Migration and Mobility in the European Union Andrew Geddes, Leila Hadj-Abdou, Leiza Brumat, 2020-04-22 International migration and mobility whether from outside the EU or in the form of free movement by EU citizens are controversial and potentially divisive issues that are and will remain at the top of the EU's political agenda. This fully revised and updated text analyses the complex and often controversial nature of policymaking in this fast developing field and brings the discussion up to date as the ramifications of the so called migration crisis continue to unfold. It offers an exploration of the dynamics of migration and mobility in the EU including different types of migration, the EU's policy framework within which national policies are now located and considers the widespread notion and public perception of policy failure in this field. Unique in its portrayal of policy responses to migration in Europe, this text will be essential reading for undergraduate and postgraduate students of the politics of migration, European integration and the Politics of EU as well as anyone with an interest in this fascinating policy area.

Unleashing Growth and Strengthening Resilience in the Caribbean Mr. Krishna Srinivasan, Ms. Inci Otker, Ms. Uma Ramakrishnan, Mr. Trevor Serge Coleridge Alleyne, 2017-11-13. This book provides a diagnosis of the central economic and financial challenges facing Caribbean policymakers and offers broad policy recommendations for promoting a sustained and inclusive increase in economic well being. The analysis highlights the need for Caribbean economies to make a concerted effort to break the feedback loops between weak macroeconomic fundamentals notably pertaining to fiscal positions and financial sector strains and structural impediments such as high electricity costs, limited financial deepening, violent crime and brain drain which have depressed private investment and growth. A recurring theme in the book is the need for greater regional coordination in finding solutions to address the Caribbean's shared and intertwined macroeconomic and structural challenges. The analysis suggests that strengthening regional and global market integration of Caribbean economies would provide an impetus to sustained growth in incomes and jobs. Greater regional and global economic integration would also facilitate structural transformation and a shift toward new economic activities resulting in more diversified and less vulnerable economies. A central challenge for the Caribbean is thus to come together as a region, overcome the limitations posed by size and garner the benefits of globalization. Efforts should build on existing regional arrangements, accelerating progress in implementing these agreements would stimulate trade. Policymakers could also promote deeper integration with Latin America and the rest of the world by pursuing new trade agreements, leveraging current agreements more effectively or deepening them to include areas beyond traditional trade issues and developing port and transport infrastructure.

Citizenship and Residence Sales Dimitry Vladimirovich Kochenov, Kristin Surak, 2023-04-13. Citizenship and residence by investment is a fast growing global phenomenon. As of 2022, more than a third of all countries in the world offered paths to membership in exchange for a donation or investment into their economies. Yet we know little about how these programmes operate and debates in academia and the wider public are often misinformed by sensationalist cases. This book offers a multidisciplinary exploration of both citizenship and residence by investment on a global scale. Bringing together the expertise of leading legal scholars, economists, sociologists, political scientists and historians, it provides an informative and empirically grounded assessment of the origins, operation, key causes and the legal bases of the investment migration programmes. By so doing, the volume demystifies citizenship and residence by investment and takes a critical postcolonial global perspective addressing key issues in belonging exclusion and inequality that define the world today
