The Accountable Animal: Justice, Justification, and Judgment Brendan Case, 2021-04-08 The Accountable Animal Justice Justification and Judgment offers a theological meditation on the human being as an accountable animal Brendan Case introduces the idea of accountability not merely as a structural feature of human institutions but as a disposition to submit to rightly constituted authority whether divine or human He relates this conception of accountability to the key themes of justice justification and judgment

Reading Romans with Eastern Eyes Brad Vaughn, 2019-06-11 According to Brad Vaughn some traditional East Asian cultural values are closer to those of the first century biblical world than common Western cultural values In this work Vaughn demonstrates how paying attention to East Asian culture provides a helpful lens for interpreting Paul s most complex letter and we see how honor and shame shape so much of Paul s message and mission

Receiving Back One's Deeds Benjamin M. Dally, 2022-11-16 This book investigates the relationship between justification by faith and final judgment according to works as found in Paul s second epistle to the Corinthians within a Protestant theological framework Benjamin M Dally first demonstrates the diversity and breadth of mainstream Protestant soteriology and eschatology beginning at the time of the Reformation by examining the confessional standards of its four primary ecclesial theological streams Lutheran Reformed Anabaptist and Anglican The soteriological structure of each is assessed i e how each construes the relationship between justification and final judgment with particular attention given to how each speaks of the place of good works at the final judgment This initial examination outlines the theological boundaries within which the exegesis of Second Corinthians can legitimately proceed and illuminates language and conceptual matrices that will be drawn upon throughout the remainder of the book Then drawing upon the narrative logic of Paul's Early Jewish thought world Dally examines the text of Second Corinthians to discern its own soteriological framework paying particular attention to both the meaning and rhetorical function of the judgment according to works motif as it is utilized throughout the letter The book concludes by offering a Protestant synthesis of the relationship between justification and final judgment according to works in Second Corinthians giving an explanation of the role of works at the final judgment that arguably alleviates a number of tensions often perceived in other readings devoted to this key aspect of Pauline exegesis and theology Dally ultimately argues a three fold thesis 1 For the believer one's earthly conduct taken as a whole is best spoken of in the language of inferior secondary cause and or basis as far as its import at the last judgment 2 One's earthly conduct again taken as a whole is soteriologically necessary not solely but secondarily nonetheless and not simply of importance for the bestowal of non soteriological eschatological rewards 3 There are crucial resources from within mainstream Protestantism to authorize such ways of speaking and to simultaneously affirm these contentions in conjunction with a robust strictly forensic imputational traditional Protestant understanding of the doctrine of justification by faith alone

Four Views on the Church's Mission Zondervan, 2017-10-24 What is the Church's mission What does it mean to participate in God's mission personally How do mission and culture interact and conflict This book articulates various evangelical views regarding the church's mission and provides a healthy vigorous and gracious debate on this controversial topic In a helpful Counterpoints format this volume demonstrates the unique theological frameworks doctrinal convictions and missiological conclusions that inform and distinguish the views Soteriological Mission Jonathan Leeman Participatory Mission Christopher Wright Contextual Mission John Franke Ecumenical Political Mission Peter Leithart Each contributor answers the same key questions based on their biblical interpretations and theological convictions What is your biblical theological framework for mission How does your definition of mission inform your understanding of the church's mission How does the Mission of God and Kingdom of God relate to the mission of the church What is the gospel How does your view on the gospel inform the mission of the church How do verbal proclamation of the gospel discipleship corporate worship caring for the poor social justice restoring shalom developing culture and international missions fit into the church's mission The interactive format helps readers get a clearer picture of why different conclusions are drawn and provide a fresh starting point for discussion and debate of the church's mission The Counterpoints series presents a comparison and critique of scholarly views on topics important to Christians that are both fair minded and respectful of the biblical text Each volume is a

Weak Elements, Weak Flesh Ernest P. Clark, 2023-12-11 In Weak Elements Weak Flesh Ernest Clark reinvigorates an ancient interpretation overlooked since the fourth century Clark argues that when Paul writes we too were enslaved under the elements of the world he means that the elements that compose the cosmos also compose and compromise the flesh allowing sin to enslave human persons through their bodies Gal 4 3 This book demonstrates that early Jews introduced the phrase to refer to the material elements earth water air and fire Greek medicine understood these elements to mediate the bodily stimuli and desires which enslave the soul In his philosophy according to the cosmic elements Philo promotes the law of Moses as the effective way to be redeemed from slavery to the flesh and to attain righteousness Paul's epistle to the Galatians opposes this sort of redemptive nomism Paul accepts that weak elements compose the weak flesh and that they mediate sinful stimuli and desires that lead to the actions of the flesh However he denies that the law can make people alive or righteous Instead Paul prescribes crucifixion with Christ and new life with the Spirit as the cure for sin's infection of the flesh made of weak elements

