Ecology Liberation A New Paradigm Ecology Justice Series:

Ecology & Liberation Leonardo Boff, 1995 Taking cues from science as well as mystical traditions Boff finds that interrelatedness forms the key to a new paradigm He critiques common approaches to ecology and discerns in the growing ecological awareness and in the search for spirituality and meaning the seeds of an alternative to a world of alienation inequality and escalating natural destruction

A Primer in Ecotheology Celia E. Deane-Drummond, 2017-09-22 This book serves as an introduction to the burgeoning field of ecotheology illustrating both its variety and its commonality across different Christian theological divides Some of the questions addressed in this short book include the following How can the Bible still make sense in the context of climate change and biodiversity loss Who on earth is Jesus Christ and what does he mean for us in today's world How can Christians be faithful to their traditions while responding to pressing calls to be engaged in environmental activism What is the relationship between theory and practice and local as well as global demands and how is this relationship expressed in different ecclesial settings How can we encourage each other to develop a sense of the earth as divine gift Written in clear accessible style this book walks readers through difficult concepts and shows the way different sources in Christian theology have responded to one of the most significant cultural issues of our time

A Liberation for the Earth A.M. Ranawana, 2022-11-30 In the encyclical Laodato Si Pope Francis describes the earth as the new poor opening it up as a place in need of liberation The fate of the poor the marginalised and those on the wrong side of the western colonial project is inextricably tied up with the fate of the planet In A Liberation for the Earth Anupama Ranawana explores the nexus between climate race and the liberative potential of the cross Reflecting on the entanglement between colonialization and the destruction of the planet she considers how this entanglement is played out and resisted within faith based and secular ecological justice movements in Canada Sri Lanka and the United Kingdom

Salt, Light, and a City, Second Edition Graham Joseph Hill, 2020-07-24 Jesus is calling his church to be a multiethnic and missional people who listen and learn from the many voices of world Christianity Graham Joseph Hill issues a moving call for churches to be missional by being conformed to the image of Jesus Christ Hill does this by exploring the thinking of twenty five Asian African Latin American Indigenous African American diaspora Caribbean Oceanian Eastern European and Middle Eastern pastors and theologians These are as diverse as Melba Padilla Maggay Emmanuel Katongole Lamin Sanneh Oscar Muriu Ruth Padilla DeBorst Pope Francis Richard Twiss Lisa Sharon Harper Willie James Jennings Ada Maria Isasi Diaz Soong Chan Rah and Mitri Raheb These voices show us the future of missional churches in world Christianity When churches are conformed to Christ they make disciples heal a broken world and witness to Jesus and his gospel Jesus forms us in his image and moves us to be a people of shalom humility character justice peace wisdom prayer beauty and witness The church has had a Reformation but now it needs a Conformation Hill explores biblical themes and the voices of world Christianity to show that a missional church is conformed to the image of the incarnate crucified resurrected and glorified Christ Conformity to

