Globalization and the Challenges of a New Century Patrick O'Meara, Howard D. Mehlinger, Matthew Krain, 2000-06-22 On world politics Globalization and the Challenges of a New Century Patrick O'Meara, Howard D. Mehlinger, Matthew Krain, Roxana Ma Newman, 2000-06-22 If you want to catch up on some of the best articles written about globalisation since the topic became fashionable several years ago this reader is the place to start The Economist A blue ribbon collection of major articles and position papers on the concept of globalization By bringing together a number of major thinkers and different perspectives this book provides a broad introduction to the topic and lays the groundwork for an interdisciplinary collaborative dialogue Contributors include Kofi Annan Benjamin Barber Francis Fukuyama Samuel Huntington Robert Kaplan Paul Kennedy Walter Lacqueur Bill McKibben Lester Thurow and Jeffrey Sachs Interpreting Contemporary Christianity Ogbu Kalu, Alaine Low, 2008-08-05 In this multidisciplinary interpretation of world Christianity and the changing shape of the global religious landscape scholars consider the complex dynamics shaping Christianity's recent expansion in all parts of the globe They view the explanations of homogenization or American cultural influence as being necessarily limited and point to the far more varied intersections of external influence and indigenous appropriation The geographical coverage and the voices from various corners of the globe exemplify the shift of Christianity's center of gravity away from the northern hemisphere New voices new methods and new perspectives emerge here Contributors Afe Adogame Edith L Blumhofer Joel Carpenter Paul Freston Anthony dela Fuente Jehu J Hanciles Brian M Howell Ogbu U Kalu Sebastian C H Kim Philomena Njeri Mwaura John Parratt Dana L Robert Brian Stanley Diane Stinton Feiya Tao Kevin Xiyi Yao Widening Access to Education as Social Justice Akpovire Oduaran, Harbans S. Bhola, 2006-07-10 Among the greatest challenges of the twenty first century is that of providing adequate educational opportunities to all citizens of the globe The broad availability of such opportunities and the genuine ability to take advantage of them are fundamental components of any equitable society In examining how widening access to education contributes to social justice this anthology composes a tribute to the life and work of the Nigerian educationist Michael A Omolewa The twenty seven contributions to this volume discuss foundational issues related to the educational dimensions of social justice present overviews of approaches related to widening access and analyze case studies from around the world as well as consider future directions in education policy and research This thematic depth is matched by the geographic representativeness of the work with contributors coming from the global South and North Widening Access to Education as Social Justice speaks with a credible and powerful voice about how making greater formal and informal educational opportunities available to men and women young adults and children everywhere can help bring about more equitable ways of living together thereby fostering the goods of cultural diversity tolerance and respect along with the creativity and responsibility vital to bringing about actual social harmony Walking with the Mud Flower Collective Stina Busman Jost, 2014-10-01 Arguing for a retrieval of the landmark work God's Fierce Whimsy Stina

Busman Jost establishes the critical importance of this volume for the construction of a dialogic theological method This is accomplished through a close reading of God s Fierce Whimsy in which the author identifies key methodological characteristics informing the volume s formation Critical importance also is established through interviews with the volume s authors the Mud Flower Collective which included Katie G Cannon Beverly W Harrison Carter Heyward Ada Mar a Isasi D az Bess B Johnson Delores Williams Mary D Pellauer and Nancy D Richardson Undergirding this endeavor is a recognition of the theoretical importance of difference to the project of theological construction and the vital form of the dialogic as constitutive of theological practice this is carried forward through engagement with the pivotal theorists Martin Buber and Mikhail Bakhtin who helped pioneer the philosophical and literary critical importance of otherness difference and dialogue Finally the author constructively engages recent developments in feminist theologies and postcolonial theories ultimately making the argument that a dialogic theological method is relevant for the doing of theology today Christianity and Religious Plurality Wilbert R. Shenk, Richard J. Plantinga, 2016-10-11 Over the past two centuries the Christian faith has spread to all continents Although more global than ever Christians are religious minorities in most societies Religious freedom is hardly universal In the past fifty years millions of people have been uprooted from their traditional homelands in Asia Africa and Latin America Some have emigrated to Western Europe and North America The West has become the scene of cultural linguistic and religious variety on a scale unimagined in 1900 Today the full range of faiths and religious practices from all continents are present in Europe and North America Christians are challenged to come to terms with this changed situation These developments have intensified religious plurality Christians all over the world are being urged to understand and engage with this new situation This volume highlights this new reality and specifies some sources for engagement not least among them the Judeo Christian scriptures fundamental to all Christianities that emerged out of religious plural contexts On the basis of their faith in the Triune God disclosed in this text all followers of Jesus Christ must interact with these opportunities in today s radically context sensitive world Literature and the Global Contemporary Sarah

