Isolated and alone, her father's disappearance is nothing new to her, but this time things are a little different. For starters, there is a handsome stranger, Daniel, that has come to town, and while Charlie has never taken more than a passing interest in strangers, she has an immediate and intense attraction to this one. Secondly, she's soon to find out that this stranger isn't what he appears. He's about to throw Charlie's entire world into a major upheaval. Now Charlie has to decide if she believes this stranger's incredible story and follow Daniel, or if she wants to stay in the only home she's ever known for an uncertain future and an absentee father. As she comes to terms with what Daniel shows her, she realizes that he's the only true thing in her life and leaves everything she knows behind to follow the handsome stranger.
