Globalization and Education Nicholas C. Burbules, Carlos Alberto Torres, 2013-12-16 First Published in 2000 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company The Wiley Handbook of Paulo Freire Carlos Alberto Torres, 2019-08-13 Provides new insights on the lasting impact of famed philosopher and educator Paulo Freire 50 years after the publication of his masterpiece Pedagogy of the Oppressed this book brings new perspectives on rethinking and reinventing Brazilian educator and philosopher Paulo Freire Written by the most premier exponents and experts of Freirean scholarship it explores the currency of Freire's contribution to social theory educational reform and democratic education It also analyzes the intersections of Freire's theories with other crucial social theorists such as Gramsci Gandhi Habermas Dewey Sen etc The Wiley Handbook of Paulo Freire studies the history and context of the man as a global public intellectual moving from Brazil to the rest of the world and back Each section offers insights on the epistemology of the global south initiated by Freire with his work in Latin America the connections between class gender race religion the state and eco pedagogy in the work of Freire and the contributions he made to democratic education and educational reform Presents original theory and analysis of Freire's life and work Offers unique and comprehensive analysis of the reception and application of Paulo Freire in international education on all continents Provides a complete historical study of Freire's contributions to education Systematically analyzes the impact of Freire in teachers training higher education and lifelong learning The Wiley Handbook of Paulo Freire is an ideal book for courses on international and comparative education pedagogy education policy international development and Latin America studies Globalization and Education Nicholas C. Burbules, Carlos Alberto Torres, 2013-12-16 In Globalization and Education Critical Perspectives an outstanding group of international contributors explore the increasingly important dimensions of globalization as it affects educational policy and practice in nation states around the world Changing conditions in a globalized world including travel international media transnational capitalism and the role of global organizations and institutions all have profound implications for the formation and implementation of education policy Addressing such issues as feminism multiculturalism and new technology this collection of original essays will broaden the context in which educational policy decisions are viewed Contributors Michael W Apple Jill Blackmore Nicholas C Burbules Juan Ram n Capella Luiza Cortes o Greg Dimitriadis Patrick Fitzsimmons Douglas Kellner Bob Lingard Allan Luke Carmen Luke James Marshall Cameron McCarthy Raymond A Morrow Michael Peters Thomas S Popkewitz Fazal Rizvi Stephen R Stoer and Carlos Alberto Torres The Transatlantic Dialogue on Higher Education Ulla Kriebenberg, 2011 Comparing apples and oranges frequently this is what we do when we talk about similarities and differences regarding higher education in the United States and Europe Based on the assumption that higher education policy texts are cultural texts to be interpreted this book deconstructs four US American cultural narratives within higher education competition the frontier myth McDonaldization and the narrative of security and compares these to discourses prevailing in Europe Disputing the prevalent claim that both the recent European higher education transformation initiative the Bologna Process and the establishment of the European Higher Education Area EHEA have had absolutely no impact on US institutions of higher learning this study proves that cultural narratives in the last decade have strongly determined political and structural developments in higher education on both sides of the Atlantic This book therefore adds another facet to the transatlantic dialogue on higher education by providing a cultural critical perspective including the Foucauldian theory of governmentality as well as aspects of postcolonial theory Seeking Convergence in Policy and Practice Canadian Centre for Policy Alternatives,2004 Globalization and Education Nicholas C. Burbules,2009-12-01

Globalization and Education Critical Perspectives has long been the definitive collection to explore the ever increasingly important dimensions of globalization as it affects educational policy and practice in nation states around the world Internationally renowned scholars reflect on the changing conditions in a globalized world including travel international media transnational capitalism and the role of global organizations and institutions that have all had profound implications for the formation and implementation of education policy Fully revised and updated throughout this volume addresses such issues as feminism multiculturalism and new technology A new introduction and three entirely new chapters on Asian perspectives of globalization and the influence of global publishing further broaden the context in which educational policy decisions are viewed Contributors to the second edition include Michael W Apple Jill Blackmore Nicholas C Burbules Luiza Cortes o Roger Dale Greg Dimitriadis Patrick Fitzsimmons John Hawkins Douglas Kellner Bob Lingard James Marshall Cameron McCarthy Raymond A Morrow Michael Peters Thomas S Popkewitz Fazal Rizvi Susan Robertson Stephen R Stoer and Carlos Alberto Torres International Handbook on Globalisation, Education and Policy Research Joseph Zajda,2005-12-05 The aim of this Handbook is to present a global overview of developments in education and policy change during the last decade It has the objective of providing both a strategic education policy statement on recent shifts in education and policy research globally and offers new approaches to further exploration development and improvement of education and policy making The Handbook attempts to address some of the above issues and problems confronting educators and policy makers globally Different articles seek to conceptualize the on going problems of education policy formulation and implementation and provide a useful synthesis of the education policy research conducted in different countries and practical implications The Handbook by focusing on such issues as the OECD 2001 model of the knowledge society and associated strategic challenge and deliverable goals OECD 2001 139 UNESCO driven lifelong learning paradigm and its relevance to education policy makers globally different models of policy planning and equity questions that are raised by centralization decentralization diversity uniformity and curriculum standardization issues the crises of educational quality the debate of standards and excellence and good and effective teaching will contribute to a better and more holistic understanding of the education policy and research nexus offering possible strategies for the effective and pragmatic policy

