The best book to have been written about the Vietnam War. The New York Times Book Review an instant classic straight from the front lines. From its terrifying opening pages to its final eloquent words, Dispatches makes us see in unforgettable and unflinching detail the chaos and fervor of the war and the surreal insanity of life in that singular combat zone. Michael Herr's unsparing, unorthodox retellings of the day-to-day events in Vietnam take on the force of poetry, rendering clarity from one of the most incomprehensible and nightmarish events of our time. Dispatches is among the most blistering and compassionate accounts of war in our literature.      The Eyes of the Eagle Gary Linderer, 2010-05-12

In the 101st Airborne, if you cared enough to send the very best, you sent The Howlers. Gary Linderer volunteered for the Army, then volunteered for Airborne training. When he reached Vietnam in 1968, he was assigned to the famous Screaming Eagles, the 101st Airborne Division. Once there, he volunteered for training and duty with F Company, 58th Inf, the Long Range Patrol company that was the Eyes of the Eagle. F Company pulled reconnaissance missions and ambushes, and Linderer recounts night insertions into enemy territory, patrols against NVA anti-aircraft emplacements and rocket launching facilities, the fragging of an unpopular company commander, and one of the bravest demonstrations of courage under fire that has ever been described. The Eyes of the Eagle is an accurate, exciting look at the recon soldier's war. There are none better.      Ripcord Keith Nolan, 2007-12-18

On April 10, 1970, Hill 927 was occupied by troops of the Screaming Eagles of the 101st Airborne Division. By July, the activities of the artillery and infantry of Ripcord had caught the attention of the NVA (North Vietnamese Army), and a long and deadly siege ensued. Ripcord was the Screaming Eagles' last chance to do significant damage to the NVA in the A Shau Valley before the division was withdrawn from Vietnam and returned to the United States. At Ripcord, the enemy counterattacked with ferocity, using mortar and anti-aircraft fire to inflict heavy casualties on the units operating there. The battle lasted four and a half months and exemplified the ultimate frustration of the Vietnam War: the inability of the American military to bring to bear its enormous resources to win on the battlefield. In the end, the 101st evacuated Ripcord, leaving the NVA in control of the battlefield. Contrary to the mantra "We won every battle but lost the war the United States was defeated at Ripcord Now at last the full story of this terrible battle can be told Illumination Rounds Michael Herr, 2017-08-08 Fresh in his boots and three days in country Michael Herr is in a Chinook when a young soldier across from him is gunned It took me a month to lose that feeling of being a spectator to something that was part game part show Written in unforgettable and unflinching detail Herr captures the chaos and fervor of the war and the surreal insanity of life in that singular combat zone Selected from Dispatches one of the best book to have been written about the Vietnam War The New York Times Book Review and an instant classic straight from the front lines A Vintage Shorts Vietnam Selection An ebook short A Rumor of War Philip Caputo, 1996-11 For use in schools and libraries only A personal memoir of the war in Vietnam in which the author first served as a Marine and which he later covered as a reporter When I Turned Nineteen Glyn Haynie, 2016-11-28 It s the year 1969 I was serving in the U S Army with my brothers of First Platoon Company A 3 1 11th Bde Americal 23rd Infantry Division We were average American sons fathers husbands or brothers who d enlisted or been drafted from all over the United States and who d all come from different backgrounds We came together and formed a brotherhood that will last through time I share my experiences about weeks of boredom and minutes to hours of terror and surviving the heat carrying a 60 pound rucksack monsoons a forest fire a typhoon building a firebase fear death and fighting the enemy while mentally physically and morally exhausted Scream of Eagles Robert K. Walking Point Perry A. Ulander, 2017-02-24 In this intimate memoir Perry A Ulander chronicles with powerful clarity the bewildering predicament he confronted and the fellowship and guidance that transformed him during the year he served as an American GI in the jungles of Vietnam Conveying with unadorned precision the harrowing experiences that shatter his core beliefs Ulander also captures the camaraderie and humor of his platoon the hostility between lifers and draftees the physical hardships of reconnaissance missions and the unrelenting apprehension underlying everyday life Ultimately he describes the surrendering of social norms and accepted identities that allows him to glimpse a previously unimagined realm of heightened awareness Written after a lifetime of reflection on the nature of war and the effect of violence and domination on the minds and spirits of those forced to practice it Walking Point offers a powerful narrative for readers with an interest in the effects of war and violence American involvement in Vietnam PTSD and how trauma can be a catalyst for spiritual transformation Giving voice to profound insights gained through extreme adversity Ulander movingly captures the depth of trust and commitment among a group of unwitting warriors who struggle to stay alive and sane in uncharted territory