Brouillette, Mathias Nilges, Emilio Sauri, 2017-11-03 This book attempts to understand what contemporary has meant and should mean for literary studies The essays in this volume suggest that an attentive reading of recent global literatures challenges the idea that our contemporary moment is best characterized as a timeless instantaneous now The contributors to this book argue that global literatures help us to conceive of the contemporary as an always plural heterogeneous and contested temporality Far from suggesting that we replace theories of an omnipresent end of history with a traditional single diachronic timeline this book encourages the development of such a timeline s rigorous inverse a synchronic multi faceted and multi temporal history of the contemporary in literature and thus of contemporary global literatures It opens up the concept of the contemporary for comparative study by unlocking its temporal logical political and ultimately aesthetic and literary complexity IT Outsourcing: Concepts, Methodologies, Tools, and Applications St. Amant, Kirk, 2009-07-31

This book covers a wide range of topics involved in the outsourcing of information technology through state of the art collaborations of international field experts Provided by publisher Why Interculturalisation? Xiaoping Jiang,2019-02-11 This amazing highly readable book breaks a new ground in revealing the dominant theories and policies that have had profound effects on the strategies to accommodate cultural diversity on university campus Few have researched intercultural communication from macro to micro perspectives and applied a multidisciplinary approach by drawing on research from disciplines such as sociology economics politics social psychology management communication culture and language This book has outlined an emerging concept of some considerable significance interculturalisation from a variety of contemporary perspectives and indicated its conceptual potential in understanding the impact of higher education on globalisation internationalisation and the knowledge economy The book has also provided a critical assessment of the issues in globalisation and the internationalisation of higher education such as the homogenisation of cultures and the dominance of economic imperatives In general this book represents an original application of specialist literatures that develops certain theorisations and understandings together for the first time in a new constellation Hence the book provides an excellent contribution to the current interest in globalisation across disciplines particularly to the research in intercultural communication It should be of great interest to philosophers educators and researchers in the intercultural studies This book is a significant and powerful work that is sure to invigorate interesting discussions of higher education and particularly intercultural education for years to come The publication of this book announces the emergence of an original approach to intercultural communication that scholars around the world will soon to appreciate History in Practice 2nd edition Ludmilla Jordanova,2016-07-28 Exploring the breadth and complexities of history as a field of study History in Practice demystifies what historians actually do and the tasks they take on This study written by one of the most acute practitioners in the field examines not only the academic discipline but also engages with the use of historical ideas in the wider world The new edition features A new chapter on history in the digital age covering the use of information technology in historical practice Extended coverage of the relationships between history and other disciplines Fresh material on current trends in the practice of history Over 35 new illustrations spread throughout the book drawn from around the world This book is essential reading for all students seeking an understanding of history as a discipline Making Feminist Politics Suzanne Franzway,Mary Margaret Fonow,2011-02-17 In this timely and detailed examination of the intersections of feminism labor politics and global studies Suzanne Franzway and Mary Margaret Fonow reveal the ways in which women across the world are transforming labor unions in the contemporary era Situating specific case studies within broad feminist topics Franzway and Fonow concentrate on union feminists mobilizing at multiple sites issues of wages and equity child care campaigns work life balance and queer organizing demonstrating how unions around the world are broadening their focuses from contractual details to empowerment and family and feminist issues By connecting the diversity of women s experiences around the world

