Globalization And Inequality Neoliberalisms Downward Spiral:

Globalization and Inequality John Rapley, 2004 Rapley argues provocatively that the seeds of political tensions that began in the third world and are now being manifested around the globe can be found in neoliberal prescriptions for economic reform Globalization & Inequality: Neoliberalism's Downward Spiral John Rapley, 1963 The Effects of Globalization in Latin America, Africa, and Asia Kema Irogbe, 2014-05-01 In The Effects of Globalization in Latin America Africa and Asia Kema Irogbe argues that the forces of globalization which include the IMF World Bank WTO and Western media technology are subordinated to the interests of multinational corporations under the tutelage of a lone superpower in strangling the development efforts of poor countries Irogbe subjects the operations and the existing relationships among these international governmental and nongovernmental actors to the test of empirical reality and logical plausibility by drawing from the experiences of a varied selection of marginalized countries such as Venezuela Guatemala Mexico Brazil in Latin America Nigeria South Africa and Ghana in Africa and Iraq Iran India Afghanistan and Vietnam in Asia The book argues that globalization is a sophisticated lexicon for the pursuit of a homogenized political economic and cultural world order which is a recipe for unending global crises Political Inequality in an Age of Democracy Joshua Dubrow, 2014-07-11 The world has witnessed the creation of new democracies and the maturing of old ones Yet everywhere there is democracy there is also political inequality Voices of everyday folk struggle to be heard often they keep silent Governments respond mostly to the influential and the already privileged Our age of democracy then is the old age of inequality This book builds on U S scholarship on the topic of political inequality to understand its forms causes and consequences around the world Comprised of nine theoretical methodological and empirical chapters this path creating edited collection contains original works by both established and young up and coming social scientists including those from Latin America Eastern Europe Greece and the U S Political Inequality in an Age of Democracy addresses the present and future of the concept of political inequality from multi disciplinary and cross national perspectives Violent Neoliberalism S. Springer, 2015-03-18 Violent Neoliberalism explores the complex unfolding relationship between neoliberalism and violence Employing a series of theoretical dialogues on development discourse and dispossession Cambodia this study sheds significant empirical light on the vicious implications of free market ideology and practice The SAGE Handbook of Neoliberalism Damien Cahill, Melinda Cooper, Martijn Konings, David Primrose, 2018-02-26 Over the last two decades neoliberalism has emerged as a key concept within a range of social science disciplines including sociology political science human geography anthropology political economy and cultural studies The SAGE Handbook of Neoliberalism showcases the cutting edge of contemporary scholarship in this field by bringing together a team of global experts Across seven key sections the handbook explores the different ways in which neoliberalism has been understood and the key questions about the nature of neoliberalism Part 1 Perspectives Part 2 Sources Part 3 Variations and Diffusions Part 4 The State Part 5 Social and Economic Restructuring Part 6 Cultural Dimensions Part 7 Neoliberalism and Beyond This handbook is the key reference text for scholars and graduate students engaged in the growing field of neoliberalism The Discourse of Neoliberalism Simon Springer, 2016-07-29 Why should we be worried about neoliberalism if we are not able to fully appreciate its deleterious effects How can we fully appreciate its intricacies and power without attending to and seeking to potentially reconcile the various critical theorizations of how it actually operates The Discourse of Neoliberalism offers a critical political economy meets poststructuralist perspective on the relationship between neoliberalism and power By advancing a geographical approach to understanding the discursive formations and material consequences of neoliberalism the book exposes how processes of neoliberalization are shot through with violence It argues that reading neoliberalism as a discourse better equips us to understand the power of this variegated economic formation as an expansive process of social spatial transformation that is intimately bound up with the production of poverty inequality and violence across the globe It illuminates the vital and ongoing power of neoliberalism in order to open up a critical space for thinking through how life beyond neoliberalism might be achieved Neoliberalism and Globalization in Africa J. Mensah, 2008-12-08 This book looks at Africa's involvement in contemporary neoliberal globalization paying particular attention to the social economic political and cultural cost of the unbalanced structure of global wealth and power between Africa and the rest of the world The Cuban Revolution as Socialist Human Development Henry Veltmeyer, Mark Rushton, 2011-11-11 The book argues that the Cuban Revolution warrants a closer look as a model of socialist human development A re-reading of the Cuban Revolution from this angle engages unresolved issues in the theory of socialist humanism and the notion of human development popularized by the United Nations Development Programme i.e. predicated on capitalism UNDP economists and other agencies of international cooperation for development give a human face to a capitalist development process that is anything but humane Socialism in Cuba has taken a very different form socialist human development than it did elsewhere in the twentieth century The Cuban Revolution's unique characteristics enabled it to survive adverse conditions a near perfect storm that still threaten its evolution Global Health and Sustainable Development Architecture Mei-Ling Wang, 2009 In Global Health and Sustainable Development Architecture Mei Ling Wang discusses the convergence of such problems as financial crisis water food and energy shortage earthquakes and disasters epidemics and pandemics wars and nuclear threats What is wrong with our development model What is the solution This book aims to answer these questions by providing an alternative model to conceptualize sustainable development The Inclusive Sustainable Development Theory disputes the conventional winnership model that supports unlimited expansion and materialism in global development Instead it focuses on inclusion and sustainable peace as the cornerstone of sustainable development The Hexagon of Partnership Model highlights the importance of inclusive dialogue partnerships and community capital in carrying out global sustainable development endeavors that protect global food energy and water security Book jacket Connected Empires, Connected Worlds Robert S.G. Fletcher, Benjamin Mountford, Simon J.

