Canada in Sudan, Sudan in Canada Amal Madibbo, 2015-05-01 Presenting field work conducted by fourteen Canadian and Sudanese born Canadian researchers between 2003 and 2011 Canada in Sudan Sudan in Canada explores salient and timely issues faced by both countries Sudanese immigration to Canada and the transnational ties between the two countries are illuminated in the context of various case studies Tensions both social and political are discussed through the recent secession of South Sudan the Darfur conflict and the rise of Islamic fundamentalism The authors also broach the reconstruction efforts in education and health initiatives transnationalism from below and Canada's role in conflict resolution in Sudan Using qualitative and quantitative research methods that include interviews surveys participant observations discourse analyses and document analyses researchers from a wide range of disciplinary approaches sociology anthropology political science social work and health studies reveal important conceptual and empirical perspectives about the processes of inclusion and exclusion At a time when the Sudanese diaspora in Canada is growing and the conflict in Sudan has become a preoccupation of the international community Canada in Sudan Sudan in Canada reveals the root causes of conflict in Sudan and identifies measures to foster peace stability and development Contributors include John Clayton Samaritan's Purse Canada in Calgary Rod Crutcher University of Calgary Dalal Daoud PhD student Queens University Allison Dennis University of Calgary Martha Fanjoy University of Calgary Juli Finlay University of Calgary Amal Madibbo University of Calgary Susan McGrath York University Ruth Parent University of Calgary Shelley Ross University of Alberta Scott Shannon University of Calgary Ali Kamal Ashley Soleski and Daniel Madit Thon Duop IMA World Health

Blackness and la Francophonie Amal Madibbo, 2025-07-16 T00:00:00-04:00 This book uncovers intricate convergences and divergences among Blackness Canadian-ness and La Francophonie positing anti-Black racism linguistic discrimination slavery and colonialism and neo-colonialism as sites of identity exclusion However Black agency reconstructs and renegotiates identity meanings and praxis to strengthen belongingness and pave the way for inclusion in the future

Hope, Pain & Patience Friederike Bubenzer, Only Stern, 2011 As in many post-conflict countries the roles played by women during Sudan's long lasting liberation struggle continue to go unrecognised Thousands of women joined the southern liberation struggle in response to a political situation that affected whole communities leaving the comfort and security of their homes not just to accompany their husbands but to fight for freedom democracy equity justice rights and dignity As well as playing roles in the fighting women acted as mothers teachers and nurses and filled numerous other roles during the war The long standing struggle for the liberation of South Sudan severely altered traditional gender roles as well as the societal structure as a whole Women also suffered during the war An increase in HIV hunger and violence particularly sexual violence characterised their lives in Sudan as well as in exile for many years Life in the post-conflict period continues to be challenging as women try to carve out a meaningful life in a tenuous peace This volume documents the lives of different groups of women in South

Sudan It seeks to understand the contributions made by a range of women both during the conflict and today It describes the women of South Sudan who they are what they have experienced what they hope and feel what they experienced in the war and whether the end of the war has brought meaningful change Back cover Canadian Annual Review of Politics and Public Affairs, 2005 David Mutimer, 2011-12-01 This latest instalment reviews the year 2005 a year in which the first minority parliament since Joe Clark's short lived government struggled to maintain stability The World in Canada David Bercuson, 2008-02-07 Just as Canada is increasingly at home in the world the world is increasingly finding a home in Canada The World in Canada confronts three questions What are the implications of the dramatic and sustained shift in the Canadian ethnic mosaic for foreign policy In what ways do diasporas influence Canadian foreign policy What impact will and should Canada's demographic changes have on Canadian foreign policy in the long term International Migration Outlook 2024 OECD, 2024-11-14 The 2024 edition of International Migration Outlook analyses recent developments in migration movements and the labour market inclusion of immigrants in OECD countries It also monitors recent policy changes in migration governance and integration in OECD countries This 48th edition includes one special chapter on migrant entrepreneurship The Outlook also includes country notes and a detailed statistical annex Disability in the Global South Shaun Grech, Karen Soldatic, 2016-11-08 This first of its kind volume spans the breadth of disability research and practice specifically focusing on the global South Established and emerging scholars alongside advocates adopt a critical and interdisciplinary stance to probe challenge and shift common held social understandings of disability in established discourses epistemologies and practices including those in prominent areas such as global health disability studies and international development Motivated by decolonizing approaches contributors carefully weave the lived and embodied experiences of disabled people families and communities through contextual cultural spatial racial economic identity and geopolitical complexities and heterogeneities Dispatches from Ghana Lebanon Sri Lanka Cambodia Venezuela among many others spotlight the complex uncertainties of modern geopolitics of coloniality emergent forms of governance including neoliberal globalization war and conflicts the interstices of gender race ethnicity space and religion structural barriers to redistribution and realization of rights and processes of disability representation This handbook examines in rigorous depth established practices and discourses in disability including those on development rights policies and practices opening a space for critical debate on hegemonic and often unquestioned terrains Highlights of the coverage include Critical issues in conceptualizing disability across cultures time and space The challenges of disability models metrics and statistics Disability poverty and livelihoods in urban and rural contexts Disability interstices with migration race ethnicity gender and sexuality Disability religion and customary societies and practice The UNCRPD disability rights orientations and instrumentalities Redistributive systems including budgeting cash transfer systems and programming Global South North partnerships intercultural methodologies in disability research This much awaited handbook provides students academics practitioners and policymakers with an authoritative framework for critical thinking and debate about disability while pushing theoretical and practical frontiers in unprecedented ways      Multicultural America Ronald H. Bayor, 2011-07-22 This encyclopedia contains 50 thorough profiles of the most numerically significant immigrant groups now making their homes in the United States telling the story of our newest immigrants and introducing them to their fellow Americans One of the main reasons the United States has evolved so quickly and radically in the last 100 years is the large number of ethnically diverse immigrants that have become part of its population People from every area of the world have come to America in an effort to realize their dreams of more opportunity and better lives either for themselves or for their children This book provides a fascinating picture of the lives of immigrants from 50 countries who have contributed substantially to the diversity of the United States exploring all aspects of the immigrants lives in the old world as well as the new Each essay explains why these people have come to the United States how they have adjusted to and integrated into American society and what portends for their future Accounts of the experiences of the second generation and the effects of relations between the United States and the sending country round out these unusually rich and demographically detailed portraits      Daily Consular and Trade Reports

