New Earth Politics Simon Nicholson, Sikina

Jinnah,2016-03-04 Prominent scholars and practitioners in the field of global environmental politics consider the ecological and political realities of life on the new earth and probe the field's deepest and most enduring questions at a time of increasing environmental stress Arranged in complementary pairs included are reflections on environmental pedagogy analysis of new geopolitical realities reflections on the power of social movements and international institutions and calls for more compelling narratives to promote environmental action Our Social World Jeanne H. Ballantine,Keith A.

Roberts,2011-10-26 In this brief text two leaders of the Teaching Sociology movement encourage students development of their sociological imaginations through role taking Assuming the role of a child living in poverty in India or of a member of an African tribe students learn to re envision their global society An innovative integrated framework provides core sociological concepts while features such as Contributing to Our Social World enable students to do public sociology Our Social World Condensed Version presents the perspective of students living in the larger global world Métis Chris

Andersen,2014-04-21 Ask any Canadian what M tis means and they will likely say mixed race Canadians consider M tis mixed in ways that other Indigenous people are not and the census and courts have premised their recognition of M tis status on this race based understanding Andersen argues that Canada got it wrong From its roots deep in the colonial past the idea of M tis as mixed has slowly pervaded the Canadian consciousness until it settled in the realm of common sense In the process M tis has become a racial category rather than the identity of an Indigenous people with a shared sense of history and culture The SAGE Encyclopedia of World Poverty Mehmet Odekon,2015-06-15 The SAGE Encyclopedia of World Poverty Second Edition addresses the persistence of poverty across the globe while updating and expanding the landmark work Encyclopedia of World Poverty originally published in 2006 prior to the economic calamities of 2008 For instance while continued high rates of income inequality might be unsurprising in developing countries such as Mexico the Organization of Economic Co operation and Development OECD reported in May 2013 even countries with historically low levels of income inequality have experienced significant increases over the past decade including Denmark Sweden and Germany The U N and the World Bank also emphasize the persistent nature of the problem It is not all bad news In March 2013 the Guardian newspaper reported Some of the poorest people in the world are becoming significantly less poor according to a groundbreaking academic study which has taken a new approach to measuring deprivation The report by Oxford University's poverty and human development initiative predicts that countries among the most impoverished in the world could see acute poverty eradicated within 20 years if they continue at present rates On the other hand the U N says environmental threats from climate change could push billions more into extreme poverty in coming decades All of these points lead to the need for a revised updated and expanded edition of the Encyclopedia of World Poverty Key Features 775 evaluated and updated and 175 entirely new entries New Reader's Guide categories Signed articles with cross references Further Readings will be accompanied by pedagogical elements Updated Chronology Resource Guide Glossary and thorough new Index The SAGE

Encyclopedia of World Poverty Second Edition is a dependable source for students and researchers who are researching world poverty making it a must have reference for all academic libraries

The Age of Capitalism, Consumer Culture, and the Collapse of Nature in the Anthropocene Jack Thornburg, 2024-10-02 The Age of Capitalism Consumer Culture and the Collapse of Nature in the Anthropocene argues that the stability of post industrial postmodern society is threatened by the convergence of three distinct yet interrelated crises environmental degradation capitalist economic development and the primacy of consumption and self absorption as the basis for economic development at the expense of community and social relationships Jack Thornburg contrasts advanced modern society with indigenous cultures in terms of nature and conceptions of the communal self The complex nature of capitalist oriented society has influenced how individuals conceptualize themselves The outcome the author contends is a competitive society in which individuals are alienated living in uncertain times One consequence of these crises all of which derive from the Enlightenment and the concomitant appearance and evolution of capitalism has been the destruction of a worldview balancing and connecting well being with prosperity of the natural world Money and materialism cannot buy happiness as capitalist narrative asserts Thornburg claims that the happiness sought by individuals seeking meaning through consumption can only be realized by reintegrating nature with the human spirit

Global Political Economy John Ravenhill, 2017 Global Political Economy offers a comprehensive introduction to the field by combining theory history and contemporary issues and debates The authors who are all leading international experts introduce readers to the diversity of perspectives in GPE through chapters that combine careful analysis with detailed empirical material New to this edition A rewritten chapter on the Global Trade Regime by Professor Ann Capling and Dr Silke Trommer Increased coverage of the rise of new actors especially the BRICs and the role of developing economies in global governance from back cover

