Cameroon With Egbert:

Cameroon with Egbert Dervla Murphy, 1990      Historical Dictionary of the Republic of Cameroon Mark Dike DeLancey, Mark W. Delancey, Rebecca Neh Mbuh, 2019-06-15 Cameroon is a land of much promise but a land of unfulfilled promises It has the potential to be an economically developed and democratic society but the struggle to live up to its potential has not gone well Since independence there have been only two presidents of Cameroon the current one has been in office since 1982 Endowed with a variety of climates and agricultural environments numerous minerals and substantial forests and a dynamic population this is a country that should be a leader of Africa Instead we find a country almost paralyzed by corruption and poor management a country with a low life expectancy and serious health problems and a country from which the most talented and highly educated members of the population are emigrating in large numbers To all of this is recently added a serious terrorism problem Boko Haram in the north a separatist movement in the Anglophone west refugee influxes in the north and east and bandits from the Central African Republic attacking eastern villages This fifth edition of Historical Dictionary of the Republic of Cameroon contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 300 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the Republic of Cameroon      Cameroon Ben West, 2011 A thoroughly updated edition of the most in depth guide available to Cameroon a country home to ancient tribal kingdoms colorful trading towns pygmy hunting camps and endangered lowland gorillas      Africa's Political Wastelands: The Bastardization of Cameroon Fru Doh, 2008-09-15 Africa's Political Wastelands explores and confirms the fact that because of irresponsible corrupt selfish and unpatriotic kleptocrats parading as leaders the ultimate breakdown of order has become the norm in African nations especially those south of the Sahara The result is the virtual annihilation of once thriving and proud nations along with the citizenry who are transformed into wretches vagrants and in the extreme refugees Doh uses Cameroon as an exemplary microcosm to make this point while still holding imperialist ambitions largely responsible for the status quo in Africa Ultimately in the hope of jumpstarting the process he makes pertinent suggestions on turning the tide on the continent      The Rough Guide to West Africa Rough Guides, 2008-06-02 The Rough Guide to West Africa in epub format is the most comprehensive and user friendly guide to one of the world's hardest and most rewarding regions for travel covering the 15 visitable countries from Mauritania to Cameroon in fifty percent more detail than its only competitor Each chapter of the Rough Guide includes thoroughly researched hotel and restaurant listings sections on everything from food and language to media and sport and thoughtful background on the environment culture history politics and music The introduction highlights the region's attractions and touches on its great range of cultural and scenic impressions Sections on Arts and Crafts and Fruit and Food Plants offer fascinating information and useful advice More than 160 accessible and accurate maps guide you from the urban jungle to beaches and mountains And an extensive index references every place mentioned in the guide Visit the author blog at <http://theroughguidetowestafrika.blogspot.com> for news links and updates Make the most of your time with The Rough Guide to West Africa

The Masked Rider Neil Peart, 2010-11-16 Neil Peart's travel memoir of thoughts observations and experiences as he cycles through West Africa reveals the subtle yet powerful writing style that has made him one of rock's greatest lyricists As he describes his extraordinary journey and his experiences from the pains of dysentery to a confrontation with an armed soldier to navigating dirt roads off the beaten path he reveals his own emotional landscape and along the way the different masks that he discovers he wears Cycling is a good way to travel anywhere but especially in Africa You are independent and mobile and yet travel at people speed fast enough to travel on to another town in the cooler morning hours but slow enough to meet people the old farmer at the roadside who raises his hand and says You are welcome the tireless women who offer a smile to a passing cyclist the children whose laughter transcends the humblest home

