woods He bought five acres in the hills of western Maine and asked his younger brother Paul to help him Twenty years earlier the brothers had built a house together Now Lou saw working with Paul as a way to reconnect with their shared history and to rediscover his truest self As the brothers with the help of Paul s sons undertake the challenging construction nothing seems to go according to plan But as they raise the cabin Ureneck eloquently reveals his own evolving insights into the richness and complexity of family relationships the healing power of nature and the need to root oneself in a place one can call home With its exploration of the satisfaction of building and of physical labor Cabin will also appeal to readers of Robert Pirsig s Zen and the Art of Motorcycle Maintenance Matthew Crawford s Shop Class as Soulcraft and Tracy Kidder s House      Loring Air Force Base (AFB), Disposal and Reuse ,1994      Moon Acadia National Park Hilary
