Glenn Murcutt Buildings And Projects:

Glenn Murcutt Françoise Fromonot,2003 This is the most complete and up to date volume available on the Australian architect Glenn Murcutt who has attracted unprecedented international attention in recent years The winner of the Pritzker Prize in 2002 he is also one of only seven architects ever to have been awarded the Alvar Aalto Medal His buildings are a harmonious blend of modernist sensibility local craftsmanship indigenous structures and respect for nature The book spans Murcutt s entire career from the early modernist houses to his most recent commissions in the 21st century identifies recurring themes in his work and analyses how his buildings marry modern architecture to the place the territory the landscape to arrive at an ecological functionalism Glenn Murcutt Françoise Fromonot,2002 Glenn Murcutt Françoise Fromonot,1995 Glenn Murcutt s singular status in contemporary architecture is well deserved Respected and admired for his innovative designs Murcutt is the first Australian architect whose work has attracted international attention His work intimately linked to its landscape and to the Australian vernacular is clearly in the modern tradition and strongly responsive to current environmental concerns This book documents this impassioned architect s body of work and offers a critical look at the background and influences that helped shape his architectural philosophy and independent style BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Glenn Murcutt Françoise Fromonot,1995 First published in France an English translation of this study of a well known Australian architect was published in the UK in 1995 Discusses his career from his early modernist houses to larger commissions Examines his early training and architectural influences and attempts to identify recurring themes in his work Gives an analysis of a selection of his buildings and provides 300 illustrations including 50 colour photographs Includes biographical notes a list of buildings and projects and a bibliography The author is a practising architect and editor of L architecture d Aujourd hui Glenn Murcutt Glenn Murcutt,Haig Beck,Jackie Cooper,The Images Publishing Group,2002 Glenn Murcutt is one of the world s most celebrated living architects and is widely hailed as Australia s architect laureate He was awarded the Pritzker Prize in May 2002 and is one of only seven recipients of the prestigious Alvar Aalto Medal This a Twenty-Five+ Buildings Every Architect Should Understand Simon Unwin,2023-11-03 The underlying theme of Twenty Five Buildings Every Architect Should Understand is the relationship of architecture to the human being how it frames our lives and orchestrates our experience how it can help us make sense of the world and contribute to our sense of identity and place Exploring these dimensions through a wide range of case studies that illustrate the rich diversity of twentieth and twenty first century architecture this book is essential reading for every architect With the addition of numerous shorter analyses this new edition covers an even greater range of architectural ideas providing students and architects with further inspiration for exploration in their own design work Architects live by ideas But where do they come from And how do they shape buildings There is no one right way to do architecture This book illustrates many Its aim is to explore the rich diversity of architectural creativity by analysing a wide range of examples to extract the ideas behind them Twenty Five Buildings Every Architect Should Understand is a companion to Simon Unwin's Analysing Architecture the Universal Language of Place Making most recent edition 2021 and part of the trilogy which also includes his Exercises in Architecture Learning to Think as an Architect second edition 2022 Together the three books offer an introduction to the workings of architecture providing for the three aspects of learning theory examples and practice Twenty Five Buildings focusses on analysing examples using the methodology offered by Analysing Architecture which operates primarily through the medium of drawing An underlying theme of Twenty Five Buildings Every Architect Should Understand is the relationship of architecture to the human being how it frames our lives and orchestrates our experiences how it can help us give form to the world and contributes to our senses of identity and place Exploring these dimensions through case studies that illustrate the rich diversity of twentieth and twenty first century architecture this book is essential reading and hopefully an inspiration for every architect In this new edition supplementary analysis and discussion has been added to each of the twenty five case studies drawing attention to their influences from and on other architects A number of extra shorter analyses have been included too following the practice of presenting extra small dishes interspersed among main courses in high end restaurants These additional short analyses account for the sign after Twenty Five in the title of this edition and double the number of buildings analysed to around fifty

Architects Today Kester Rattenbury, Robert Bevan, Kieran Long, 2006-08-10 This volume offers both an introduction to and an insight into key contemporary architects as well as giving a snapshot of the varied nature of architecture today For each architect there are details of their life and work and illustrations of their most representative and iconic buildings