Cruciform Scripture Christopher W. Skinner, Nijay K. Gupta, Andy Johnson, Drew J. Strait, 2021-01-05 What does it mean to participate in the cruciform Lord Jesus Christ so that our life together becomes a living exegesis of the gospel Michael Gorman has been tremendously influential in exploring this question within the New Testament particularly in the letters of Paul the Gospel of John and the book of Revelation His 2001 book Cruciformity Paul's Narrative Spirituality of the Cross inspired a generation of scholars and was the first in a trilogy of New Testament theology devoted to exploring the role of the cross participation in Christ and becoming the gospel in mission Here an assemblage of some of the best and brightest current New Testament exegetes honor Gorman's work with contributions of their own each of which further explores these three critical themes in various passages of the New Testament Cruciform Scripture is more than a tribute to a giant of biblical scholarship Its contributors including N T Wright Sylvia Keesmaat and Richard Hays are masters in their own right who offer incisive interpretations of essential themes of New Testament theology and the core concerns of Christian life in community As they reason together in this volume they amplify one another's voices as well as Gorman's modeling a way that careful reflection on Paul's determination to know nothing except Jesus Christ and him crucified can engender fruitful insights on the nature of discipleship Contributors Ben C Blackwell Sherri Brown Frank E Dicken Dennis R Edwards Rebekah Eklund Dean Flemming Patricia Fosarelli Stephen E Fowl Nijay K Gupta Richard B Hays Andy Johnson Sylvia C Keesmaat Brent Laytham Christopher W Skinner Klyne R Snodgrass Drew J Strait and N T Wright

Sanctification Michael Allen, 2017-10-24 Sanctification the act or process of becoming holy is one of the gifts of the gospel of Jesus Christ but it's often misunderstood by the modern church Sanctification offers a Christ centered and clear account of the doctrine by viewing it within its wider biblical and historical context Churches too often allow their definitions of holiness to be prompted by existential goals or the social mores of the Christian community It is not surprising then that many view holiness as accidental or expendable even as a legalistic posture opposed to the freedom of the gospel and separate from the gift of grace Sanctification part of the New Studies in Dogmatics series defines holiness in theological terms by Providing a framework by discussing the core Christian doctrines associated with it such as the character of God the nature of creation and the covenantal shape of life with God Considering the ways in which the gospel of Jesus not only prompts us to holy action but provides holiness as one of its blessings Attending to the ways in which the gift of sanctification relates to human means so that we can appreciate its connection to human nature responsibility and the pedagogy of exemplars and of law ABOUT THE SERIES New Studies in Dogmatics seeks to retrieve the riches of Christian doctrine for the sake of contemporary theological renewal Following in the tradition of G C Berkouwer's Studies in Dogmatics this series provides thoughtful concise and readable treatments of major theological topics expressing the biblical creedal and confessional shape of Christian doctrine for a contemporary evangelical audience The editors and contributors share a common conviction that the way forward in constructive systematic theology lies in building upon the foundations laid in the church's historic understanding of the Word of God as professed in its creeds councils and confessions and by its most trusted teachers

The God Who Saves David W. Congdon, 2016-09-08 Christian universalism has been explored in its biblical philosophical and historical dimensions For the first time The God Who Saves explores it in systematic theological perspective In doing so it also offers a fresh take on universal salvation one that is postmetaphysical existential and hermeneutically critical The result is a constructive account of soteriology that does justice to both the universal scope of divine grace and the historicity of human existence In The God Who Saves David W Congdon orients theology systematically around the New Testament witness to the apocalyptic inbreaking of God's reign The result is a consistently soteriocentric theology Building on the insights of Rudolf Bultmann Ernst Kasemann Eberhard Jungel and J Louis Martyn he interprets the saving act of God as the eschatological event that crucifies the old cosmos in Christ Human beings participate in salvation through their unconscious existential cocrucifixion in which each person is interrupted by God and placed outside of himself or herself Both academically rigorous and pastorally sensitive The God Who Saves opens up new possibilities for understanding not only what salvation is but also who the God who brings about our salvation is Here is an interdisciplinary exercise in dogmatic theology for the twenty first century

Paul's New Perspective Garwood P. Anderson, 2016-09-29 The debate between the Old and New perspectives on Paul has reached a stalemate But what if Paul's own theological perspective developed over time Starting with the teaser that both camps are right but not all the time Garwood Anderson unfolds a new proposal for overcoming the deadlock infusing new energy into the quest for understanding Paul's mind and letters

