O'Brien, 2021-01-26 Current students of philosophy or armchair philosophers Want the answer to the Primordial Existential Question Why is there something rather than nothing While history has produced no shortage of attempted answers clearly none is the answer Now comes the unique perspective of acosmism to provide a complete and plausible answer After a lifetime of reflection acosmist Sherman O'Brien offers this analysis of the issues and a thoughtful reasoned answer to philosophy's most vexing question The acosmic answer requires no faith whatsoever either in supernatural or unexplained causes in fact it discourages it Acosmism rejects both traditional religion and philosophically neglectful science As a metaphysical system it is based on an epistemological insight with implications for immortality determinism ethics and ultimate purpose Reasoned wholly from the ground up its conclusion is the very meaning of existence The solution to the Omniscience Riddle becomes the key to understanding how the question is best stated and understood This book represents one person's effort to make sense of what is true and what only seems to be so Why is there something rather than nothing

What is your potential role in the entirety of experience This foray into acosmism offers a path to the genuine understanding of both existence and reality Note the main text constitutes roughly two thirds of the total pages the remainder being mostly endnotes

Catalog of Books, 1996 The Economic World Arthur Richmond Marsh, 1923 Research in Education, 1973 The Literary World, 1849 The Musical Review and Musical World, 1861 The United States Catalog Mary Burnham, Carol Hurd, 1928 World-Centred Education Gert Biesta, 2021-07-12 This book makes an intervention in a long standing discussion by arguing that education should be world centred rather than child centred or curriculum centred This is not just because education should provide students with the knowledge and skills to act effectively in the world but is first and foremost because the world is the place where our existence as human beings takes place In the seven chapters in this book Gert Biesta explores in detail what an existential orientation to education entails and why this should be an urgent concern for education today He highlights the importance of teaching not understood as the transmission of knowledge and skills but as an act of re directing the attention of students to the world so that they may encounter what the world is asking from them The book thus shows why teaching matters for education It also highlights the unique position of the school as the place where the new generation is given the time to meet the world and meet themselves in relation to the world The extent to which society is still willing to make this time available is an important indicator of its democratic quality This important text demonstrates not only to academics but also to students teachers school administrators and teacher educators the urgency of a world centred orientation for education today Human Chemistry (Volume Two) Libb Thims, 2007-09-01 Volume two begins with Goethe's theories of affinities i.e the chemical reaction view of human life in 1809 This is followed by the history of how the thermodynamic 1876 and quantum 1905 revolutions modernized chemistry such that affinity the force of reaction is now viewed as a function of thermodynamic free energy reaction spontaneity and quantum valency bond stabilities The composition energetic state dynamics and evolution of the human chemical bond A B is the centerpiece of this process The human bond is what gives yields and takes absorbs energy in life The coupling of this bond energy driven by periodic inputs of solar photons thus triggering activation energies and entropies connected to the dynamical work of life is what quantifies the human reaction process This is followed by topics including mental crystallization template theory LGBT chemistry chemical potential Le Chatelier's principle Muller dispersion forces and human thermodynamics The Congregationalist and Christian World ,1915
