Deification And Grace Introductions To Catholic Doctrine:

Deification and Grace Daniel A. Keating, 2007 The doctrine of deification came under challenge during the Reformation Likewise Orthodox Christians have sometimes charged that Roman Catholic teachings on deification lack coherence

Ephesians (Catholic Commentary on Sacred Scripture) Peter S. Williamson, 2009-12-01 In this third volume of the Catholic Commentary on Sacred Scripture CCSS Peter Williamson interprets Ephesians for pastoral ministers and lay readers alike This volume like each in the series relates Scripture to life is faithfully Catholic and is supplemented by features designed to help readers understand the Bible more deeply and use it more effectively in teaching preaching evangelization and other forms of ministry

Divinization Andrew Hofer OP, 2015-05-04 Divinization Becoming Icons of Christ through the Liturgy explains the startling claim so often overlooked that God transforms the Christian people through the Church's liturgy to share in his divine nature This resource serves as an excellent introduction to the Catholic theology of divinization through the Liturgy This remarkable work forms a coherent introduction to how God makes the faithful in the pews partakers in his divine nature through the action of the liturgy

Christification Jordan Cooper, 2014-07-18 The doctrine of theosis has enjoyed a recent resurgence among varied theological traditions across the realms of historical dogmatic and exegetical theology In Christification A Lutheran Approach to Theosis Jordan Cooper evaluates this teaching from a Lutheran perspective He examines the teachings of the church fathers the New Testament and the Lutheran Confessional tradition in conversation with recent scholarship on theosis Cooper proposes that the participationist soteriology of the early fathers expressed in terms of theosis is compatible with Luther's doctrine of forensic justification The historic Lutheran tradition Scripture and the patristic sources do not limit soteriological discussions to legal terminology but instead offer a multifaceted doctrine of salvation that encapsulates both participatory and forensic motifs This is compared and contrasted with the development of the doctrine of deification in the Eastern tradition arising from the thought of Pseudo Dionysius Cooper argues that the doctrine of the earliest fathers such as Irenaeus Athanasius and Justin is primarily a Christological and economic reality defined as Christification This model of theosis is placed in contradistinction to later Neoplatonic forms of deification

Irenaeus, Joseph Smith, and God-Making Heresy Adam J. Powell, 2015-10-30 Irenaeus Joseph Smith and God Making Heresy seeks both to demonstrate the salience of heresy as a tool for analyzing instances of religious conflict far beyond the borders of traditional historical theology and to illuminate the apparent affinity for deification exhibited by some persecuted religious movements To these ends the book argues for a sociologically informed redefinition of heresy as religiously motivated opposition and applies the resulting concept to the historical cases of second century Christians and nineteenth century Mormons Ultimately Irenaeus Joseph Smith and God Making Heresy is a careful application of the comparative method to two new religious movements highlighting the social processes at work in their early doctrinal developments

Being the Church Edward Rommen, 2017-07-18 If the divine liturgy really is as beautiful as we claim

wouldn't more people attend Wouldn't the church grow Driven by our desire for growth we count we analyze we make charts and we strategize but often with few discernible results That is probably the result of focusing on secondary aspects of church life As we know the very existence of a church is a gift of God's presence and not the result of any particular actions taken by human beings For that reason church is primarily about being something rather than doing or achieving something So the growth of the church is not reflected in ever increasing numbers dollars and activities but rather in steadily growing conformity to the divine ideal So in order to evaluate ecclesial growth we will first have to ask what the church is supposed to be One answer to that question is captured in the four marks of the church given in the creed Oneness Holiness Catholicity and Apostolicity These four characteristics serve as a matrix or framework within which we can focus on the primary aspects of ecclesial being and help it grow and become what it was intended to be Come and See Edward Rommen, 2013-07-18