An Anthology of African Cultural Studies, Volume I Keyan G. Tomaselli, Handel Kashope Wright, 2024-10-04 This volume provides an overview of fundamental or grounding themes in African Cultural Studies including the articulation of African cultural studies the issue of Africa's diaspora's African identity and identifications and media studies in Africa and its relationship with cultural studies The first of two volumes the book predominantly pulls together a rich reservoir of previously published articles from Critical Arts South North Cultural and Media Studies mapping a long history of the field that draws from a diverse range of origins and locations especially from within Africa itself The first section of the book addresses how African cultural studies has been called for and explained both as a comprehensive continental and sometimes national discourse and as being in conversation with established global cultural studies The second section addresses the African diaspora and what might be termed diasporic African cultural studies A third principal theme explored is how African identities and identifications are articulated in African cultural studies On spatiality the volume takes a stance on the exclusive continental versus continuity conception of Africa the African diaspora is treated as contributory and its relationship to the continent as problematic while taking up continental Africa as the principal location of African cultural studies In terms of identity Blackness is taken up as the dominant but importantly not exclusive racial identity and identification of African cultural studies and gender and social class are also addressed in novel ways The book ends with an examination of the complex relationship between media studies and cultural studies This book will be a key resource for academics researchers and advanced students of African cultural studies media and cultural studies African studies history politics sociology and social and cultural anthropology while also being of interest to those seeking an introduction to the sub field of African cultural studies

Handbook of British Travel Writing Barbara

Schaff,2020-09-07 This handbook offers a systematic exploration of current key topics in travel writing studies It addresses the history impact and unique discursive variety of British travel writing by covering some of the most celebrated and canonical authors of the genre as well as lesser known ones in more than thirty close reading chapters Combining theoretically informed astute literary criticism of single texts with the analysis of the circumstances of their production and reception these chapters offer excellent possibilities for understanding the complexity and cultural relevance of British travel writing     Anderson's Travel Companion Compiled by Sarah Anderson,2016-12-05 A selection of the best in travel writing with both fiction and non fiction presented together this companion is for all those who like travelling like to think about travelling and who take an interest in their destination It covers guidebooks as well as books about food history art and architecture religion outdoor activities illustrated books autobiographies biographies and fiction and lists books both in and out of print Anderson s Travel Companion is arranged first by continent then alphabetically by country and then by subject cross referenced where necessary There is a separate section for guidebooks and comprehensive indexes Sarah Anderson founded the Travel Bookshop in 1979 and is also a journalist and writer on travel subjects She is known by well known travel writers such as Michael Palin and Colin Thubron Michael Palin chose her bookshop as his favourite shop and Colin Thubron and Geoffrey Moorhouse among others made suggestions for titles to include in the Travel Companion     Legal Oppositional Narrative Stephen L. Bishop,2008-01-01 The book investigates opposition to the Cameroonian social and legal order through prose and theatre that employs legal themes settings and language as well as actual legal decisions The conclusion is that opposition though ironic appropriation of legal discourse is more promising in fostering social justice than direct resistance to the legal hierarchy     U.S. Imprints on Sub-Saharan Africa ,1992     C est l homme qui fait l homme B. Nyamnjoh,2015-08-12 The idea that human beings are inextricably bound to one another is at the heart of this book about African agency especially drawing on the African philosophy Ubuntu with its roots in human sociality and inclusivity Ubuntu's precepts and workings are severely tested in these times of rapid change and multiple responsibilities Africans negotiate their social existence between urban and rural life their continental and transcontinental distances and all the market forces that now impinge with relationships and loyalties placed in question Between ideal and reality dreams and schemes how is Ubuntu actualized misappropriated and endangered The book unearths the intrigues and contradictions that go with inclusivity in Africa Basing his argument on the ideals of trust conviviality and support embodied in the concept of Ubuntu Francis Nyamnjoh demonstrates how the pursuit of personal success and even self aggrandizement challenges these ideals thus leading to discord in social relationships Nyamnjoh uses a popular Ivorian drama with the same title to substantiate life world realities and more importantly to demonstrate that new forms of expression from popular drama to fiction thicken and enrich the ethnographic component in current anthropology     Kidding Around Hilary Bradt,James Lowen,2019-10-24 Becoming a parent need to not put an end to wanderlust That s the message in this new anthology from Bradt the latest in a series of collections of real life tales focusing on different aspects of travel With contributions from a range of both well known professional travel writers and newer writers from the UK and North America this engaging and entertaining compilation of 37 stories lifts the lid on the perils and joys of travelling with babies toddlers and teenagers in locations spanning five continents Contributors include renowned travel writer Dervla Murphy National Geographic Traveller Editorial Director Maria Pieri multi award winning authors Adrian Phillips and Mike Unwin and nature writers Amy Jane Beer and Nicola Chester to name just a few Potentially life threatening situations confessions of inept parenting and celebrations of derring do are all part of the mix There s plenty of adventurous travel from trekking with toddlers in the Himalayas to sailing en famille across the Atlantic Ocean and the first circumnavigation of Mauritius by bicycle Read how one mother threatens to dump her baby on jobsworth airport officials how a father inadvertently takes his daughters to a brothel and how one family turned up six hours early for a flight and still managed to miss it Join families paddling with crocodiles and getting their jeep stuck on a beach as the tide is coming in or eleven month old Rory as he eats alongside marine iguanas and three year old Quin who befriends a family of cockroaches At times comical hair raising or just plain fun there are also magical moments with wild creatures or in wild places For anyone who has ever travelled with children or wondered what it must be like to head out into the unknown with little ones in tow this is a captivating read West Africa ,2006 Myth and Geology