Education and Technological Unemployment Michael A. Peters, Petar Jandrić, Alexander J. Means, 2019-04-29 This book examines the challenge of accelerating automation and argues that countering and adapting to this challenge requires new methodological philosophical scientific sociological economic ethical and political perspectives that fundamentally rethink the categories of work and education What is required is political will and social vision to respond to the question What is the role of education in a digital age characterized by potential mass technological unemployment Today's technologies are beginning to cost more jobs than they create and this trend will continue There have been many proposed solutions to this problem and they invariably involve an educational vision Yet in a world that simply doesn't offer enough work for everyone education is clearly not a panacea for technological unemployment This collection presents responses to this question from a wide spectrum of disciplines including but not limited to education studies philosophy history politics sociology psychology and economics

Cultural Anthropology Raymond Scupin, 2019-12-10 Cultural Anthropology A Global Perspective delves into both classic and current research in the field reflecting a commitment to anthropology's holistic and integrative approach This text illuminates how the four subfields of anthropology biological anthropology archaeology linguistics and cultural anthropology together yield a comprehensive understanding of humanity An Urban Future for Sápmi? Mikkel Berg-Nordlie, Astri Dankertsen, Marte Winsvold, 2022-01-14

Presenting the political and cultural processes that occur within the indigenous Sámi people of North Europe as they undergo urbanization this book examines how they have retained their sense of history and culture in this new setting The book presents data and analysis on subjects such as indigenous urbanization history urban indigenous identity issues urban indigenous youth and the governance of urban spaces for indigenous culture and community The book is written by a team of researchers mostly Sámi from all the countries covered in the book Handbook of Global

Environmental Politics Peter Dauvergne, 2012-01-01 The second edition of this Handbook contains more than 30 new and original articles as well six essential updates by leading scholars of global environmental politics This landmark book maps the latest theoretical and empirical research in this energetic and growing field Captured here are the pioneering and lively debates over concerns for the health of the planet and how they might best be addressed The introduction explores the intellectual trends and evolving parameters in the field of global environmental politics It makes a case for an expansive definition of the field one that embraces an interdisciplinary literature on the connections between global politics and environmental change The remaining chapters are divided into four broad themes states and cooperation global governance the political economy of governance and knowledge and ethics with each section covering key emerging issues In depth explorations are given to topics such as climate change multinational corporations international agreements and UN organizations regulations and business standards trade and international finance multilevel and transnational governance and ecological citizenship Handbook of Global Environmental Politics Second Edition is a comprehensive review of the field and offers cutting edge ideas for further research As such scholars students and policymakers will find themselves looking to it for many years to come Gender in the Political Science Classroom Ekaterina M. Levintova, Alison Kathryn

Staudinger, 2018-07-12 A collection of studies examining the role of gender in teaching and learning in the traditionally male dominated field of political science Gender in the Political Science Classroom looks at the roles gender plays in teaching and learning in the traditionally male dominated field of political science The contributors to this collection bring a new perspective to investigations of gender issues in the political behavior literature and feminist pedagogy by uniting them with the Scholarship of Teaching and Learning SoTL The volume offers a balance between the theoretical and the practical and includes discussions of issues such as curriculum class participation service learning doctoral dissertations and professional placements The contributors reveal the discipline of political science as a source of continuing gender based inequities but also as a potential site for transformative pedagogy and partnerships that are mindful of gender While the contributors focus on the discipline of political science their findings about gender in higher education are relevant to SoTL practitioners other social science disciplines and the academy at large A bold and compelling collection that asks important questions about the ways in which the teaching of Political Science reproduces gender inequities Aeron Haynie Frontiers of Globalization Research: Ino Rossi,2007-03-21 To bring this volume together the editor asked leading scholars in the field of globalization to outline a research framework that reflects their own approach to the subject The resulting book presents a broad spectrum of analytical approaches to globalization Theoretical reviews are complemented by substantive chapters and methodological analyses Contributors include scholars in the fields of sociology anthropology history and political science These writings have been organized into four sections theoretical perspectives and cultural globalization economic globalization political globalization and methodological approaches Our Social World Dr Jeanne H Ballantine,Keith A.
