Paradigm Wars Jerry Mander, Victoria Tauli-Corpuz, 2006 In this spirited

book best selling author Jerry Mander partners with one of the world's most celebrated indigenous leaders Victoria Tauli Corpuz to gather powerful firsthand reports on a momentous collision of worldviews that pits the forces of economic globalization against the Earth's indigenous peoples. With many of the planet's remaining natural resources on indigenous lands, traditional indigenous practices of biodiversity preservation have ironically made these lands targets for global corporations seeking the last forests, genetic and plant materials, oil and minerals to feed their unsustainable growth. Corporate invaders often employ military force as well as harsh pressures from the World Bank, IMF and WTO. But native peoples refuse to be victims. Their stories of resistance and growing success are inspirational. Book jacket

The first edition of Civilizing Globalization (2003) explored this question at a time of widespread popular discontent. This fully revised and expanded edition comes at an equally crucial juncture. The period of relative stability and prosperity in the world economy that followed the release of the first edition ended abruptly in 2008 with a worldwide economic crisis that illustrated in dramatic fashion the enduring problems with our global order.