Christ is the heart of missional ecclesiology and discipleship Ecology & Liberation Boff, Leonardo ,2014-12-03 World Christianity Graham Joseph Hill,2024-10-08 World Christianity An Introduction provides an accessible introduction to the discipline methodology and field of world Christianity In this book Graham Joseph Hill engages with more than one hundred high profile Majority World and First Nations Christian leaders to learn what they can teach the West about mission leadership hospitality creation care education worship and more Hill challenges the Western church to move away from a Eurocentric and Americentric view of church and mission and he calls for the church to engage with crucial paradigm shifts in world Christianity The future of the global church including the churches in the West exists in these global exchanges World Christianity is an indispensable guide for the church as it navigates the unique global experiences of the twenty first century Ethics in Crisis David Clough,2016-05-13 Ethics in Crisis offers a constructive proposal for the shape of contemporary Christian ethics drawing on a new and persuasive interpretation of the ethics of Karl Barth David Clough argues that Karl Barth s ethical thought remained defined by the theology of crisis that he set out in his 1922 commentary on Romans and that his ethics must therefore be understood dialectically caught in an unresolved tension between what theology must and cannot be Showing that this understanding of Barth is a resource for contemporary constructive accounts of Christian ethics Clough points to a way beyond the idolatry of ethical absolutism on the one hand and the apostasy of ethical postmodernism on the other Wonder as a New Starting Point for Theological Anthropology José Francisco Morales Torres,2023-04-04 In Wonder as a New Starting Point for Theological Anthropology Opened by the World Jos Francisco Morales Torres constructs a new theological anthropology that begins with wonder He contends that the visceral experience of wonder is an opening up of the human by an excess that saturates the world This opened by ness points to a transforming receptivity as the basis of the person and to an extravagant Generosity that grounds all creation Thus wonder which is grounded in generous Excess is not only a gift but a demand it calls for a liberative praxis that resist the forces that flatten the fullness of life into what is useful and profitable and that reduce the limitless worth of fellow humans to mere commodities to be exploited and exchanged at the altar of the idolatrous Market Wonder reveals a primordial receptivity in the human person which demands of us an ethic of sustainability that does not reduce the other to commodity a vulnerability that risks being opened by the other a commitment to solidarity and liberation that resist the forces of an insatiable idolatrous Market that seeks only to steal and kill and destroy Development and Justice Rajula Annie Watson,2004 Restoring the health of the land is indispensable not only because it is the ground of our sustenance and survival but also land has in itself the inherent worth This book challenges humanity s indulgence and activities of development science and technology and insists for human responsibility and moral duties towards the land the sustaining mother earth which is abused ransacked of its wealth and ignored of its intrinsic value The study attempts to bring together perspectives and values that are important for preserving the rights of the land and proposes the contour of a land ethic Food & Faith

Michael Schut, 2010-05 From the creator of the bestseller Simpler Living Compassionate Life: A Christian Perspective comes Food Faith. Food is itself a joyful gift; recall how the gift of food so often mediates the sanctity and preciousness of life. This collection of reflections by Wendell Berry, Bill McKibben, Elizabeth Johnson, Alan Durning and others helps you start thinking about the moral, spiritual and economic implications of eating. Readings focus on the enjoyment and spirituality of good food, ways in which eating connects us to the land and to each other, and on the economic, environmental and cultural impacts of daily food choices. Food Faith includes an eight week study guide for groups or individuals which leads to action, setting a table that is healthy, joyful and just. Schleiermacher and Sustainability Shelli M. Poe, 2018-11-13 Since the 1960s theologians have been involved in efforts to guide Christians to reflection and action in light of planetary peril. The contributors to this volume illustrate how Friedrich Schleiermacher's theological work could fulfill that need. Schleiermacher's theology, they contend, finds its culmination in Christian social action and is remarkably conducive to ecological thinking in the modern world. Each chapter deals with a particular locus in Schleiermacher's systematic theology, focusing on its implications for sustainable living. In so doing, Schleiermacher and Sustainability offers a sophisticated account of Schleiermacher's thought that will upend many estimations of his value for current constructive theology and provide a potent resource for those seeking to integrate ecological living into the marrow of their daily existence. Encyclopedia of Religion and Nature Bron Taylor, 2008-06-10 The Encyclopedia of Religion and Nature, originally published in 2005, is a landmark work in the burgeoning field of religion and nature. It covers a vast and interdisciplinary range of material from thinkers to religious traditions and beyond with clarity and style. Widely praised by reviewers and the recipient of two reference work awards since its publication, see www.religionandnature.com/ern, this new, more affordable version is a must-have book for anyone interested in the manifold and fascinating links between religion and nature in all their many senses.

Vision and Values Judith A. Dwyer, 1999-08-27 A concise introduction to Christian ethics, this book surveys the moral values of the Catholic tradition and applies them to contemporary issues. Prominent authors address such topics as scriptural sources, reverence for human life, sexuality and intimacy, family responsibilities, the concept of peace in the modern world, economics and Catholic higher education. Vision and Values is both an overview of the major perspectives which inform moral decisions and a guide to how these principles interrelate. It can help readers determine how to make complex moral judgments in a Christian context as it demonstrates the vitality of the Catholic theological tradition. For the Beauty of the Earth Steven Bouma-Prediger, 2010-04 This substantially revised and updated edition provides the most thorough evangelical treatment available on a theology of creation care. Catholic Social Teaching and Movements Marvin L. Krier Mich, 1998 This introductory book to Catholic social teaching covers not only the official documents and encyclicals but also gives a sense of the movements and people who embodied the struggle for social justice in the last 100 years. A Theory of Ecological Justice Brian Baxter, 2004-09-23 This book argues for ecological justice that is for treating species besides