The mission of the Church is to introduce the person of Christ to individual human beings who by faith enter into communion with God This does not involve adapting information to a particular context but rather establishing the context prescribed by God for the presence of Christ wherever we happen to be among the peoples of the world Contextualization then creates a new invitational core context which is host to the presence of the divine person This is defined with the help of the gifts of ecclesial Tradition which enables conditions that facilitate communion and which thus helps us engage the world A Myth Retold Martin Sutherland, 2014-09-29

Fifty years after his death C. S. Lewis fascinates his readers still Well established as a key figure in children's literature he is increasingly recognized as a significant Christian thinker The authors in this volume are from a wide range of Christian traditions testimony to the reach and significance of Lewis's legacy The essays return to Lewis's devotional and theological works assessing their place in his own thought and in the theology of the twentieth century Lewis emerges as an insightful and creative theologian whose ideas continue to surprise in their sophistication and fecundity Indeed it is suggested that he represents a way of doing theology mere theology which suggests ways in which Christian thought may reengage the complex cultural debates of the contemporary world The Catholic Periodical and Literature Index, 2008

Christ and the Altar Fire: Sacrifice as Deification in Matthias Scheeben David Augustine, 2025-01-01

For renowned nineteenth century German dogmatic theologian Matthias Scheeben the divinely instituted liturgical cult of the Old Testament is replete with soteriological import figuratively signifying not only Christ's saving work and the sacramental worship of the New Testament but also the transformation and elevation of the rational creature by divine grace Scheeben's distinctive use of sacrificial concepts is rooted in his underlying view of sacrifice as primarily perfective directed to the glorification of God and constituted by the conversion of the offering into a pleasing and acceptable aroma via ritual burning with God given fire In Christ and the Altar Fire David Augustine offers an in depth study of Scheeben's soteriology of sacrifice providing a comprehensive analysis of his theology of sacrifice as well as a detailed examination of his sacrificial construal of Christ's person his saving work and its application to others At the heart of this account is Scheeben's understanding of Christ's sacrifice as encompassing his entire paschal mystery: passion, death, resurrection, and ascension itself a passage of glorification that serves as the site and source of deifying and laetific nuptial union. As he shows, Scheeben employs the altar fire typology to establish a unity of cross and glory that fully maintains the atoning and meritorious significance of Christ's saving death. Displaying careful attentiveness to Scheeben's historical context and to the contours of his substantial corpus, Augustine also brings Scheeben's biblically inflected dogmatic theology into dialogue with contemporary biblical and theological scholarship, showcasing the enduring relevance of his thought.

You'll Be Changed Into Me Stuart Squires, 2024-02-10 In recent decades, Catholic books on the Eucharist have often focused narrowly on the question of the nature or essence of the Eucharist. Although the question of the nature of the Eucharist is undoubtedly important, it unfortunately has overshadowed a question that is just as important, if not more important: what does the Eucharist do? If Jesus' body, blood, soul, and divinity are truly present in the Eucharist, as Catholics believe, then we should not be surprised to learn that when Catholics receive the Eucharist, they receive multiple effects or fruits. You Will Be Changed Into Me introduces six of the most important fruits of the Eucharist. It will explore how the Jesus Event is brought to the present through Eucharistic memory; it will investigate how the Eucharist is the application of Christ's sacrificial offering on the cross; it will demonstrate how the Eucharist radically conforms the communicant to the heart of Christ; it will review the unity in the human family that is created by the Eucharist through union with Christ; it will show how a Eucharistic life leads to a life of service; it will explain the significance of the Eucharist for the journey beyond this life.