both inside and outside the home and highlighting the innovative ways women workers attain their common goals Making Feminist Politics lays the groundwork for recognition of the total individual in the future of feminist politics within global union movements Publisher description Key Concepts in Development Geography Rob Potter,Dennis Conway,Ruth Evans,Sally Lloyd-Evans,2012-06-06 An excellent and supremely accessible guide to some key issues in development geography Stuart Corbridge London School of Economics Provides a clearly stated informed and strongly structured pathway through the key literatures and debates Jonathan Rigg Durham University Organized around 24 short essays Key Concepts in Development Geography is an introductory text that provides students with the core concepts that form contemporary research and ideas within the development geography discipline Written in a clear and transparent style the book includes an introductory chapter providing a succinct overview of the recent developments in the field over 24 key concept entries that provide comprehensive definitions explanations and evolutions of the subject excellent pedagogy to enhance students understanding including a glossary figures diagrams and further reading Organized around five of the most important areas of concern the book covers the meanings and measurement of development its theory and practice work employment and development people culture and development and contemporary issues in development The perfect companion for undergraduate and postgraduate students on geography degrees the book is a timely look at the pressingly important field of international development studies today Constructing Spain Nathan E. Richardson,2012 Does fiction do more than just represent space Can our experiences with fictional storytelling be in themselves spatial In Constructing Spain The Reimagination of Space and Place in Fiction and Film Nathan Richardson explores relations between cultural representation and spatial transformation across fifty years of Spanish culture Beginning in 1953 the year Spanish space was officially reopened to Western thought and capital and culminating in 2003 the year of Aznar s unpopular involvement of his country in the second Iraq War Richardson traces in popular and critically acclaimed fiction and film an evolution in Spanish storytelling that while initially representative in nature increasingly engages its audience in spatial practices that go beyond mere perception or conception of local material geographies In original readings of films by Luis Berlanga Luis Bu uel Alex de la Iglesia Alejandro Amen bar and Julio Medem and novels by Juan Goytisolo Antonio Mu oz Molina and Javier Mar as Richardson shows this formal evolution as a necessary response to developments restorations and transformations of local landscapes that resulted during these years from various human migrations tourist invasions urban development plans resurgent nationalisms and finally globalization As these changes occur Richardson traces a shift in the works studied from mere representation of spatial change toward actual engagement with shifting physical and social geographies as they inch ever closer toward the production of an actual spatial experience for their audiences In the final chapters of this book Richardson offers in depth and highly original readings of the storytelling projects of Medem and Mar as in particular showing how these two artists invite readers to not only reconceive hegemonic notions of space and place but to practice alternative notions of being in place In these final readings Constructing Spain points to the newest developments in contemporary Spanish narrative and film a rise of new grammars of creation to challenge the ongoing capital driven creative destruction of globalized Spanish geography

Race, Immigration, and American Identity in the Fiction of Salman Rushdie, Ralph Ellison, and William Faulkner Randy Boyagoda, 2010-04-02 Salman Rushdie once observed that William Faulkner was the writer most frequently cited by third world authors as their major influence Inspired by the unexpected lines of influence and sympathy that Rushdie's statement implied this book seeks to understand connections between American and global experience as discernible in twentieth century fiction The worldwide imprint of modern American experience has of late invited reappraisals of canonical writers and classic national themes from globalist perspectives Advancing this line of critical inquiry this book argues that the work of Salman Rushdie Ralph Ellison and William Faulkner reveals a century long transformation of how American identity and experience have been imagined and that these transformations have been provoked by new forms of immigration and by unanticipated mixings of cultures and ethnic groups This book makes two innovations first it places a contemporary world writer's fiction in an American context second it places two modern American writers novels in a world context Works discussed include Rushdie's The Ground Beneath Her Feet and Satanic Verses Ellison's Invisible Man and Juneteenth and Faulkner's The Sound and the Fury and Light in August The scholarly materials range from U S immigration history and critical race theory to contemporary studies of cultural and economic globalization

In Translation □ Reflections, Refractions, Transformations Paul St-Pierre, Prafulla C.