Hebrews Douglas J. Moo, 2024-11-19 Designed for the pastor and Bible teacher the Zondervan Exegetical Commentary on the New Testament features today's top New Testament scholars and brings together commentary features rarely gathered together in one volume With careful analysis and interpretation of the Greek text the authors trace the flow of argument in each New Testament book giving readers the tools they need to properly understand and communicate the meaning of the text Commentary on each passage follows a clear structure to help readers grasp the flow and meaning of the text Literary Context A brief discussion of how the passage functions in the broader literary context of the book Main Idea A one or two sentence statement of the big idea or central thrust of the passage Translation and Graphical Layout Presents each commentator's translation of the Greek text in a graphical layout to help the reader visualize and thus better understand the flow of thought within the text Structure Describes the flow of thought in the passage and explains how certain interpretive decisions regarding the relationship of the clauses were made in the passage Exegetical Outline The overall structure of the passage is described in a detailed exegetical outline This will be particularly helpful for those who are looking for a way to concisely explain the flow of thought in the passage in a teaching or preaching setting Explanation of the Text Commentators examine words and images grammatical details relevant Old Testament and Jewish background to a particular concept historical and cultural context important text critical issues and various interpretive issues that surface Theology in Application The theological message of the passage is summarized The author discusses the theology of the text in terms of its place within the book and in a broader biblical theological context Finally each commentator provides some suggestions on what the message of the passage is for the church today The Zondervan Exegetical Commentary on the New Testament series is the go to resource for pastors and Bible teachers looking for deep but accessible study that equips them to connect the needs of Christians today with the biblical text Signs of Change Anthony Bartlett, 2022-03-11 The Bible has many stories but really there are only two There is a story of violent humanity and there is the story of a self giving nonviolent God The question has been how to distinguish the two without creating a toxic dualism Bartlett shows that the narratives in tension are not two opposed Testaments even less two metaphysical principles but the slow separating out of nonviolent revelation from the frame of violent meaning by which human beings have always signified themselves and their gods In his prior ground laying book Theology Beyond Metaphysics Bartlett demonstrated the concept of semiotic change and how it emerges as the most appropriate way of understanding and affirming a relational shift in human and theological meaning In this present work he supplies a rich seam of biblical evidence with gripping essays on Old Testament books and their evolution of transformative signs and new meaning Accounts of the life of Jesus and the teaching of Paul make the change exponential bringing to definitive expression the inbreaking of the nonviolent divine Signs of Change creates a theological masterstroke showing step by step how semiotic evolution leads human existence to the truly saving knowledge of a nonviolent God The Gospel in the Dock Bryan M. Christman, 2021-08-10 C S Lewis famously penned the phrase God in the Dock and proposed that there was a great divide between ancient and modern humans in that our ancestors would have rightly seen themselves in the dock before God while we moderns have placed God there before us But what if what God s love most desires for us the gospel or good news of the only way of life for humanity has been in the dock before us from the time of Adam and Eve And what if it is also the case that the gospel is often in the dock as though it is not good even for the church This book builds upon and expands the life and death stakes Lewis proposed by demonstrating that the gospel way of faith itself has been placed in the dock by us and in many ways ruined our relationships with God with our own selves with one another and even with the natural world itself which we are meant to steward for its good In these pages the reader will discover why the gospel that requires faith is good news but why we so tragically default to our divisive and self destructive ways The Spirit of Atonement Steven M. Studebaker, 2021-01-14 Steven M Studebaker proposes a Pentecostal approach to a major Christian doctrine the atonement The book moves Pentecostal theology of the atonement from a primarily Christocentric and crucicentric register to one that articulates the pneumatological and holistic nature of Pentecostal praxis Studebaker examines the irony of Classical Pentecostalism relying on the Christocentrism of Protestantism evangelical atonement theology to articulate its experience of the Holy Spirit as well as the Pneumatological nature of Pentecostal praxis He then develops a Pentecostal theology of atonement based on the biblical narrative of the Spirit of Pentecost and returns to re imagine an expanded vision of Pentecostal praxis based on the theological formation of the biblical narrative The result is a Pentecostal atonement theology that shows the integrated nature of pneumatology creation and Christology in the biblical narrative of redemption It gives theological expression to not only the pneumatological nature of Pentecostal praxis but also the fundamental role of the Holy Spirit in the biblical narrative of redemption The book challenges popular western atonement theologies to re think their Christocentrism and crucicentrism as well as their atomistic tendency to separate soteriology into objective Christological and subjective pneumatological categories The Bible and Baptism (A Catholic Biblical Theology of the Sacraments) Isaac Augustine OP

