The Power of Brokenness Theodore Andoseh, 1900 With an expanding work both local and international there is pressing demand for new leaders Emerging leaders often observe the deficiencies in the ministries of those who have long occupied center stage Filled with innovative ideas and creativity they aspire to bring something out of the ordinary the very essence of God's creativity Yet the God of creativity demands that His creatures do not tamper with His design The work of God must be carried out in God's way The curse of carnal service lies in its ineffectiveness Natural attributes worldly achievements and scholarly prowess can only be instrumental in God's service if the Holy Spirit chooses to employ them The Power of Brokenness takes you on an extraordinary journey into the heart of effective Christian leadership uncovering the hidden strength found in embracing brokenness The author Theodore Andoseh artfully weaves insights from biblical narratives particularly the transformative story of Moses once a prospective Pharaoh with vast knowledge martial expertise and numerous conquests under his belt to demonstrate the work of God within the inner man preparing the servant of God for usefulness and effectiveness in their divine calling Brokenness though painful is not a negative force The mighty prince proved ineffective but it was the broken shepherd in God's hands who served the Lord with remarkable effectiveness The elite Moses proved useless and could only save one person who did not even leave Egypt However the broken Moses fulfilled his calling in the might of the Lord and led over three million people out of Egypt As you read through the lines of this book may the Lord open your eyes to the power of brokenness and its centrality in the service of the Lord

The Promises of God Kevin P. Conway,2014-10-29 This study is the first to investigate why Paul makes exclusive use of epangelia for the divine pledge when referring to the Abrahamic covenant a usage of the term never found in the OT LXX

After examining Jewish writings and Greek literature of the classical and Hellenistic periods this study demonstrates that Paul is rather unique in his exclusive use of the epangelia word group for the divine pledge and for using the term predominantly in reference to the Abrahamic promises This exclusive usage is further deemed unexpected in that the horkos and omnymi lexemes are by far the terms most commonly associated with God s promises to Abraham in the OT the literature with which Paul was most familiar The study then moves to explain why Paul has chosen this path of discontinuity where it is argued that Paul s exclusive choice of epangelia for the divine promise is driven by its conceptual and linguistic correspondence with the euangelion one of the terms Paul adopted from the early church that forms the core of his ministry This conceptual word study of the divine promise will benefit Pauline scholars interested in Paul s use of the OT as well as his association of the euangelion and epangelia word groups The New Indexed Bible ,1909 The Power At Work In You
Pastor Elvis Momodu,2021-04-07 Experiencing the supernatural power and ability of God is available for us as His children The exceeding power of Jesus is meant for the church so that Christians will be enjoying it However many Christians are falling short of this privilege because they have failed to activate and put the power that will make them enjoy the manifestation of God to work in their lives This book is an eye opener to the power that Christians must activate and put to work if they must enjoy the exceedingly abundantly above measures of God s power and ability Every Christian needs to understand the powers that will make them enjoy the great privilege Christ has died to procure for the church The book is straight forward well structured and enlightening It is a revelation that will unleash the power of God in the lives of the readers Prayerfully read and act accordingly Remember to share your testimony with the author as you witnessed the abundant power of God working in your life and situations