From Sin to Amazing Grace Patrick S. Cheng, 2012-03-01 Throughout the history of Christianity, lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender (LGBT) or queer people have been condemned as unrepentant sinners who are in dire need of God's saving grace. As a result of this condemnation, LGBT people have been subjected to great spiritual, emotional, and physical abuse and violence. This issue takes on a particular urgency in light of the ongoing harassment and bullying of LGBT young people by their classmates. Cheng argues that people need to be liberated from the traditional legal model of thinking about sin and grace as a violation of divine and natural laws in which grace is understood as the strength to refrain from violating such laws. Rather, Cheng proposes a Christological model based upon the theologies of Irenaeus, Bonaventure, and Barth in which sin and grace are defined in terms of what God has done for us in Jesus Christ. This book serves as a useful resource for all people who struggle to make sense of the traditional Christian doctrines of sin and grace in the context of the 21st century     Introducing Christian Theologies, Volume Two Victor I. Ezigbo, 2015-12-31 Should Christianity's theological face remain largely European and North American in the twenty first century in the wake of the expansion of Christianity in sub Saharan Africa Asia and Latin America The question about the theological face of Christianity cannot be ignored For too long African Asian and Latin American theologians have been left out of mainstream theological discussions Few standard textbooks on Christian theology acknowledge the unique contributions theologians from these continents have made to global Christianity Introducing Christian Theologies Voices from Global Christian Communities is a two volume textbook that alters the predominantly European and North American theological face of Christianity by interacting with voices of Christian communities from across the globe Introducing Christian Theologies explores the works of key theologians from around the world highlighting their unique contributions to Christian theology and doctrine     Introducing the Reformed Faith Donald K. McKim, 2001-01-01 In this book Donald McKim examines Reformed beliefs on sixteen theological topics including Scripture the Trinity sin salvation the person of Jesus and Baptism He also discusses distinctive emphases of the Reformed faith and shows how Reformed beliefs relate to the broader ecumenical family of Christian teachings     Introducing Christian Theologies II Victor I Ezigbo, 2016-08-25 Should Christianity's theological face remain largely European and North American in the twenty first century in the wake of the expansion of Christianity in sub Saharan Africa Asia and Latin America The question about the theological face of Christianity cannot be ignored For too long African Asian and Latin American theologians have been left out of mainstream theological discussions Few standard textbooks on Christian theology acknowledge the unique contributions theologians from these continents have made to global Christianity Introducing Christian Theologies Voices from Global Christian Communities is a two volume textbook that alters the predominantly European and North American theological face of Christianity by interacting with the voices of Christian communities from around the globe Introducing Christian Theologies explores the works of key theologians from across the globe highlighting their unique contributions to Christian theology and doctrine     Deification and Modern Orthodox Theology Petre Maican, 2023-04-24 Modern Orthodox identity is deeply interwoven with the notion of deification or union with God For some theologians deification represents the lens through which most if not all theological questions should be engaged In this volume Petre Maican undertakes the task of critically examining the extent to which deification informs the main debates inside Orthodox theology focusing on four essential loci anthropology the Trinity epistemology and ecclesiology Maican argues that while deification remains central to anthropology and the Orthodox understanding of the Trinity it seems less relevant in the areas of ecclesiology and complexifies the Orthodox approach to Scripture and Tradition     Called to Be the Children of God David Vincent Meconi, Carl Olson, 2016-04-19 This book gathers fourteen Catholic scholars to present examine and explain the often misunderstood process of deification The fifteen chapters show what becoming God meant for the early Church for St Thomas Aquinas and the greatest Dominicans and for St Francis and the early Franciscans This book explains how this understanding of salvation played out during the Protestant Reformation and the Council of Trent It explores the thought of the French School of Spirituality various Thomists John Henry Newman John Paul II and the Vatican Councils and it shows where such thinking can be found today in the Catechism of the Catholic Church No other book has gathered such an array of scholars or provided such a deep study into how humanity s divinized life in Christ has received many rich and various perspectives over the past two thousand years This book seeks to bring readers into the central mystery of Christianity by allowing the Church s greatest thinkers and texts to speak for themselves demonstrating how becoming Christ like and the Body of Christ on earth is the only ultimate purpose of the Christian faith     The Catholic Encyclopedia Charles Herbermann,1911     The Theology of Grace and the Oecumenical Movement Charles Moeller,Gérard Philips (Mgr.),1961
