Glasgow Central Station Through Time Michael Meighan,2013-04-15 This fascinating selection of photographs traces some of the many ways in which Glasgow Central Station has changed and developed over the last century      Handbook of Teaching and Learning in Tourism Pierre Benckendorff, Anita Zehrer, 2017-01-27 This comprehensive Handbook provides an international perspective on contemporary issues and future directions in teaching and learning in tourism Key topics include assurance of learning development of skills learning in the field work integrated learning sustainability and critical studies internationalisation technology enabled learning links between teaching and research and graduate student supervision Within these topics attention is devoted to the discussion of curriculum pedagogy assessment students educators and trends and issues The Handbook provides a valuable resource for understanding teaching and learning theory and practice in tourism      Regenerating the Inner City David Donnison, Alan Middleton, 2018-05-20 Originally published in 1987 Regenerating the Inner City looks at the changes to Glasgow's East End and how industrial closures and slum clearance projects have caused people to leave This is reflected across the western world and causes severe blows to cities where these industries are located The book draws on Glasgow's Eastern Area Renewal Scheme the first big urban renewal project in Britain The contributors to the volume come from a range of disciplines and form practical conclusions for policy makers and community activists The book uses door to door surveys in Glasgow's east end and interviews with community groups to gain an authentic understanding of the issue      Spaceships Over Glasgow Stuart Braithwaite, 2022-09-29 Born the son of Scotland's last telescope maker Stuart Braithwaite was perhaps always destined for a life of psychedelic adventuring on the furthest frontiers of noise in MOGWAI one of the best loved and most ground breaking post rock bands of the past three decades Modestly delinquent at school Stuart developed an early appetite for alternative music in what might arguably be described as its halcyon days the late 80s Discovering bands like Sonic Youth My Bloody Valentine and Jesus and Mary Chain and attending seminal gigs often incongruously incognito as a young girl with long hair to compensate for his babyface features by The Cure and Nirvana Stuart compensated for his indifference to school work with a dedication to rock and roll and of course the fledgling hedonism that comes with it Spaceships Over Glasgow is a love song to live rock and roll to the passionate abandon we've all felt in the crowd and some of us if lucky enough from the stage at a truly incendiary gig It is also the story of a life lived on the edge of the high times and hazardous pit stops of international touring with a band of misfits and miscreants      Edinburgh Waverley Station Through Time Michael Meighan, 2014-07-15 This fascinating selection of photographs traces some of the many ways in which Edinburgh Waverley station has changed and developed over the last century      Glasgow, Past and Present David Robertson (F.S.A. Scot.), 1884      Alternative Economic Spaces Andrew Leyshon, Roger Lee, Colin C Williams, 2003-09-03 A hopeful but nonetheless hard hitting analysis of alternative economic spaces proliferating in the belly of the capitalist beast In this book Leyshon Lee and Williams convene fascinating studies of exchange enterprise credit and community They invite us onto a new and promising discursive terrain where we can analyze criticize and above all recognize actually existing economies of diversity in the wealthy countries of the West J K

Gibson Graham Australian National University and University of Massachusetts Amherst In the context of problems in the new economy from dot com start ups high technology and telecoms Alternative Economic Spaces presents a critical evaluation of alternatives to the global economic mainstream It focuses on the emergence of alternative economic geographies within developed economies and analyzes the emergence of alternative economic practices within industrialized countries These include the creation of institutions like Local Exchange and Trading Systems Credit Unions and other social economy initiatives and the development of alternative practices from informal work to the invention of consumption sites that act as alternatives to the monopoly of the big box multi chain retail outlets Alternative Economic Spaces is a reconsideration of what is meant by the economic in economic geography its objective is to bring together some of the ways in which this is being undertaken The volume shows how the economic is being rethought in economic geography by detailing new economic geographies as they are emerging in practice