A Dove Among Eagles Linda Patterson, 2020-01-29 Linda s story is uniquely American overcoming all odds to form a partnership between community and military that was unheard of in 1968 a partnership that today serves as the example for our entire Armed Forces Colonel Derek K Thomson U S Army A Story Unlike Any Other But Relatable to Millions With the backdrop of the Vietnam conflict A Dove Among Eagles is a powerful memoir about trauma courage devotion and love at a time when American society was tearing itself apart and blaming a military that was more victim than perpetrator of the violent forces wracking the nation Indeed Vietnam changed us all especially Linda Patterson A story 52 years in the making A Dove Among Eagles is set in San Mateo California in 1968 The author then 26 years old receives a letter from her 18 year old brother Joe a cry for help from a paratrooper caught in the middle of an unpopular war News of the antiwar protests has been plummeting the morale of Joe s combat company of 130 paratroopers In desperation he turns to Linda to find a way to let these young courageous soldiers know that they ve not been rejected by the country they love Specifically Joe asked Linda to enlist the city of San Mateo to adopt the 130 paratroopers of his combat company On March 4 1968 after Linda s dogged persistence the city of San Mateo formally adopted A Co of the 327th Infantry Regiment 101st Airborne Division San Mateo was the only city in the nation to do such a thing during the Vietnam War Three weeks later SGT Artavia was killed in a firefight Grief stricken and distraught by the loss of her brother Linda garnered her strength and passion to carry on with Joe s last wishes What she did next was beyond imagination and straight from the heart Into a War Zone and into Their Hearts In December without government authorization and with only her grit to guide her Linda traveled to Vietnam to spend Christmas with her brother s unit Met by her military escort at Tan Son Nhut airport outside of Saigon she would fly to the northern part of South Vietnam further north than civilians were allowed to travel The potential dangers

she would inevitably face did not phase her She knew her Screaming Eagles would protect her And they did Her journey was life changing For eight days she anxiously waited in the company's base camp while the men of the Company hacked their way through a mountainous jungle to get to her And once they arrived she spent three days with her brother's buddies developing a true love for them all She would also fall in love with her military escort Steve Patterson her brother's platoon leader who was also seriously wounded while leading the battle in which Joe was killed Since then Steve would be Linda's escort for life The journey had just begun American Supporting Americans For the past 50 years Linda's passion in life has been a tribute to her brother as she has enlisted more than 300 cities across the country in supporting and adopting tens of thousands of service men and women in all branches of our military To be sure Linda's remarkable and meaningful life journey is unique in American history For her life's work she has been recognized and honored by the highest levels of our country Those original men of the 1968 unit simply call her Sis With a foreword by Colonel Rob Campbell U S Army Retired 1st Brigade Commander 101st Airborne Division

Year of the Rooster Larry Goodson, 2014-02 Year of the Rooster is mostly a short story collection recorded from the memories of a combat veteran of the Vietnam War The Stories are mingled with present day thoughts and actions so as to show how recollections of war are triggered and intrude into the lives of some soldiers for decades after they leave the war zone The opening paragraphs describe the old veteran relaxing in Hawaii living his idea of what being a tourist should be and thinking nonsense Then he is jolted into the past that he has needed to forget every day since 1969 An excellent review by VVA Books can be seen here <http://vvabooks.wordpress.com>