Homo sapiens as having a claim in justice to a share of the Earth's resources Mission Continues Claudia Wahrisch-Oblau, Fidon Mwombeki, 2010-09-01 In May 2009 thirty five theologians from Asia Africa and Europe met in Wuppertal Germany for a consultation on mission theology organized by the United Evangelical Mission Communion of Thirty five Churches in Three Continents The aim was to participate in the 100th anniversary of the Edinburgh conference through a study process and reflect on the challenges for mission in the twenty first century We decided not to invite renowned experts but to have an open invitation through a call for papers so that practicing mission experts not yet well known would have an opportunity to share their expertise We decided not to predetermine a theme or motto for the consultation but to allow various themes on mission to emerge from the papers themselves and thus to allow wide ranging discussions Indeed the papers were varied each drew strong reactions lively and even controversial debates We were able to discover common concerns transcending very different contexts The collection of papers in this book has been taken from the papers delivered at the Wuppertal consultation In some cases short responses by one or two of the consultation participants were added to highlight the discussions that followed The very varied voices collected in this anthology nevertheless have much in common Even where they are most theoretical it is obvious that all contributors come from missionary practice and bring in their contextual experiences A Pedagogy for Planetary Convivencia Debora Agra Junker, 2025-01-30 A Pedagogy for a Planetary Convivencia presents a comprehensive approach to education that aims to promote emotional resilience empathy and ethical consciousness The ultimate objective is to inspire us to imagine a more equitable world where indigenous people are respected and valued where cultural diversity is celebrated and where relationships between humans and the natural world are based on reciprocity and care Grounded on principles of critical pedagogy Freirean philosophy and liberation theology this book makes the case that advocating change without a sincere commitment to social justice is a betrayal of the millions of people who still face dehumanization that criticism without love is pointless and that denunciation without compassion is damaging Therefore the book invites to embrace hope in order to strengthen our relationships to embrace love in order to inspire our creativity and to embrace courage in order to express gestures of tenderness The Preferential Option for the Poor beyond Theology Daniel G. Groody, Gustavo A. Gutiérrez, 2016-10-15 Since the 1973 publication of Gustavo Gutiérrez's groundbreaking work A Theology of Liberation liberation theology's central premise of the preferential option for the poor has become one of the most important yet controversial theological themes of the twentieth century As the situation for many of the world's poor worsens it becomes ever more important to ensure that the option for the poor remains not only a vibrant theological concept but also a practical framework for living out the gift and challenge of Christian faith The Preferential Option for the Poor beyond Theology draws on a diverse group of contributors to explore how disciplines as varied as law economics politics the environment science liberal arts film and education can help us understand putting a commitment to the option for the poor into practice The central focus of the book revolves around the question How can one live a Christian life in a world of destitution The contributors address the theological concept of the option for the poor as well as the ways it can shape our social economic political educational and environmental approaches to poverty Their creative examples serve as an inspiration to all those who are seeking to put their talents at the service of human need and the building of a more just and humane world African Women's Liberating Philosophies, Theologies, and Ethics Beatrice Okyere-Manu, Léocadie Lushombo, 2024-05-02 This volume explores the ethical and philosophical paradigms presented by most of the influential Matriarchs of the Circle of African Women Theologians It critically evaluates the effectiveness of their ethical and philosophical theories models and frameworks in pursuing justice and liberation for women in Africa and globally The authors address critical questions How have African women theologians reimagined existing ethical paradigms What original ethical and philosophical ideas have they generated How have their ethical frameworks influenced the theologies and interpretations they have developed What purposes do their ethical and philosophical paradigms serve How do these renderings intersect with various social categories including gender race class sexuality capitalism and colonialism What liberating frameworks do they propose The volume further explores the dialogue between distinct African contexts and universal experiences and values It explores how universal themes such as humanity human dignity rights justice motherhood and more can coexist with communal African concepts and themes It contemplates how embracing African approaches engages these themes more globally bringing together particular African contexts of women and the universal ethical philosophical and theological theories models and frameworks to advance the cause of justice and liberation for African women and women worldwide into the future
