The Philosophy of Sex Raja Halwani, Jacob M. Held, Natasha McKeever, Alan Soble, 2022-02-28 With twenty five essays seven of which are new to the eighth edition this best selling volume examines the nature morality and social meanings of contemporary sexual phenomena Topics include sexual desire and activity masturbation Sexual orientation asexuality transgender issues Zoophilia rape casual sex and promiscuity love and sex polyamory sexual consent sexual perversion sexual ethics objectification BDSM sex and technology sex and race and sex work Updated and new discussion questions offer students starting points for debate in both the classroom and the bedroom      Dangerous Acquaintances Marianne Faithfull,      The General's Mistress Jo Graham, 2012-10-23 A Dutch woman flees her marriage to become a courtesan against the backdrop of the French Revolution in this steamy historical novel described as Girl with a Pearl Earring meets Dangerous Liaisons Libert Egalit Sensualit As a spirit of change overturns Europe's old order strong willed Elzelina Versfelt enters her own age of revolution Married as a romantic young girl to a man who wanted only her money but neither loves nor desires her Elza refuses to be chained any longer Leaving Amsterdam her marriage and her home she flees to France where the old rules no longer apply debauchery is not a sin and nothing is forbidden Yet Elza finds herself bound in a new way to the ambitious General Moreau And while they share pleasure pain and carnal adventures she dreams of another man an unruly red haired soldier she first saw in the promise of a Tarot card Drawn by this half real half imagined hero Elza defies her relationship with Moreau and begins a perilous search across war torn Europe But will this woman with the instincts of a survivor the passion of a courtesan and the gift of second sight ever find the destiny for which she has risked it all This stunning novel blends history with the language of the heart to tell a sensual story of an era of upheaval and of the clamoring dangerous desires of a woman's soul      The Reform Advocate , 1916      Selling Beauty Morag Martin, 2009-10-05 An enjoyable history of the French cosmetic industry and the evolution of beauty standards and commercial culture during a revolutionary era European History Quarterly As the French citizenry rebelled against the excesses of the aristocracy there was a parallel shift in consumer beauty practices Powdered wigs alabaster white skin and rouged cheeks disappeared in favor of a more natural and simple style Selling Beauty challenges expectations about past fashions and offers a unique look into consumer culture and business practices Morag Martin introduces readers to the social and economic world of cosmetic production and consumption recounts criticisms against the use of cosmetics from a variety of voices and examines how producers and retailers responded to quickly evolving fashions Martin shows that the survival of the industry depended on its ability to find customers among the emerging working and middle classes But the newfound popularity of cosmetics raised serious questions Critics from radical philosophes to medical professionals complained that the use of cosmetics was a threat to social morals and questioned the healthfulness of products that contained arsenic mercury and lead Cosmetic producers embraced these withering criticisms though skillfully addressing these concerns in their marketing campaigns reassuring consumers of the moral and physical safety of their products Rather than disappearing along with the Old Regime the commerce of cosmetics reimagined and redefined flourished in the early nineteenth century as political ideals and Enlightenment philosophies radically altered popular sentiment

