Delacroix And The Matter Of Finish:

Delacroix and the Matter of Finish Eik Kahng, Marc Gotlieb, Michèle Hannoosh, 2013 This groundbreaking publication centers on a previously unknown variation of Eugène Delacroix's 1798-1863 dramatic masterpiece The Last Words of the Emperor Marcus Aurelius published here for the first time This book offers a compelling reassessment of the relationship of the artist widely considered a primary exemplar of Romanticism to Neoclassical themes as demonstrated by his life-long fascination with the death of Marcus Aurelius Through this investigation the authors reinterpret Delacroix's lineage to such fellow artists as Jean Auguste Dominique Ingres 1780-1867 and Jacques Louis David 1748-1825 Playing on the various interpretations of the word finish the book also offers a fascinating account of Delacroix's famously troubled collaboration with his studio assistants his conflicted feelings about pedagogy and his preoccupation with the fate of civilizations Distributed for the Santa Barbara Museum of Art Exhibition Schedule Santa Barbara Museum of Art 10/27/13 01/26/14

Delacroix's Moroccans Jennifer Olmsted, 2025-04-08 The Women of Algiers in Their Apartment is arguably Eugène Delacroix's best known work from his trip to Morocco in 1832 and the attention scholars have paid to it has obscured a crucial fact about Delacroix's Moroccan subjects most of his paintings of North Africa depict men rather than women After serving as a diplomat's companion on a mission to Morocco Delacroix went on to devote over three quarters of his massive North African oeuvre to the military prowess effective leadership equestrian virtuosity and elegant dress of Moroccan men Using the evidence of his writings sketches and paintings Olmsted argues that rather than embodying a typical colonialist fantasy Delacroix's paintings of Moroccan men instead show his subjects as models of heroic masculinity and political sovereignty a position that ran counter to prevailing French attitudes toward North Africans In this way Delacroix's Moroccans intervenes in the discourse of imperialism to examine the multiple heterogeneous features of cultural response and provides nuanced readings of the artist's work that support the idea that European constructions of non-European cultures were not monolithic Olmsted's multifaceted analysis creates a powerful and original understanding of Delacroix's Moroccan oeuvre and a counternarrative to the colonialist imagery of his era Through close attention to Delacroix's paintings drawings and writings as well as their historical and political contexts this book illuminates the artist's practice and offers a fresh avenue for assessing colonialism and art produced within colonial contexts Cezanne and the End of Impressionism Richard Shiff, 1984 Drawing on a broad foundation in the history of nineteenth-century French art Richard Shiff offers an innovative interpretation of Cézanne's painting He shows how Cézanne's style met the emerging criteria of a technique of originality and how it satisfied critics sympathetic to symbolism as well as to impressionism Expanding his study of the interaction of Cézanne and his critics Shiff considers the problem of modern art in general He locates the core of modernism in a dialectic of making technique and finding originality Ultimately Shiff provides not only clarifying accounts of impressionism and symbolism but of a modern classicism as well Federal Register, 2013-09 Art World and Arts &

Gedo, 2013-05-13 This new hardcover annual offers a unique scholarly format an interdisciplinary dialogue that it is hoped will foster the development of a sound useful methodology for applying psychoanalytic insight to art and artists The series provides a medium for those who study art those who interpret it and occasionally those who create it formally to explore the meaning of an artistic work as the direct reflection of the inner world of its creator Within each volume individual topics are addressed by either an art historian or a psychoanalyst with a response frequently tendered by an expert from the other field Reviews of important books of cross disciplinary interest are treated in a similar manner and include rebuttals by the authors themselves It is precisely this exchange of ideas among scholars with difference perspectives on the meaning of a work of art that sets PPA apart from the standard art history publication Its depth of scholarship coupled with its innovative format make it a fascinating addition to the burgeoning field of psychoanalytic studies of art history For the Love of Beauty Arthur Pontynen, 2017-07-05 For most of the last century the methodology of art history has followed a positivist approach emphasizing form and style fact and history as the means of studying works of art By contrast the philosophical pursuit of truth once central to the fine arts and humanities has largely been abandoned In For The Love of Beauty Arthur Pontynen offers a searching and ambitious critique of modern aesthetic practice that aims to restore the pursuit of the knowledge of reality Being to its rightful place Pontynen begins by addressing the question of why the pursuit of truth be it called Dao Dharma God Logos Ideal etc is no longer acceptable in academic circles even though it has been intrinsic to the purpose of art at most times and in most cultures Lacking the pursuit of truth of some degree of knowledge of what is true and good the humanities necessarily lack intellectual and cultural grounding and purpose Fields of study such as philosophy music art and history are therefore trivialized and brutalized Pontynen s focus on the study of the visual arts details the how the denial of purpose and quality in modernist and postmodernist aesthetics has denied art any possibility of transcending entertainment therapy or propaganda In place of the established narratives Pontynen offers a counter narrative based on a cross cultural pursuit of the good the true and the beautiful He recognizes that substantively different cultural traditions exist and that the truth claims of each may be valid in whole or in part He shows how the history of art parallels the intellectual history of Western culture and how these parallels affect both aesthetics and ethics Pontynen engages with those elements of modernist and postmodernist thought that might be true His purpose is not simply to deny their validity but to engage a viewpoint that does not privilege the notion of a purposeless cosmos For the Love of Beauty will be of interest Romantik 2020 Gísli Magnússon, Benedikt Hjartarson, Thor J.
