Global Visions Jean Fisher, 1994-01-01 This anthology of papers presented at the INIVA symposium in London in April 1994 presents a critique of notions of internationalism the role of curatorial practice the modern museum and art history particularly in relation to the debates on cultural identity and difference and the nature of innovation in visual culture at the end of the millennium

Selected Writings, Volume 1 Okwui Enwezor, 2025-08-05 Selected Writings is a landmark two volume set of writings by the transformational art curator Okwui Enwezor that demonstrates his tireless efforts to decolonize the global contemporary art world

The Codes of the Global in the Twenty-first Century Anna Maria Guasch, 2017-12-22 At the start of the twenty first century the contemporary implies a clear desire to affirm a type of art that is expanding across the globe challenging old geographical borders and reclaiming narratives of place and displacement in other words new cultural practices that transfigure the relationship between the global and the local and articulate the discourse of difference Being in the place of here and now working with others in simultaneous and specific practice and contemplating the production of work in the experience of connection means raising the value of the performative aspect of practice and displacing the reflective role of cultural production In the new cartography of this multifarious global art the author who combines theoretical and curatorial discourse with creative practice defines how global concepts circulate from the critical analysis of transnational contemporary art to the global

Postcolonialisms Gaurav Gajanan Desai, Supriya Nair, 2005 Canonical articles most unexcerpted explore postcolonialism s key themes power and knowledge while articles by contemporary scholars expand the discipline to include discussions of the discovery of the New World Native American and indigenous identities in Latin America and the Pacific settler colonies in Africa and Australia English colonialism in Ireland and feminism in Nigeria and Egypt The inclusion of a broad sampling of histories and theories attests to multiple even competing postcolonialisms while the skillful organization of the volume provides a useful map of the field in terms of recognizable patterns shared family resemblances and common genealogies

Curatorial Challenges Malene Vest Hansen, Anne Folke Henningsen, Anne Gregersen, 2019-03-04 Curatorial Challenges investigates the challenges faced by curators in contemporary society and explores which practices ways of thinking and types of knowledge production curating exhibitions could challenge Bringing together international curators and researchers from the fields of art and cultural history the book provides new research and perspectives on the curatorial process and aims to bridge the traditional gap between theoretical and academic museum studies and museum practices The book focuses on exhibitions as a primary site of cultural exchange and argues that as highly visible showcases producers of knowledge and historically embedded events exhibitions establish and organize meanings of art and cultural heritage Temporary exhibitions continue to increase in cultural significance and yet the traditional role of the museum as a Bildung institution has changed As exhibitions gain in significance so too do curatorial strategies Arguing that new research is needed to help understand these changes the book presents original research that explores how curatorial strategies inform both art and cultural history museums in contemporary society The book also investigates what sort of critical transformative and perhaps even conservative potential can be traced in exhibition cultures Curatorial Challenges fosters innovative interdisciplinary exchange and brings new insights to the field of curatorial studies As such it should be of great interest to academics researchers and postgraduate students engaged in the study of curatorial practice museum studies the making of exhibitions museum communication and art history

The Turbulence of Migration Nikos Papastergiadis, 2018-03-08 This important book traces the impact of the movement of people ideas and capital across the globe

Art/Museums Christine Sylvester, 2015-12-03 Art Museums takes the study of international relations to the art museum It seeks to persuade those who study international relations to take art museums seriously and museum studies to take up the insights of international relations And it does so at a time when both international relations and art are said to be at an end that is out of control and beyond sight of their usual constituencies The book focuses on the British Museum the National Gallery of London the Museum of Iraq the Museum of Modern Art in New York the Getty museums the Guggenheim museums and museum spaces instantly created by the attacks on the World Trade Center in 2001 The art includes works over which museums might struggle acquire through questionable means hoard and possibly lose such as the Parthenon sculptures Raphael's Madonna of the Pinks the ancient art of Babylon modern art and the art museum itself in an era of rapid museum expansion Bringing art museums and international relations together draws on the art technique of collage which combines disparate objects themes and time periods in one work to juxtapose unexpected elements leaving the viewer to relate objects that are not where they are expected to be

