Venanzio Rauzzini and the Birth of a New Style in English Singing Brianna E. Robertson-Kirkland, 2022-01-31 Since the eighteenth century the one to one singing lesson has been the most common method of delivery The scenario allows the teacher to familiarise and individualise the lesson to suit the needs of their student however it can also lead to speculation about what is taught More troubling is the heightened risk of gossip and rumour with the private space generating speculation about the student teacher relationship Venanzio Rauzzini 1746 1810 an Italian castrato living in England who became a highly sought after singing master was particularly susceptible since his students tended to be women whose moral character was under more scrutiny than their male counterparts Even so in 1792 The Bath Chronicle proclaimed the Italian castrato the father of a new style in English singing Branding Rauzzini as a founder of an English style was not an error but indicative of deep seated anxieties about the Italian invasion on England s musical culture This book places teaching at the centre of the socio historical narrative and provides unique insight into musical culture Using a microhistory approach this study is the first to focus in on the impact of teaching and casts new light on issues of celebrity culture gender and nationalism in Georgian England

Ecclesiology Guy Mansini, OSB,2021-01-08 The first part of the book explains the antecedent probability both of revelation and of God s institution of a church It is ecclesiology in the mode of fundamental theology The second part rounds up what Scripture and Tradition teach about the Church under the heads of the People of God the Temple of the Holy Spirit the Bride of Christ and the Body of Christ The chapters present this thematic material under each head as a unified whole across the Testaments with each chapter keyed to one of the marks of the Church the catholicity of the people of God the apostolicity of the ministers of the messianic temple the holiness of the Bride of Christ and the unity of the Body of Christ This already organizes things in a proto systematic frame The third part of the book gives systematic exploration in reverse order to the unity of the Church with attention to non Catholic ecclesial communities and churches to the holiness of the Church objective and subjective to the apostolicity of the Church and her mediation of revealed truth and grace and to the catholicity of the Church with attention to non Christian religions The center of the book on the definition of the Church as the sacrament of communion renders recent French Dominican ecclesiology in a form more accessible to undergraduates and seminarians rooting it in the New Testament teachings on communion and mysterion The book concludes with a strenuous argument for the necessity of the Church and her mission of evangelization Thus the trajectory of the book is from the naturally knowable antecedent probability of the Church to its revealed necessity

McBride, 2023-01-31 This book is not about leadership at least in the way we normally think about it Leadership is not about position or authority It's not about big speeches or grand visions Leadership is engaging others to solve daunting challenges Those challenges appear in our professional lives in our communities our families and they seem unsolvable beyond our ability to see what needs to be done or outside our capacity to make the changes needed They are not Because leadership is an activity small actions taken in moments of opportunity And as you start to look around you can begin to see more of those moments seize the opportunity in those moments Most importantly you can help others see those opportunities too That's why everyone can lead and the real power to solve our most important challenges is when everyone leads Italian Sign Language from a Cognitive and Socio-semiotic Perspective Virginia Volterra, Maria Roccaforte, Alessio Di Renzo, Sabina Fontana, 2022-09-01 This volume reveals new insights on the faculty of language By proposing a new approach in the analysis and description of Italian Sign Language LIS that can be extended also to other sign languages this book also enlightens some aspects of spoken languages which were often overlooked in the past and only recently have been brought to the fore and described First the study of face to face communication leads to a revision of the traditional dichotomy between linguistic and enacted to develop a new approach to embodied language Kendon 2004 Second all structures of language take on a sociolinguistic and pragmatic meaning as proposed by cognitive semantics which considers it impossible to trace a separation between purely linguistic and extralinguistic knowledge Finally if speech from the point of view of its materiality is variable fragile and non segmentable i.e. not systematically discrete also signs are not always segmentable into discrete invariable and meaningless units This then calls into question some of the properties traditionally associated with human languages in general notably that of duality of patterning These are only some of the main issues you will find in this volume that has no parallel both in sign and in spoken languages linguistic research The Year-book of Education for 1878 [and 1879], 1878

Land Air Sea Jennifer Ferng, Lauren Jacobi, 2023-12-14 Land Air Sea Architecture and Environment in the Early Modern Era positions the long Renaissance and eighteenth century as being vital for understanding how many of the concerns present in contemporary debates on climate change and sustainability originated in earlier centuries Traversing three physical and intellectual domains Land Air Sea consists of case studies examining how questions of environmentalism were formulated in early modern architecture and the built environment Addressing emergent technologies indigenous cultural beliefs natural philosophy and political statecraft this book aims to recast our modernist conceptions of what buildings are by uncovering early modern epistemologies that redefined human impact on the habitable world