Indigenous Cultural Centers and Museums Anoma Pieris, 2016-07-14 Here is a lavishly illustrated descriptive survey of 48 leading indigenous cultural centers around the world 35 are from Australia and 13 from North America Japan Europe and Asia The book shows how each is a potentially transformative politically compelling addition to the field of cultural production illustrating how the facilities all built in the last three decades have challenged assumptions about nature culture and built form Using the spatial temporal practice of place making as the starting point the facilities highlighted here are described in terms of collaborations between a number of stake holders and professional consultants The book adopts the format of a descriptive survey with separate chapters devoted to individual case studies A broad introductory chapter which presents the arguments and overview precedes richly illustrated short individual essays on selected projects Each chapter commences with the details of the project including location area cost and consultants followed by a project description and discussion of background design development and reception of the projects Each project is approached as an architectural commission detailing the critical criteria consultants and processes The format is adopted from architectural review essays typically used in awards or journal publications within the profession which are accessible and relevant for both academics and practitioners Considerable attention is given to the process and to the evaluation of the project as a cultural response Each case study has been written with consultation of architects or administrators of the facilities for accuracy Indigenous Cultural Centers and Museums An Illustrated International Survey documents a rich legacy of collaboration across the spatial disciplines combining creative art practice architecture construction landscape design and urban design in the production of unique and culturally significant social institutions This book provides material on hitherto unknown bodies of work of talented architectural practices working collaboratively with culturally different client groups and developing consultative processes that test models for inter cultural engagement

Plans, Sections and Elevations Richard Weston, 2004 CD ROM contains files for all of the plans sections and elevations included in the book The Mathematics of the Modernist Villa Michael J. Ostwald, Michael J. Dawes, 2018-04-12 This book presents the first detailed mathematical analysis of the social cognitive and experiential properties of Modernist domestic architecture The Modern Movement in architecture which came to prominence during the first half of the twentieth century may have been famous for its functional forms and machine made aesthetic but it also sought to challenge the way people inhabit understand and experience space Ludwig Mies van der Rohe's buildings were not only minimalist and transparent they were designed to subvert traditional social hierarchies Frank Lloyd Wright's organic Modernism not only attempted to negotiate a more responsive relationship between nature and architecture but also shape the way people experience space Richard Neutra's Californian Modernism is traditionally celebrated for its sleek geometric forms but his intention was to use design to support a heightened understanding of context Glenn Murcutt's pristine pavilions seemingly the epitome of regional Modernism actually raise important questions about the socio spatial structure of architecture Rather than focussing on form or style in Modernism this book examines the spatial social and experiential properties of thirty seven designs by Wright Mies Neutra and Murcutt The computational and mathematical methods used for this purpose are drawn from space syntax isovist geometry and graph theory The specific issues that are examined include the sensory and emotional appeal of space and form shifting social and spatial structures in architectural planning wayfinding and visual understanding and the relationship between form and program

Vernacular Architecture and Regional Design Kingston Heath, 2009-06-04 A series of international case studies demonstrates the place of vernacular architecture in the design process for a wide selection of contemporary architects work Offers a clear analysis of the vernacular building tradition placing architecture in its social context Introduces a new socially and environmentally inspired approach to sustainable design