Kar, 2007-05-16 With contributions by researchers from India Europe North America and the Caribbean In Translation Reflections refractions transformations touches on questions of method and on topics including copyright cultural hybridity globalization identity construction and minority languages which are important for the disciplinary development of translation studies but also of interest to other fields as well most notably comparative literature cultural studies and world literature The volume provides a forum for new voices to be heard alongside those of well established scholars and for current concerns to express themselves often focusing on practices in areas of the world other than Europe or North America which have until now tended to dominate the field Acknowledging difference and celebrating it the contributions conceive of translation as a process which reconstitutes and transforms which brings renewal and growth an interaction in a new context a new reading a new writing

Freedom from Fear, Freedom from Want Robert J. Hanlon, Kenneth Christie, 2016-01-01

Spirit Hermeneutics Keener, 2016 How do we hear the Spirit's voice in Scripture Once we have done responsible exegesis how may we expect the Spirit to apply the text to our lives and communities In Spirit Hermeneutics biblical scholar Craig Keener addresses these questions carefully articulating how the experience of the Spirit that empowered the church on the day of Pentecost can and should dynamically shape our reading of Scripture today Keener considers what Spirit guided interpretation means explores implications of an epistemology of Word and Spirit for biblical hermeneutics and shows how

Scripture itself models an experiential appropriation of its message Bridging the Word Spirit gap between academic and experiential Christian approaches Spirit Hermeneutics narrates a way of reading the Bible that is faithful both to the Spirit inspired biblical text and the experience of the Spirit among believers from book flap

Why the Bottom Line Isn't! Dave Ulrich, Norm Smallwood, 2003-05-26 Offers a broad view of leadership and shareholder value based on multiple business disciplines In Why the Bottom Line Isn't authors Dave Ulrich and Norm Smallwood argue that sustainable shareholder value comes increasingly from assets not accounted for on an organization's balance sheet These assets include a company's reputation its ability to attract talent and its ability to react quickly to new opportunities in the marketplace Why the Bottom Line Isn't harnesses research from a number of disciplines including human resources finance and leadership to establish a hierarchy of such intangibles The authors extrapolate from these intangibles to establish leadership tools that will help create sustainable shareholder value The book offers a broad expansive perspective on leadership while eschewing convoluted theory for concrete practice Dave Ulrich Ph D DOU UMICH EDU has been listed by BusinessWeek as the top guru in management education He has co authored 10 books and over 100 articles serves on the Board of Directors of Herman Miller and has consulted with over half of the Fortune 200 companies He is currently on professional leave as Professor at the University of Michigan to serve as Mission President for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter day Saints in Montreal Norm Smallwood nsmallwood@rbl.net is co founder of Results Based Leadership www.rbl.net which provides education and consulting services based on this book as well as the ideas in Results Based Leadership How Leaders Build the Business and Improve the Bottom Line which he co authored with Ulrich He has led leadership development business strategy organization capability change management and HR projects for a wide variety of clients spanning multiple industries

Beyond Christendom Jehu Hanciles, 2008 Hanciles does yeoman work in part one synthesizing studies on the impact of globalization revealing that its outcomes will likely not be determined by the Euro American heartlands that sparked this movement Instead in parts two he shows that migration in general is having an enormous effect on shaping a new world order and in part three Mobile Faith he advances the case for the migration of Christians as carrying within it the seeds of renewal for the whole church and also the potential to reshape church state and religion and culture relations globally

Postmodern/Postwar and After Jason Gladstone, Andrew Hoberek, Daniel Worden, 2016-07 Within the past ten years the field of contemporary American literary studies has changed significantly Following the turn of the twenty first century and mounting doubts about the continued explanatory power of the category of postmodernism new organizations have emerged book series have been launched journals have been created and new methodologies periodizations and thematics have redefined the field Postmodern Postwar and After aims to be a field defining book a sourcebook for the new and emerging critical terrain that explores the postmodern postwar period and what comes after The first section of essays returns to the category of the post modern and argues for the usefulness of key concepts and themes from postmodernism to the study of contemporary literature or reevaluates postmodernism in light of recent developments in the field and historical and economic changes in the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries These essays take the contemporary abandonments of postmodernism as an occasion to assess the current states of postmodernity After that the essays move to address the critical shift away from postmodernism as a description of the present and toward a new sense of postmodernism as just one category among many that scholars can use to describe the recent past The final section looks forward and explores the question of what comes after the postwar postmodern Taken together these essays from leading and emerging scholars on the state of twenty first century literary studies provide a number of frameworks for approaching contemporary literature as influenced by yet distinct from postmodernism The result is an indispensable guide that seeks to represent and understand the major overhauling of postwar American literary studies that is currently underway
