Global Entrepreneurship and Development Index 2014 Zoltan J. Acs, László Szerb, Erkki Autio, 2015-03-11 This volume captures the context features of entrepreneurship and fills a gap in the measurement of development Building on recent advances in entrepreneurship and economic development the authors have created an index that offers a measure of the quality of the business formation process in 120 of the most important countries in the world The authors expertly capture the contextual feature of entrepreneurship by focusing on entrepreneurial attitudes entrepreneurial abilities and entrepreneurial aspirations The data and their contribution to the business formation process are supported by three decades of research into entrepreneurship across a host of countries The Global Entrepreneurship and Development Index is a construction of individual and institutional measures that integrates 31 variables from various data sources into 15 pillars three sub indexes and a super index The relationship between entrepreneurship and economic development appears to be more or less mildly S shaped The findings suggest moving away from simple measures of entrepreneurship across countries illustrating a U shaped or L shaped relationship to more complex measures which are positively related to development The model has important implications for development policy This unique book will be invaluable for researchers policymakers and entrepreneurs keen to expand their understanding of entrepreneurship and development

Global Entrepreneurship and Development Index 2015 Zoltan J. Acs, László Szerb, Erkki Autio, 2015-11-27 This volume provides a detailed look at the entrepreneurial ecosystem of different nations by combining individual data with institutional components The composite index presented in this book the Global Entrepreneurship Index GEI aims to measure the quality and scale of the entrepreneurial process in 130 countries around the world The authors have developed a system that links institutions and agents through a National Entrepreneurial System ecosystem in which each biotic and abiotic component is reinforced by the other at a country level The enclosed data from both individual and country level institutions provides policymakers a tool for understanding the entrepreneurial strengths and weaknesses of their respective economies thereby enabling the implementation of policies that foster productive entrepreneurship Distinct from both output based entrepreneurship indexes i e new firm counts and process based indexes i e comparisons of policies and regulations the GEI is designed to profile national systems of entrepreneurship The GEI is a construction of individual and institutional measures that integrates 31 variables from various data sources into 14 pillars three sub indexes and a super index The relationship between entrepreneurship and economic development appears to be more or less mildly S shaped The findings suggest moving away from simple measures of entrepreneurship across countries illustrating a U shaped or L shaped relationship to more complex measures which are positively related to development The Index also does not focus exclusively on high growth entrepreneurship it also considers the characteristics of entrepreneurship that enhance productivity innovation market expansion being growth oriented and having an international outlook Moreover because entrepreneurship can have both economic and social consequences for the individual the GEI captures the dynamic institutionally embedded interactions between the individual level attitudes abilities and aspirations that drive productive entrepreneurship This unique book will be invaluable for researchers policymakers and entrepreneurs keen to expand their understanding of entrepreneurship and development Global Entrepreneurship and Development Index 2016 Zoltan Acs,László Szerb,Erkko

Autio,2017-10-11 This brief captures the contextual features of entrepreneurship by measuring entrepreneurial attitudes abilities and aspirations at both the individual and country level Featuring data from the 2016 Global Entrepreneurship and Development Index GEDI which measures the quality and scale of the entrepreneurial process in 133 countries around the world this book provides a tool to help policymakers and governments harness the power of entrepreneurship to address some of the economic challenges faced at the country level In addition to the yearly data and comparisons this edition also explores the relationship between entrepreneurship and other measures of development Distinct from both output based entrepreneurship indexes i e new firm counts and process based indexes i e comparisons of policies and regulations the GEDI is designed to profile national systems of entrepreneurship The Index does not simply count new firm registrations nor is it an exercise of policy benchmarking It also does not focus exclusively on high growth entrepreneurship it considers the characteristics of entrepreneurship that enhance productivity such as innovation market expansion globalization and growth potential Finally recognizing that entrepreneurship has a different impact in different economic and institutional contexts the GEDI combines individual level data with data that describes national institutions as well as economic and demographic structures to provide an institutionally embedded view of the drivers of productive entrepreneurship Global

Entrepreneurship and Development Index 2018 Zoltán J. Ács,László Szerb,Esteban Lafuente,Ainsley Lloyd,2018-11-27

This brief presents a detailed look at the entrepreneurial ecosystem of nations around the world by combining individual data with institutional components Presenting data from the 2018 Global Entrepreneurship and Development Index GEDI which measures the quality and scale of entrepreneurial process from 137 countries world wide this book provides a rich understanding of entrepreneurship and a more precise means to measure it The novelty of the GEDI 2018 edition is the examination of the connection between the GEDI score and the computed total factor productivity TFP values The Global Entrepreneurship and Development Index is an annual index composite indicator that measures the health of the entrepreneurship ecosystems in a given country The authors have identified 14 components or pillars that are important for the health of entrepreneurial ecosystems identified data to capture each and used this data to calculate three levels of scores for a given country the overall GEDI score scores for Individuals and Institutions and pillar level scores which measure the quality of each of the 14 components Global Entrepreneurship and Development Index 2017 Zoltan J. Acs,László

Szerb,Ainsley Lloyd,2017-09-14 This brief presents a detailed look at the entrepreneurial ecosystem of nations around the world by combining individual data with institutional components Presenting data from the 2017 Global Entrepreneurship and