, 1926      Commerce Reports, 1931      America, History and Life, 2004 Provides historical coverage of the United States and Canada from prehistory to the present Includes information abstracted from over 2 000 journals published worldwide

The Saturday Review, 1936      The Middle East, Abstracts and Index, 2007      CSA Political Science and Government, 2004      Who's who in Canada Charles Whately Parker, Barnet M. Greene, 1962 An illustrated biographical record of leading Canadians from business the professions government and academia      American Book Publishing

Record, 2003      Nigeria-South Africa Relations and Regional Hegemonic Competence Oluwaseun Tella, 2018-11-27 This book examines the relations between Nigeria and South Africa and their implications for regional influence across the African continent With the largest and third largest economies in the region and a historical status as the major peacemakers on the continent it is often argued that Africa's fate is directly linked to the success or failure of these regional powers While there is widespread reference to each state's capabilities and regional influence in the extant literature little analysis is offered on relations between Nigeria and South Africa and their impact on regional governance and provision of public goods on the continent This book attempts to fill the gap by engaging issues such as the hegemonic competence of the states their credentials for a permanent seat at the UNSC their efforts towards regional integration and their efforts towards combating the dark side of globalization including climate change drug trafficking and xenophobia It also engages a gender perspective to these states relations as well as their experiences of transitional justice Providing an in depth comparative analysis of the two so called African powerhouses this volume will be of interest to policy makers academics and students interested in Nigeria and South Africa's foreign policy regional powerhood and the African peace security and development agenda

Global Political Demography Achim Goerres, Pieter Vanhuysse, 2021-08-10 This open access book draws the big picture of how population change interplays with politics across the world from 1990 to 2040 Leading social scientists from a wide range of disciplines discuss for the first time all major political and policy aspects of population change as they play out differently in each major world region North and South America Sub Saharan Africa and the MENA region Western and East Central Europe Russia Belarus and Ukraine East Asia Southeast Asia subcontinental India Pakistan and Bangladesh Australia and New Zealand These macro regional analyses are completed by cross cutting global analyses of migration religion and poverty and age profiles and intra state conflicts From all angles this book shows how strongly contextualized the political management and the political consequences of population change are While long term population ageing and short term migration fluctuations present structural conditions political actors play a key role in mis managing manipulating and under planning population change which in turn determines how citizens in different groups react Canadian Gazette and Export Trader ,1921 Human Development Report 1992 United Nations Development Programme,1992 Since its headline making debut the Human Development Report has become an essential resource for development specialists economists and political scientists around the world The 1992 Report not only updates the findings of the earlier volumes but also examines the international dimensions of human development showing how global economic growth and the expansion of the world economy have filtered down to poor economies and poor people in developing countries In addition it examines tcpks between human development and international markets for products capital and labor addresses issues of global governance and presents updated human development indicators for more than 160 countries
