National Defence Force Annual Report ,1994 Sharing the Secret Nicholas van der Bijl,2013-12-16 While written under the auspices of the Trustees of the Military Intelligence Museum Sharing the Secret is not an academic regimental history Rather it gives a privileged glimpse into a necessarily publicity shy organization that has been deeply involved in military intelligence operations since its inception in 1940 through to 2010 Understandably little has been written about the Corps work for Official Secret reasons The development of Field Security and Protective Security and measures taken to protect the Army for espionage sabotage subversion and terrorism in peace and war are examined These tasks were particularly important during the de Nazification of Germany during the aftermath of the Second World War Field Security led to the successful arrest of leading Nazis including Himmler and Doenitz The author who served in the Corps for over 20 years and saw active service in Northern Ireland and the Falklands gives fascinating examples of differing Intelligence techniques in action These include the exploitation of Imagery Interpretation

Human Intelligence including the interrogation of prisoners of war the examination of enemy documents and the deployment of Signals Intelligence so that commanders have enough information to fight the battles The support the Intelligence Corps gave to the Special Operations Executive during the Second World War is well covered as are examples of Special Duties since 1945 The reader will appreciate that as with any work relating to national intelligence and security Sharing the Secret has been written under the restrictions of the era That said it provides a long overdue insight into the contribution of members of the Intelligence Corps over seventy years of war and peace As featured in Burnham Highbridge News Salut ,2001 The Armed Forces Covenant in action? Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Defence Committee,2013-07-18 A series of Ofsted inspections on Army Apprenticeships conducted in 2013 rated the overall effectiveness as good This was an improvement over the last inspection in 2009 rated as satisfactory now called requires improvement Some 28 per cent of Army recruits were less than 18 years of age Further information is needed on why the Army is so dependent on recruiting personnel under the age of 18 years compared to the other two Services and whether steps are being taken to reduce this dependency Of those recruited in 2012 3 5 per cent of the Army were rated at entry level 2 for literacy that of a 7 to 8 year old and 39 per cent had a literacy level of an eleven year old If as the MoD states it has to recruit personnel at whatever level of attainment is available then it should boost remedial action when recruitment entry standards are particularly low In light of changes brought about by Future Force 2020 it may be that recruiting personnel with higher levels of attainment would better meet the future needs of the Armed Forces Whilst the Committee recognises that some recruits may not be eager to take further academic exams the MoD should encourage more recruits to undertake English and Maths GCSEs which would stand them in good stead for future employment The MoD has carried out some useful pilot projects with paramedic training and should identify more potential projects to ensure that vital skills paid for by the MoD are not lost to the country Journal of Education ,1929 Recruiting and Retaining Armed Forces Personnel Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons. Defence Committee,2008 Recruiting retaining the right number of well trained personnel is vital for the continuing success of the United Kingdom s Armed Forces Yet recruitment and retention targets are not being met There is particular concern about shortages in pinchpoint trades trades or areas of expertise where there is not enough trained strength to perform operational tasks without encroaching on the time provided between deployments for recuperation training and leave This report sets out to examine the factors which hamper recruitment and retention in the Armed Forces and reservists identify what the MoD is doing to improve these There is also concern and examination of the issue of why ethnic minority personnel form such a low proportion of the Armed Forces Recruitment and Retention in the Armed Forces Great Britain: National Audit Office,2006-11-03 This two volume NAO report examines the recruitment and retention of armed forces personnel As of July 2006 the trained strength of the armed forces stood at around 180 690 with an estimated shortfall of 5 170 against the Departments requirement Overall the armed forces are not in manning balance with the figures masking a wider shortage of trained personnel within a range of specific trade groups across all three services All three services expect to be within manning balance by April 2008 though historically the services have consistently run below the full manning requirement The NAO has identified 88 operational pinch point trades where there is insufficient trained strength to perform operational tasks The report sets out a number of conclusions and recommendations including that the Department should review overall manning requirements within individual operational pinch points and also develop guidelines on the expected levels of voluntary outflow for individual operational pinch points regular surveys of personnel should be carried out focusing on factors that reduce retention the Department should also assess the impact of the work life balance and the extent to which breaches of individual harmony may be understated further the Department should look to investigate measures to provide greater stability and certainty of work patterns for personnel between operational deployments also that a cost effective analysis should be conducted on the payment of financial retention incentives and the impact on decisions to continue serving in the armed forces the Department should also review the scope of schemes which provide opportunities to offer competitive salaries and consider the recruitment to a wider range of trades than is currently the practice the Department should also develop a clear order of priority for the wide range of long term projects it has planned and commit to firm timescales and funding programmes for the most important A companion volume HC 1633 II session 2005 06 ISBN 0102943575 is available separately which contains case studies and detailed survey results Parliamentary Debates New Zealand. New People Strategies for the British Armed Forces Alex Alexandrou,Richard Bartle,Richard Holmes,2002 Based upon an ongoing series of conferences and seminars dealing with human resource management in the British armed forces this study proposes new ways of tackling one of the most contentious of issues facing the military today Violence in Southern Africa William Gutteridge,J.E. Spence,2013-07-23 Violence in southern Africa has occurred in a variety of modes including ethnic confrontation liberation struggles and cross border aggression and crime This volume examines the degree to which violence however defined has influenced political change across the region The contributions include analyses of the ramifications of violent disorder in Angola and Mozambique the impact on the political economy of both states and the prospects for lasting peace following the end of civil war An Enemy of the Crown David Burke,2022-09-30 In the early 1970s Sir Maurice Oldfield of the British Secret Service MI6 embarked upon a decade long campaign to derail the political career of Charles Haughey The English spymaster believed Haughey was a Provisional IRA godfather therefore a threat to Britain Oldfield was assisted by unscrupulous British agents and by a shadowy group of conspirators inside the Irish state s security apparatus all sharing his distrust of Haughey Escaping scrutiny for their actions until now Enemy of the Crown examines more than a dozen instances of their activities Oldfield was conspiratorial by nature and lacked a moral compass

Involved in regime change plots and torture in the Middle East in the Republic of Ireland he engaged with convicted criminals as agent provocateurs as well as the exploitation of pedophile rings in Northern Ireland He and his spies engaged in dirty tricks as they ran vicious smear campaigns in Ireland Britain and the US MI6 and IRD intrigues were deployed to impede Haughey's bid to secure a position on Fianna Fáil's front bench and any return to respectability London's hateful drive against Haughey saw no let up after Fianna Fáil's triumphal return to power in 1977 which saw them win a large majority of seats in the Dáil When Haughey sought a place at Cabinet Oldfield and his spies devised more dirty tricks to impede him While Haughey was suspicious of MI6 interference he had no inkling of the full extent of London's clandestine efforts to destroy him By circulating lurid stories about him they played a major part in trying to prevent him succeed Jack Lynch as Taoiseach in 1979 This book attempts to shed light on some of the anti Haughey conspiracies which took place during the period of the late 1960s right through to the early 1980s SAMT,1982 Canadian Forces Sentinel,1970