Development Index GEDI which measures the quality and scale of entrepreneurial process from 137 countries world wide this book provides a rich understanding of entrepreneurship and a more precise means to measure it In addition to yearly data and comparison this 2017 edition also explores the digital entrepreneurial ecosystem and provides a detailed analysis of two measurements of entrepreneurship the GEDI and the Total Early Stage Entrepreneurial Activity TEA measure Whereas developed countries will be challenged to increase their economic productivity to sustain current standards of living as their populations rapidly age developing economies will need to integrate more than two billion young adults into the world economy by 2050 How can more than one billion jobs be created in the developing world within this timeframe especially in the least developed countries where poverty and massive unemployment are already dominant facts of economic life How can we measure monitor and build the ecosystems to produce such growth The GEDI is designed to profile national systems of entrepreneurship It links institutions and agents through a National Entrepreneurial System ecosystem in which each biotic and abiotic component is reinforced by the other at the country level The resulting data gives policymakers a tool for understanding the entrepreneurial strengths and weaknesses of their countries economies thereby enabling them to implement policies that foster productive entrepreneurship The GEDI also helps governments harness the power of entrepreneurship to add these types of challenges Singapore International Monetary Fund. Agriculture and Rural Development in Russia Since the 2000s Andrey Baldanov, Lily Kiminami, Shinichi Furuzawa, 2020-05-10 This book clarifies the status quo and mechanisms of agricultural and rural development in today's Russia especially focusing on human capital and human development It provides readers insights into agricultural and rural development from the perspectives of agricultural economics developmental economics and regional spatial science Further it addresses key research questions such as whether agricultural development in Russia has made significant strides whether it has improved the nation's food security and rural development and whether structural changes in the agricultural sector as well as human capital have had impacts on agricultural development since the 2000s. In terms of analytical methods, structural equation modeling and stochastic frontier analysis are employed to capture the relationship between agriculture and rural development in regional Russia. In closing, policy challenges are identified to promote social innovation for rural development by enhancing the human capital of rural youth, including entrepreneurship. Given its scope, the book is highly recommended for all readers seeking an in-depth and up-to-date overview of agricultural and rural development in contemporary Russia.

Innovation Ecosystems in Africa Olugbenga Adesida, 2023-07-27 Innovation Ecosystems in Africa aims to deepen and broaden the visibility and interrogation of African innovation systems in practice by offering unique analysis of the emergence, growth, and future prospects of endogenous innovation practices and lessons across the continent. The stories depict systemic innovations in a range of critical development areas from health and education to leadership and entrepreneurialism and span from North to South and East to West, covering more than a dozen different African cities and countries. In addition to sharing knowledge about exciting but rarely acknowledged cases of innovation in Africa, the book serves also as a work to inform policymakers and practitioners throughout Africa on how to learn from experiences towards developing more enabling innovation ecosystems to nurture creativity and solve the problems that we have. This book provides policymakers, business and opinion leaders both inspiration and useful policy takeaways that can guide strategies and support concrete measures to foster and speed up the pace of developmentally impactful innovation on the continent. Innovation Ecosystems in Africa builds upon the work of the African Innovation Summit (AIS) by further examining how the innovation systems environments in Africa function or not to address the most basic conditions of socio-economic and institutional development required on the continent. In this volume, learning case studies identified alongside the second Africa Innovation Summit (Kigali, June 2018) examine various sectoral exemplars and transversal dimensions to help inform insights about how policymakers and practitioners might develop more effective and impactful innovation-driven strategies, ecosystems, and enterprises. This edited collection uses multi-country, cross-sectoral case studies to advance an empirically grounded, appreciative investigation of how innovation is being used to address fundamental development challenges on the continent and how the African innovation ecosystems could be made more enabling into the future.

Entrepreneurship and Innovation Tim Mazzarol, Sophie Reboud, 2019-11-27 This book provides an overview of the theory, practice, and context of entrepreneurship and innovation at both the industry and firm level. It provides a foundation of ideas and understandings designed to shape the reader's thinking and behaviour to better appreciate the role of innovation and entrepreneurship in modern economies and to recognise their own abilities in this regard. The book is aimed at students studying advanced levels of entrepreneurship, innovation, and related fields, as well as practitioners, for example, managers, business owners. As entrepreneurship and innovation are largely indivisible elements and cannot be adequately understood if studied separately the book provides the reader with an overview of these elements and how they combine to create new value in the market This edition is updated with recent international research including research and examples from Europe the US and the Asia Pacific region Revolutionizing Economic and Democratic Systems Kenneth Nordberg,2016-11-23 This book responds to an increasingly pluricentric reflexive and flexible society as a result of globalization and economic liberation from the bureaucratic political system The third industrial revolution saw citizens companies and the economy acting in functional networks rather than in static ones making top down governing ever more difficult Despite this society systems created in the wake of the second industrial revolution linger on and must adapt to the globalized digitized reality in order to stay necessary and relevant Through a theoretical discussion and four empirical cases studying governance and innovation systems this volume is the first to describe the causes behind the impasse Western society seems to find itself in and suggests inclusive economic and democratic structures working in a bottom up fashion as a way out By understanding local circumstances as well as the innovative power of inclusive and participative structures we can begin to pave the way to legitimate governance and growth This book adds to the academic literature on democracy governance economy and innovation systems for researchers and scholars of political science social science and economics

Europe in the Global Space Economy Patrizia Caraveo,Clelia Iacomino,2023-08-28 This book analyzes the policies and space economy programs of major space faring nations and explores whether the present institutional set up in Europe is adequate to address the challenges At the core of the discussion are the relative roles of governments and markets in a highly dynamic panorama that involves advancements in science modifications in technology and organization and the introduction of new rules of behavior After a close examination of the history of development of the space economy and the shift from the centralized model to deregulation and the opening up of space activities to commercial companies a wide ranging overview of global space governance is provided National and regional perspectives are discussed and the current role of commercial actors in the global space system is elucidated The various challenges faced by Europe are then examined including the threat posed by institutional and market fragmentation to the emergence of European companies able to compete with companies of nations such as the USA The final part of the book analyzes proposals for reforming of the space system in Europe and offers a vision for future European space policy