Wanderings of a Pilgrim in Search of the Picturesque (Complete) Fanny Parkes Parlby, 2020-09-28 In April 1822 Monsieur mon mari took me to Switzerland For the first time I quitted England How beautiful was the Valley of Chamouni how delightful our expedition on the La Fleg re The guides pronounced it too early in the year to attempt the ascent of Mont Blanc We quitted the valley with regret and returned to Geneva but our plans were frustrated and our hopes disappointed for on reaching the hotel we found a letter requiring our instant return to England The Marchioness of Ely in which we had taken our passage to Bengal was reported to be ready to sail in a few days no time was to be lost we started immediately travelled night and day incessantly and arrived greatly harassed in town The illness brought on by the over fatigue of that journey never quitted me for years The vessel however was merely preparing for her departure and did not sail until long after Happily the pain of separation from the beloved home of my childhood was broken by the necessity of exertion in preparation for the voyage June 13th We went to Gravesend to see the ship it was scarcely possible to enter our destined abode the larboard stern cabin so full was it to overflowing boxes of clothes hampers of soda water crates of china and glass a marvellous confusion After a time the hampers and boxes were carried below the furniture cleated and lashed and some sort of order was established We had carefully selected a ship that was not to carry troops we now found the Ely had been taken up to convey four troops of H M 16th Lancers the remainder of the regiment was to sail in the General Hewitt Some of our fellow passengers were on board on the same errand as ourselves June 18th We had lingered with our friends and had deferred the sad farewell until the last moment half uncertain if we should be in time to catch the ship in the Downs we posted to Deal took refuge at the Three Kings and had the satisfaction of watching the Marchioness of Ely and the Winchelsea her companion as they bore down At 11 P M we went on board and sailed the next day There was such a glorious confusion on deck that those who were novices in military and naval affairs might deem as they gazed around it could never subside into any thing approaching order Every one however was saying it would be very different when the ship was at sea of which indeed there was little doubt for to go on as we were would have been impossible Off the Isle of Wight the pilot left us to our captain s guidance the breeze was favourable we were sailing so smoothly there was scarcely any motion The last farewell tears dropped as I passed the Needles and the coast of Hampshire whilst memory recalled the happy days I had spent there and in the Forest the beautiful Forest Such thoughts and feelings it was necessary to throw aside I joined the party in the cuddy scrutinized the strange faces and retired to my cabin with as solitary a feeling as if my husband and I had been exiles for ever The voyage began prosperously I was satisfied with the captain with my cabin with my servant and happy with my lord and master We regretted we had taken our passage in a ship full of troops and anticipated we should be debarred taking exercise on the quarter deck and enjoying ourselves with walk and talk during the fine moonlight nights In the Ely it appeared as if it would be impossible were you to attempt it you would be sure to blunder over some sleeping Lancer However the band was on board some small consolation and as the society was large there was more chance of entertainment

Methodist Church on the Prairies, 1896-1914 George Emery, 2001-05-03 The Methodist Church met the challenge with a centralized polity and a cross class gender variegated evolving religious culture It relied on wealthy laymen to raise special funds while small gifts fed its regular funds Young bachelors from Ontario and Britain filled the pastorate although low pay inexperience and poor supervision caused many to quit Membership growth was slow due to low population density and church resistant elements in the Methodist population bachelors immigrant co religionists and transients and missions to non Anglo Saxon immigrants in Winnipeg Edmonton and rural Alberta spread Methodist values but gained few members In The Methodist Church on the Prairies 1896 1914 the first scholarly study of church history in the prairie region George Emery uses quantitative methods and social interpretation to show that the Methodist Church was a cross class institution with a dynamic evangelical culture not a middle class institution whose culture was undergoing secularization He demonstrates that the Methodist s achievement on the prairies was impressive and compared favourably with what Presbyterians and Anglicans achieved

Breeding Bio Insecurity Lynn C. Klotz, Edward J. Sylvester, 2009-10-15 In the years since the 9 11 attacks and the subsequent lethal anthrax letters the United States has spent billions of dollars on measures to defend the population against the threat of biological weapons But as Lynn C Klotz and Edward J Sylvester argue forcefully in Breeding Bio Insecurity all that money and effort hasn t made us any safer in fact it has made us more vulnerable Breeding Bio Insecurity reveals the mistakes made to this point and lays out the necessary steps to set us on the path toward true biosecurity The fundamental problem with the current approach according to the authors is the danger caused by the sheer size and secrecy of our biodefense effort Thousands of scientists spread throughout hundreds of locations are now working with lethal bioweapons agents but their inability to make their work public causes suspicion among our enemies and allies alike even as the enormous number of laboratories greatly multiplies the inherent risk of deadly accidents or theft Meanwhile vital public health needs go unmet because of this new biodefense focus True biosecurity the authors argue will require a multipronged effort based in an understanding of the complexity of the issue guided by scientific ethics and watched over by a vigilant citizenry attentive to the difference between fear mongering and true analysis of risk An impassioned warning that never loses sight of political and scientific reality Breeding Bio Insecurity is a crucial first step toward meeting the evolving threats of the twenty first century
