With the stock market collapse Daniel's year long quest to warn people about the imminent crash and its consequences has ended. He has been vindicated for the mockery and scorn that were heaped upon him but he feels that he has failed because he had not convinced more people to leave the market. There is little satisfaction in being right when people have lost their life savings and more. To visit the New York Stock Exchange where hundreds of men are standing silently in the streets or sitting on the curbs crying embarrassed, dejected and dispirited brings Daniel only pain. He receives threatening letters and is physically attacked by those who believe that he has caused the market's collapse and their misfortune. Through his own strong willed determination and the support of his family of friends Daniel begins to make the transition from warning people to providing relief for those who have already or soon will become victims of the imminent depression. And yet Professor Vogel is even more determined to discredit and destroy him.

The History of Rome Livy, 1912 Fell Robert

Jenkins, 2019-09-01 In an unspecified time and location an unnamed boy is living what he feels to be an idyllic life in the faded and peeling Lido where his father is a lifeguard. He idolises his father never more so than when he saves the life of a suicidal man and he comes to believe that heroism is all. The arrest of his sister Lilly later that summer brings the halcyon days to an abrupt end and his family is torn apart with Lilly sent to jail and the boy set to a boarding house for dysfunctional boys far away from his home. The Fell. He is young and afraid but the boys in the home become his family and they band together against their enemies both real and imagined. The boy is an unreliable narrator seeing the world and his place in it through a unique lens. He meets ghosts, hears voices and battles his fears but never questions his own version of reality. Anger spills over when he hears the girl he loves referred to as a twenty dollar whore and his actions lead him to run from The Fell. And run. And run.
