Teaching and Christian Imagination David I. Smith, Susan M. Felch, 2016-01-15 This book offers an energizing Christian vision for the art of teaching. The authors, experienced teachers themselves, encourage teacher readers to reanimate their work by imagining it differently. David Smith and Susan Felch, along with Barbara Carvill, Kurt Schaefer, Timothy Steele, and John Witvliet, creatively use three metaphors: journeys and pilgrimages, gardens and wilderness, buildings and walls, to illuminate a fresh vision of teaching and learning. Stretching beyond familiar clichés, they infuse these metaphors with rich biblical echoes and theological resonances that will inform and inspire Christian teachers everywhere. Reset the Heart Dr. Mai-Anh Le Tran, 2017-05-02 When the BlackLivesMatter protest movement burst into dynamic action following the shooting death of young Michael Brown in the fall of 2014 in Ferguson, MO, a good number of clergy and lay leaders in greater St. Louis sprang to action and learned anew what it took to put some feet to their prayers. However, as improvisational efforts continued to rally and organize churches toward the enduring work of confronting the insidious violence of systemic social injustices in their own backyard, these religious leaders ran head-on into a familiar yet perplexing wall: the incapacity and unwillingness of their faith communities to respond. In many cases, the resistance was, and still is, fierce, eerily reminiscent of the stand-offs that divided religious communities and leadership in the 1960s Civil Rights era. If the Church's teaching, learning, and practice of faith is purportedly transformative, then where was it when it was needed most? If good religious formation had been happening, or had it then? Why the enduring signs of indifference, paralysis, apathy, exasperation, resistance, symptoms of anesthetized moral consciousness and debilitated hope in the face of pervasive social, cultural, and violence? The answer may come in a searing indictment that in an emerging cultural, religious era in which religious identity, expression, and experience are increasingly pluralistic yet also politicized, polarizing, and racialized, Christian faith communities, even those of progressive theological persuasions, are still held under dominant cultural captivity and fashioned by colonizing teaching strategies of disimagination such that the stories, theologies, and rituals/practices of the faith have effectively become obstacles that anesthetize moral agency and debilitate courageous action for hope and change. This book addresses the above practical concerns with three paradigmatic questions: 1. What does it mean to educate for faith in a world marked by violence? 2. How are Christian faith communities complicit in the teaching and learning of violence? 3. What renewed practices of faith and educational leadership yield potential for the unlearning and unmaking of violence? An organizing thesis drives the inquiry: Thinking and teaching for violence-resisting action as Christians requires an on-purpose setting of our hearts in a world that violates and harms with impunity. Against violent disimagination and its conscience-numbing instruments, Christian religious communities are being challenged to regenerate radical forms of prophetic protest, faith, the skills and instincts of which must be honed deliberately. This occurs through intentional and strategic forms of public consciousness-raising for the sake of participation and action, an action that moves toward and is fueled by critical insurrectional resurrectional hope      The Collected Essays of Josephine J. Turpin Washington Josephine Turpin Washington, 2019-02-01 Newspaper journalist teacher and social reformer Josephine J Turpin Washington led a life of intense engagement with the issues facing African American society in the post Reconstruction era This volume recovers numerous essays many of them unavailable to the general public until now and reveals the major contributions to the emerging black press made by this Virginia born Howard University educated woman who clerked for Frederick Douglass and went on to become a writer with an important and unique voice Written between 1880 and 1918 the work collected here is significant in the ways it disrupts the nineteenth century African American literary canon which has traditionally prioritized slave narratives It paves the way for the treatment of race and gender in later nineteenth century African American novels and engages Biblical scriptures and European and American literatures to support racial uplift ideology It also articulates shrewdly the aesthetic needs and responsibilities necessary for the black press to establish a reputable literary sphere Part of a vibrant movement in recent scholarship to reclaim writings of nineteenth century African American women writers this expertly edited and annotated collection represents not only a valuable scholarly resource but a powerful example of the determination of a southern black woman to inspire others to improve their own lives and those of all African Americans begin to cause us to limit God in our lives God's work in our lives is only limited by us limiting our imagination We all have desires of things we want to achieve This is why we need visions hopes and dreams Visions hopes and dreams gives us a purpose in life It gives us goals to look forward to and gives us objectives we wish to achieve Having hopes of dreaming big are a part of who we are We cannot live without them that's why we need to learn to develop a wonderful imagination that reflects the heart of God More Imaginativity Beverly Scott, Jana Smith, 1980 More motivators more learning centers and more Bible games

