desert sand I have seen flowers bloom and bees buzzing for their nectar I know how to greet every new day with my prayers and give gratitude to the Creator for the creation My journey is the recorded history of my time and in my time I have seen what I have seen and know in my heart that life is a special gift But I have also seen despair and troubled times I had many encounters with dark days but I rose from the pain I have tasted my tears and seen my own blood Every day I see my reflection in the mirror then I remind myself that I am more than what I see I go through bad times and also through good times I sometimes fight fear doubt and tears but I stand for the human race because it is my passion I have seen human tears emotional pain and human fears Therefore within me there is a warrior that knows how to bleed and survive Each day I learn to cope with the pressures of life and I never give up on a grain of hope I breathe I laugh I cry but I am here and I exist I was in my yesterday and will be in my tomorrow At this moment I am now I am the sentinel of my life and with my voice I announce that I am who I am and I am here with you on the same