Luigi Piccardi,W. Bruce Masse,2007 This book is the first peer reviewed collection of papers focusing on the potential of myth storylines to yield data and lessons that are of value to the geological sciences Building on the nascent discipline of geomythology scientists and scholars from a variety of disciplines have contributed to this volume The geological hazards such as earthquakes tsunamis volcanic eruptions and cosmic impacts that have given rise to myths are considered as are the sacred and cultural values associated with rocks fossils geological formations and landscapes There are also discussions about the historical and literary perspectives of geomythology Regional coverage includes Europe and the Mediterranean Afghanistan Cameroon India Australia Japan Pacific islands South America and North America Myth and Geology challenges the widespread notion that myths are fictitious or otherwise lacking in value for the physical sciences BOOK JACKET A Dictionary of Writers and their Works Christopher Riches,Michael Cox,2015-01-29 Over 3 200 entries An essential guide to authors and their works that focuses on the general canon of British literature from the fifteenth century to the present There is also some coverage of non fiction such as biographies memoirs and science as well as inclusion of major American and Commonwealth writers This online exclusive new edition adds 60 000 new words including over 50 new entries dealing with authors who have risen to prominence in the last five years as well as fully updating the entries that currently exist Each entry provides details of a writer s nationality and birth death dates followed by a listing of their titles arranged chronologically by date of publication Glowing Still Sara Wheeler,2023-03-16 Britain s foremost woman travel writer Sara Wheeler records her life of adventure from the Antarctic to Zanzibar Funny furious writing from the queen of intrepid travel Daily Telegraph Intrepid and sparky full of canny quips and lightly poetic observations Mail on Sunday Magnificent and unusual Viv Groskop Spectator Sara Wheeler is Britain's foremost woman travel writer Glowing Still is the story of her travelling life what is important revealing or funny in a notoriously testosterone laden field Growing up among blue collar Conservatives in Bristol where we didn't know anyone who wasn't like us Wheeler knew she needed to get away In her twenties she began a dramatic escape Pole to Pole via Poland Glowing Still recalls happy days on India's Puri Express an Antarctic lavatory through which a seal popped up hot fishy breath and the louche life of a Parisian shopgirl Corralling reindeer with the Sami in Arctic Sweden and towing her baby on a sledge a helpful herdsman advised her to put foil down her bra to facilitate nursing Launching at Nubility Wheeler voyages via small children to the welcoming port of Invisibility she leaves Immobility for the next volume As she writes in the introduction when she set sail Role models were scarce in the travel writing game But advancing years usher in unheralded freedoms and journey's end finds Wheeler at peace among Zanzibar dhows contemplating our connection with other lives the irreplaceable value that travel brings and paying homage to her heroines among them Martha Gellhorn the ineffable war correspondent who furnishes Wheeler's epigraph I do not wish to be good I wish to be hell on wheels or dead