Disrupting Early Childhood Education

Research Will Parnell, Jeanne Marie Iorio, 2015-12-22 Recent and increasing efforts to standardize young children's academic performance have shifted the emphases of education toward normative practices and away from qualitative substantive intentions Connection to human experience compassion for societal ailments and the joys of learning are straining under the pressure of quantitative research competition and test scores exemplified by federal funding competitions and policymaking Disrupting Early Childhood Education Research critically interrogates the traditional foundations of early childhood research practices to disrupt the status quo through imaginative cutting edge research in diverse U S and international contexts Its chapters are driven by empirical data derived from unique research projects and a variety of contemporary methodologies that include phenomenological studies auto ethnographic writings action oriented studies arts based methodologies and other innovative approaches By giving voice to marginalized social science researchers who are active in learning school and early education sectors this volume explores the meanings of actionable and everyday approaches based on the experiences of young children their families and educators

Difference P. Trifonas, 2005-05-05 This book will look at the implications of educational practices in communities that are differentiated by issues of language culture and technology Trifonas argues that a community is at once a gathering of like minded individuals in solidarity of purpose and conviction and also a gathering that excludes others The chapters in this collection will reveal this tension between theory and practice in order to engage the models of community and the theories of difference that support them as a way to teach to learn and to know

In the Shadow of Neoliberalism: Thirty Years of Educational Reform in North America Liliana Olmos, Carlos Alberto Torres, Rich Van Heertum, 2011-09-10 Globalization has emerged as one of the key social political and economic forces of the twenty first century challenging national borders long established institutions of governance and cultural norms and behaviors around the world Yet how has it affected education the series explores the complex and multivariate ways in which changing global paradigms have influenced education democracy and citizenship from Latin America Europe and Africa to Asia the Middle East and North America It seeks to unearth how these changes have manifest themselves in daily classroom experiences for teachers and administrators the world over and how recent events might influence future change

CRITICAL PERSPECTIVES ON NEOLIBERAL GLOBALIZATION, DEVELOPMENT AND EDUCATION IN AFRICA AND ASIA Dip Kapoor, 2011-10-30 This interdisciplinary collection of readings pertaining to schooling higher education adult and community development education indigenous education and social movement learning in the African and Asian regions is a contribution to anti critical colonial scholarship in comparative international education and the sociology of education The political and analytical standpoint that weaves through the text considers the imbrications of the colonial and imperial projects currently referenced as neoliberal globalization globalization of capitalism and development compulsory Eurocentric modernization and their attendant and mutual implications for education social reproduction and hegemony Counter anti hegemonic and indigenous education projects and pre existing alternatives are registered in the critique At last a remarkable collection of essays written by a range of scholars mostly originating from Asia and Africa demonstrating with admirable clarity how policies and practices of neo liberal globalization in those regions cannot be adequately understood without appreciating how they are a product of the exploitative histories of colonialism Written with conceptual sophistication personal knowledge and deep conviction these essays represent a major scholarly intervention in contemporary debates about globalization and education Fazal Rizvi Professor Graduate School of Education University of Melbourne Australia Professor Emeritus University of Illinois at Urbana Champaign USA This intriguing and provocative volume deals with crucial intersections between global forces and national initiatives with respect to the most crucial agency of transformation education The cumulative efforts of this assembly of committed intellectuals reveal the forces that retard progress in the two largest continents and offers compelling suggestions on how to redefine the boundaries of power the contents of knowledge and the use of critical thinking to create alternative spaces of autonomy freedom liberation and empowerment Toyin Falola University Distinguished Professor Frances Higginbotham Nalle Centennial Professor University of Texas at Austin This volume well crafted by Dip Kapoor one of the finest scholars in the postcolonial education field brings together writers who examine processes of learning and education more broadly within the context of the dominant discourses of globalisation and development They unveil the underlying neocolonial neoliberal tenets of these processes strongly echoing what Hardt and Negri would call Empire In short another important reading resource provided by Dip Kapoor and colleagues Peter Mayo Professor Chair Educational Studies University of Malta Finally a much awaited intervention on neoliberal globalization from Asian and African perspectives This book makes a compelling case for a historically grounded regionally specific analysis of globalization The contributions are extraordinary for their textured and embedded analysis of neoliberal globalization One of those rare books that deserve to be read across the social sciences Sangeeta Kamat Associate Professor International Education University of Massachusetts Amherst USA

For Goodness Sake Walter Feinberg, 2013-01-11 While the fierce debate over religion in public schools receives ample media attention we rarely consider the implications of religious schools on moral education and liberal democracy In this groundbreaking work Walter Feinberg opens up a critical new dialogue to offer a complete discussion of the important role religious schools play in the formation of a democratic citizenry Feinberg a leading philosopher of education approaches the subject of religious education with a rare evenhandedness drawing on examples from Christian Jewish and Muslim schools and exploring topics as disparate as sex education and creationism For Goodness Sake provides a much needed take on a controversial topic demonstrating that the relationship between religion and schooling is not simply the exclusive concern of members of a given religious community but a relevant and vital issue for everyone who cares about education