Morales,2022-08-02 This addition to A Catholic Biblical Theology of the Sacraments series provides readers with a deeper appreciation of God's gifts and call in the Sacraments through a renewed encounter with God's Word New Testament scholar Isaac Morales OP offers a biblical theology of the initiatory rite of baptism that will be interesting and informative to the church catholic Morales provides a synthetic biblical account of the sacrament of baptism rooted in the rich water symbolism of the Old Testament and finding its full flourishing in baptismal participation in the saving events of Christ's passion death and resurrection as described in the New Testament This book provides lay teachers with background and depth on topics taught frequently in the parish making it suitable for classroom use and parish ministry The series editors are Timothy C Gray and John Sehorn Gray is president of the Augustine Institute which has one million subscribers to its online content channel Formed.org Gray and Sehorn both teach at the Augustine Institute Graduate School of Theology which prepares students for Christian mission through on campus and distance education programs Christ and the Created Order

Zondervan,2018-05-08 According to the Christian faith Jesus Christ is the ultimate revelation not only of the nature of God the Creator but also of how God the Creator relates to the created order The New Testament explicitly relates the act of creation to the person of Jesus Christ who is also a participant within creation and who is said by his acts of participation to have secured creation's ultimate redemption from the problems which presently afflict it Christian theology proposes that Jesus Christ the incarnate Word and Wisdom of God the agent in whom the Spirit of God is supremely present among us is the rationale and the telos of all things time space as we experience and explore it nature and all its enigmas matter itself Christology is thus utterly fundamental to a theology of creation as this is unfolded both in Scripture and in early Christian theology For all this the contemporary conversation about science and faith tends to a remarkable degree to neglect the significance of Jesus Christ focusing instead on a generic God of wonder or God of natural theology Such general theism is problematic from the perspective of Christian theology on many levels and has at times led to a more or less deistic theology the impression that God has created the world then largely left it to itself Such a theology is far removed from classical Christian renderings of creation providence redemption and eschatology According to these the theology of creation is not just about remote beginnings or the distant acts of a divine originator Rather the incarnate Jesus Christ is himself remarkably the means and the end for which creation itself exists If we would think aright about our world study it and live within it wisely we must reckon centrally with his significance What might such a bold claim possibly mean and why is Jesus Christ said by Christian theology to be so important for understanding God's overall relationship to the created order What does this importance mean for science Christ and the Created Order addresses these questions by gathering insights from biblical scholars theologians historians philosophers and scientists This interdisciplinary collection of essays reflects on the significance of Jesus Christ for understanding the created world particularly as that world is observed by the natural sciences Contributors to Christ and the Created Order include Marilyn McCord Adams Richard Bauckham Deborah Haarsma Paul Moser Murray Rae James K A Smith Norman Wirzba N T Wright and more

Jesus' Crucifixion Beatings and the Book of Proverbs David H. Wenkel, 2016-12-22 This study takes a Christian perspective on the entire Bible rather than simply the New Testament David Wenkel asks Why did Jesus have to be beaten before his death on the cross Christian theology has largely focused on Jesus' death but has given relatively little attention to his sufferings Wenkel's answer contextualizes Jesus' crucifixion sufferings as informed by the language of Proverbs He explains that Jesus' sufferings demonstrate the wisdom of God's plan to provide a substitute for foolish sinners Jesus was beaten as a fool even though he was no fool in order to fulfill God's loving plan of salvation This analysis is then placed within the larger storyline of the whole Bible from the Garden of Eden to the story of Israel and beyond

Justification, Volume 2 Michael Horton, 2018-11-27 The second of a two-volume project delving into the doctrine of justification Michael Horton seeks not simply to recover a clear message of its role in modern Reformed theology but also to bring a fresh discovery of the gospel in a time when contemporary debates around justification have reignited The doctrine of justification stands at the center of our systematic reflection on the meaning of salvation and grace as well as our piety mission and life together And yet within mainline Protestant and evangelical theology it's often taken for granted or left to gather dust in favor of modern concerns and self-renewal Volume 2 embarks on the theologically constructive task of investigating the biblical doctrine of justification in light of contemporary exegesis Taking up the topic from a variety of theological vantage points Horton engages with contemporary debates in biblical especially Pauline scholarship Part 1 draws out The Horizon of Justification from the Old Testament narratives of Adam and Israel Part 2 defines The Achievement of Justification in the blood of Christ and seeks to lay the groundwork for understanding its extent Part 3 focuses on The Gift of Righteousness delving into a clear articulation of what justification means its mechanism and the role of works on the day of judgement Part 4 proposes a way forward for Receiving Justification and understanding faith and justification within the broader framework of union with Christ Engaging and thorough Justification shows that the doctrine of justification finds its most ecumenically significant starting point and proper habitat in unity with Christ where the greatest consensus past and present is to be found among Orthodox Roman Catholic and Protestant theologies