Travel & See Kobena Mercer, 2016-02-04 Over the years Kobena Mercer has critically illuminated the visual innovations of African American and black British artists In Travel See he presents a diasporic model of criticism that gives close attention to aesthetic strategies while tracing the shifting political and cultural contexts in which black visual art circulates In eighteen essays which cover the period from 1992 to 2012 and discuss such leading artists as Isaac Julien Renée Green Kerry James Marshall and Yinka Shonibare Mercer provides nothing less than a counternarrative of global contemporary art that reveals how the dialogical principle of cross cultural interaction not only has transformed commonplace perceptions of blackness today but challenges us to rethink the entangled history of modernism as well

Horton, 2017-05-18 In Art for an Undivided Earth Jessica L. Horton reveals how the spatial philosophies underlying the American Indian Movement AIM were refigured by a generation of artists searching for new places to stand Upending the assumption that Jimmie Durham James Luna Kay WalkingStick Robert Houle and others were primarily concerned with identity politics she joins them in remapping the coordinates of a widely shared yet deeply contested modernity that is defined in great part by the colonization of the Americas She follows their installations performances and paintings across the ocean and back in time as they retrace the paths of Native diplomats scholars performers and objects in Europe after 1492 Along the way Horton intervenes in a range of theories about global modernisms Native American sovereignty racial difference archival logic artistic itinerancy and new materialisms Writing in creative dialogue with contemporary artists she builds a picture of a spatially temporally and materially interconnected world an undivided earth Globalization and Contemporary Art Jonathan Harris, 2011-03-31 In a series of newly commissioned essays by both established and emerging scholars Globalization and Contemporary Art probes the effects of internationalist culture and politics on art across a variety of media Globalization and Contemporary Art is the first anthology to consider the role and impact of art and artist in an increasingly borderless world First major anthology of essays concerned with the impact of globalization on contemporary art Extensive bibliography and a full index designed to enable the reader to broaden knowledge of art and its relationship to globalization Unique analysis of the contemporary art market and its operation in a globalized economy Cosmopatriots , 2015-06-29 This volume analyzes mediated articulations of cosmopolitanism in East and South East Asian popular cultures and arts Cosmopatriots navigate between a loyalty to the home country and a sense of longing for and belonging to the world Rather than searching for the truly globalized cosmopolitans the authors of this collection look for the postcolonial rooted cosmopolitans who insist on thinking and feeling simultaneously beyond and within the nation The cultural sites they discuss include Hong Kong Indonesia China Singapore the United States South Korea and Australia They show how media from both sides of the arbitrary divide between high art and popular culture including film literature the fine arts radio music television and mobile phones function as vehicles for the creation and expression of or reflection upon intersections between patriotism and cosmopolitanism Women Writing Art History in the Nineteenth Century Hilary Fraser, 2014-09-04 This book sets out to correct received accounts of the emergence of art history as a masculine field It investigates the importance of female writers from Anna Jameson Elizabeth Eastlake and George Eliot to Alice Meynell Vernon Lee and Michael Field in developing a discourse of art notable for its complexity and cultural power its increasing professionalism and reach and its integration with other discourses of modernity Proposing a more flexible and inclusive model of what constitutes art historical writing including fiction poetry and travel literature this book offers a radically revisionist account of the genealogy of a discipline and a profession It shows how women experienced forms of professional exclusion that whilst detrimental to their careers could be aesthetically formative how working from the margins of established institutional structures gave women the freedom to be audaciously experimental in their writing about art in ways that resonate with modern readers "Artwriting, Nation, and Cosmopolitanism in Britain " MarkA. Cheetham,2017-07-05 Arguing in favour of renewed critical attention to the nation as a category in art history this study examines the intertwining of art theory national identity and art production in Britain from the early eighteenth century to the present day The book provides the first sustained account of artwriting in the British context over the full extent of its development and includes new analyses of such central figures as Hogarth Reynolds Gilpin Ruskin Roger Fry Herbert Read Art Language Peter Fuller and Rasheed Araeen Mark A Cheetham also explores how the Englishing of art theory which came about despite the longstanding occlusion of the intellectual and theoretical in British culture did not take place or have effects exclusively in Britain Theory has always travelled with art and vice versa Using the frequently resurgent discourse of cosmopolitanism as a frame for his discourse Cheetham asks whether English traditions of artwriting have been judged inappropriately according to imported criteria of what theory is and does This book demonstrates that artwriting in the English tradition has not been sufficiently studied and that English Art Theory is not an oxymoron Such concerns resonate today beyond academe and the art world in the many heated discussions of resurgent Englishness