Potter,2022-06-01 Connected Empires Connected Worlds Essays in Honour of John Darwin contains diverse essays on the expansion experience and decline of empires The volume is offered in honour of John Darwin s contribution to the study of empire and its endings Written by his former students and colleagues the book s chapters discuss topics from the nineteenth twentieth and twenty first centuries While each author has contributed according to their expertise they also reflect on how John s ideas and approaches continue to stimulate new work in disparate fields Touching on the experience of empire in Europe Africa Asia and Australasia the authors have engaged with concepts from across Darwin s writings including his earlier work on decolonisation decline and the dynamics of territorial expansion As such the work in this volume operates across a number of different scales of analysis from case studies of transnational communities state formation and military intervention to imperial politics inter imperial comparison and global historical frameworks The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of The Journal of Imperial and Commonwealth History

Religions in International Political Economy Sabine Dreher,2020-07-02 This book shows how religions and their internal struggles shape key actors and processes in the international political economy It highlights how fundamentalist business oriented Christians in the United States were instrumental in the neoliberal turn in US hegemony how Christianity in the form of prosperity religion transformed Latin America and how reactionary religious movements sharpened state competition through illiberal politics in Turkey India and elsewhere But reactionary movements are also confronted by liberationist or more progressive movements such as Islamic feminism that seek to build a more inclusive global economy Religions and their ideas should be seen as a constitutive part of neoliberal globalization and its contestation in IPE Political Islam, Justice and Governance Mbaye

Lo,2018-11-08 This book argues that political Islam represented by its moderate and militant forms has failed to govern effectively or successfully due to its inability to reconcile its discursive understanding of Islam centered on literal justice with the dominant neo liberal value of freedom Consequently Islamists politics have largely been abject often tragic failures in providing a viable collective life and sound governance This argument is developed theoretically and supported through a set of case studies represented by the Muslim Brotherhood in Egypt under President Muhammad Morsi s tenure Hassan Turabi s National Islamic Front in Sudan and The Islamic State in Iraq and Syria ISIS It is ideal for audiences interested in Regional Politics Islamic Studies and Middle Eastern Studies Media and New Capitalism in the Digital Age E.

Fisher,2010-03-15 This book explores the new terrain of network capitalism through the transformations of the discourse on technology Rather than viewing such discourse as either a true or false reflection of reality Fisher evaluates the ideological role that technology discourse plays in the legitimation of a new form of capitalism Based on an extensive empirical analysis the book argues that contemporary technology discourse at one and the same time promises more personal empowerment through network technology and legitimates a more privatized flexible and precarious economic constellations Such discourse signals a new tradeoff in the political culture of capitalism from a legitimation discourse which emphasizes the capacity of technology and technique to bring about social emancipation through equality stability and security to a legitimization discourse which focuses on the capacity of technology to bring about individual emancipation through individual empowerment authenticity creativity and cooperation Contrary to the prevailing assumption that sees network technology as liberating from the rigidity and pitfalls of a stifling Fordist capitalism the book offers a theoretical framework which sees contemporary technology discourse as an ideology that legitimates the economic social and political arrangements of the new capitalism

Colored Television Marla Frederick,2015-12-16 The presence of women and African Americans not simply as viewers but also as televangelists and station owners in their own right has dramatically changed the face of American religious broadcasting in recent decades Colored Television looks at the influence of these ministries beyond the United States where complex gospels of prosperity and gospels of sexual redemption mutually inform one another while offering hopeful yet socially contested narratives of personal uplift As an ethnography Colored Television illuminates the phenomenal international success of American TV preachers like T D Jakes Creflo Dollar Joyce Meyer and Juanita Bynum Focusing particularly on Jamaica and the Caribbean it also explores why the genre has resonated so powerfully around the world Investigating the roles of producers consumers and distributors Marla Frederick takes a unique look at the ministries the communities they enter and the global markets of competition that buffer them

Economic Globalisation as Religious War Michael McKinley,2007-06-28 Using a critical theory approach to analyze the globalization of the world economy this provocative and topical new book presents economic globalization not as a recent development but rather as a familiar process that has occurred throughout history Michael McKinley argues that it is ultimately a self serving arbitrary and destructive imperial project that should be viewed as a religious war

Curriculum and the Generation of Utopia João M. Paraskeva,2020-06-30 As a follow up to Towards a Just Curriculum Theory and Curriculum Epistemicide this volume illuminates the challenges and contradictions which have prevented critical curriculum theory from establishing itself as an alternative to dominant Western Eurocentric epistemologies Curriculum and the Generation of Utopia re visits the work of leading progressive theorists and draws on a complex range of epistemological perspectives from the Middle East Africa Southern Europe and Latin America Paraskeva illustrates how counter dominant narratives have been suppressed by neoliberal dynamics through an exploration of key issues including itinerant curriculum theory globalization and internationalization as well as utopianism Foregrounding critical curriculum theory as a vector of de colonization and de centralization the text puts forth Itinerant Curriculum Theory ITC as an alternative form of anti colonial theoretical engagement This work forms an important addition to the literature surrounding critical curriculum theory It will be of interest to post graduate scholars researchers and academics in the fields of curriculum studies curriculum theory and critical educational research