Is It Just My Imagination? Charles Mosley, 2017-11-09 Christians are called to love God with all their hearts In Is It Just My Imagination Charles Mosley explores the significance of imagination for the Christian What is the relationship between our imagination and reality Why should what God wants affect our imagination How is our heart tied to our imagination Reflection about the impact of world we paint through our imagination is worthy of every Christians consideration

Imagining Creates Reality Neville, 2017-02-16 Neville was born in Barbados West Indies in 1905 into a poor English family nine boys and one girl where he was raised and educated in a traditional Christian manner His father who knew about the power of imagining along with the help of his industrious sons made the Goddards into the largest business presence in the island and at his death left all ten children independently wealthy At age seventeen Neville left Barbados for New York City where he worked in retail for several years until he became a dancer in Broadway shows This led to a stint in London where he was introduced to metaphysical thought and upon returning to New York he began to teach the law of imagining in 1938 to ever growing audiences in the East Los Angeles and San Francisco When he moved his family to Los Angeles in the early 1950s he was attracting crowds of 2 000 for his Sunday talks Everyone wanted something homes new jobs mates money and he successfully taught them how to fulfill those desires through the use of their all powerful human imaginations The techniques testimonies from his audiences the creative formula visions dreams and Bible interpretations are discussed simply and in detail in these lectures They encourage any seeker to apply his or her imagination for success and ultimately lead to the appreciation that there is no intermediary between God man's I AM and man Starting in 1959 he had a series of six visions over a three and a half year period resurrection birth from above David splitting of the temple ascension and the doves descent Then he understood his mission To first experience these visions understand their meanings and then teach the meaning of these signs that are given to man after multiple lifetimes and all states of consciousness have been played by each individual These signs confirm the awakening of man's soul Man's origin and destiny are divine from unity into diversity back to unity with no loss of individuality All is forgiven and the exile the prodigal returns to Lordship greatly expanded by the journey through limitation illusion and a sleep likened unto death

David Cornerstone Faye Hunter, 2010-04-05 Ephesians 6 11 Put on the whole Armour of God I had heard so much about the church disapproval of the Harry Potter series of books so I considered writing a christian book for children and youth with a message that is AGELESS You don't need a wizard or sorcerer ALL YOU NEED IS JESUS

Awakened Imagination & The Search Mentor

Journals, Neville Goddard, 2020-05-13 From Awakened Imagination I identify the central figure of the Gospels with human imagination the power which makes the forgiveness of sins the achievement of our goals inevitable All things were made by Him and without Him was not anything made that was made John 1 3 There is only one thing in the world Imagination and all our deformations of it Revision is of greatest importance when the motive is to change oneself when there is a sincere desire to be something different when the longing is to awaken the ideal active spirit of forgiveness Without imagination man remains a being of sin Man either goes forward to imagination or remains imprisoned in his senses To go forward to imagination is to forgive Forgiveness is the life of the imagination The art of living is the art of forgiving Forgiveness is in fact experiencing in imagination the revised version of the day experiencing in imagination what you wish you had experienced in the flesh Every time one really forgives that is every time one relives the event as it should have been lived one is born again Read this book absorb it and then utilize your imagination daily and persistently to create the life of your dreams It works if you work it

Awakened Imagination & the Search Neville Goddard, 2022-12-14 He elaborates on his viewpoint that Christ resides within everyone of us and may aid us in achieving our goals through imaginative work in awake imagination This book should be the most straightforward honest thing I am capable of producing Truth is dependent on the power of the imagination not on objective reality The result of the imagination's use or abuse is what we call a fact What a man imagines he becomes He created his own history The path the truth and the life are revealed via imagination Neville Goddard