Architectural Conservation in Australia, New Zealand and the Pacific Islands John Stubbs, William Chapman, Julia Gatley, Ross King, 2023-12-22 The fourth in a series that documents architectural conservation in different parts of the world Architectural Conservation in Australia New Zealand and the Pacific Islands National Experiences and Practice addresses cultural heritage protection in a region which comprises one third of the Earth's surface In response to local needs Australia New Zealand and the Pacific Islands have developed some of the most important and influential techniques legislation doctrine and theories in cultural heritage management in the world The evolution of the heritage protection ethos and contemporary architectural conservation practices in Australia and Oceania are discussed on a national and regional basis using ample illustrations and examples Accomplishments in architectural conservation are discussed in their national and international contexts with an emphasis on original developments solutions and contributions made to the overall field Enriched with essays contributed from fifty nine specialists and thought leaders in the field this book contains an extraordinary breadth and depth of research and synthesis on the why s and how s of cultural heritage conservation Its holistic approach provides an essential resource and reference for students academics researchers policy makers practitioners and all who are interested in conserving the built environment Key Houses of the Twentieth Century Colin Davies,2006 Featuring over 100 of the most significant and influential houses of the twentieth century For each of the houses included there are numerous accurate scale plans showing each floor together with elevations sections and site plans where appropriate All of these have been specially drawn for this book and are based on the most up to date information and sources The Details of Modern Architecture Edward R. Ford,1990 Covering the period 1890 1932 this book focuses on various recognised masters explaining the detailing and construction techniques used in their buildings The Secret Life of the Modern House Dominic Bradbury,2021-04-01 Informative and entertaining this publication is a feast for the eyes while also thought provoking and offers excellent inspiration for daydreaming about what makes the perfect modern house Wallpaper A fascinating selection of innovative homes this is a thoughtful journey through the evolution of domestic architecture Sunday Express Over the last century the way that we live at home has changed dramatically Nothing short of a design revolution has transformed our houses and the spaces within them moving from traditional patterns of living all the way through to an era of more fluid open plan and modern styles Whether we live in a new home or a period house our spaces will have been shaped one way or another by the pioneering Modernists and Mid century architects and designers who argued for a fresh way of life Architectural and design writer Dominic Bradbury charts the course of this voyage all the way from the late 19th century through to the houses of today in this ground breaking book Over nineteen thematic chapters he explains the way our houses have been reinvented while taking in along the way the giants of Art Deco influential Modernists including Le Corbusier and Frank Lloyd Wright as well as post war innovators such as Eero Saarinen and Philip Johnson Taking us from the 20th to the 21st century Bradbury explores the progress of modernity itself and reveals the secret history of our very own homes Great Windows in Modern Architecture Kevin Adams,2024-03-29 Windows are moments in modern architecture where we look to ascertain elegance technical expression and material language or to capture a certain atmosphere A window opening is as much an interval and an opportunity as it is a device for admitting light air or views it is simultaneously a physical aperture but also a philosophical opening of collaboration and reflection In order to understand the language of a building we might look to the detail of the window But what does this mean and why does modern architecture invest so much expression in the window This book explores how the act of detailing and situating windows in buildings is a key proponent in the language of architecture which both informs and works with the contingencies of design and construction It investigates 18 case studies in depth using painstakingly drawn details and vivid photographs in full colour to define what makes these windows great and how each window is situated within both its technical and philosophical context and as an overall development of modern architecture Case studies include the work of Walter Gropius Mies van der Rohe Pierre Chareau Frank Lloyd Wright Alvar Aalto Carlo Scarpa Le Corbusier Stirling and Gowan Raili and Reima Pietil Louis Kahn Peter Womersley Miralles Pin s Steven Holl Glen Murcutt and O Donnell Tuomey

Grammatical and Syntactical Approaches in Architecture: Emerging Research and Opportunities Lee, Ju Hyun, Ostwald, Michael J., 2019-12-20 Shape grammar and space syntax have been separately developed but rarely combined in any significant way The first of these is typically used to investigate or generate the formal or geometric properties of architecture while the second is used to analyze the spatial topological or social properties of architecture Despite the reciprocal relationship between form and space in architecture it is difficult to conceptualize a completed building without a sense of both of these properties the two major computational theories have been largely developed and applied in isolation from each another Grammatical and Syntactical Approaches in Architecture Emerging Research and Opportunities is a critical scholarly resource that explores the relationship between shape grammar and space syntax for urban planning and architecture and enables the creative discovery of both the formal and spatial features of an architectural style or type This book furthermore presents a new method to selectively capture aspects of both the grammar and syntax of architecture Featuring a range of topics such as mathematical analysis spatial configuration and domestic architecture this book is essential for architects policymakers urban planners researchers academicians and students
