Kaywell,2016-09-23 Michael Anthony 20 year reading workshop practitioner at the secondary level and Joan Kaywell acclaimed author and advocate for young adult literature in learning present Between the Lines a creative paradigm shift for the English Language Arts workshop classroom In contrast to the traditional sustained silent reading and individual conferencing model an impractical commitment for most teachers BtL invites collaborative engagement and active inquiry among students as well as on demand writing and integrated YA literature all designed to support existing middle and secondary level ELA classroom curriculum instruction and national academic learning standards while empowering English educators toward improved student literacy achievement and the creation of lifelong readers The classroom activities with student friendly names like Book Chat Check and Pop Goes the Question promote animated discussions in social learning contexts and produce writings supported by textual evidence from student selected texts Clear step by step directions for facilitation and authentic models of resulting student writing are shared along with a standards based lesson plan suitable for grades 6 12 Ongoing teacher student journal conversations validate independent reader thought processes and provoke differentiated learning experiences The book includes Common Core State Standards based strategies for responding to students meaningfully and for inviting extensions beyond the book motivating increasingly complex and connective writings Sample dialogue journal entries are shared along with insightful commentary and practical analysis Everything needed for implementing Between the Lines is contained within these pages including a user friendly appendix filled with fully reproduceable classroom workshop materials tips for reducing the teacher reading and writing loads and suggestions for building an enviable classroom library stocked with award winning adolescent literature      Fire from the Rock Sharon Draper,2008-09-18 Sylvia is shocked and confused when she is asked to be one of the first black students to attend Central High School which is scheduled to be integrated in the fall of 1957 whether people like it or not Before Sylvia makes her final decision smoldering racial tension in the town ignites into flame When the smoke clears she sees clearly that nothing is going to stop the change from coming It is up to her generation to make it happen in as many different ways as there are colors in the world      Forged by Fire Sharon M. Draper, 2013-07-23 When Gerald was a child he was fascinated by fire But fire is dangerous and tragedy strikes The one bright light in Gerald's life is his little half sister Angel whom he struggles to protect from her abusive father Gerald finds success on the Hazelwood Tigers basketball team and Angel develops her talents as a dancer despite the trouble that still haunts them      November Blues Sharon M. Draper, 2009-05-19 A teenaged boy's death in a hazing accident has lasting effects on his pregnant girlfriend and his guilt-ridden cousin who gives up a promising music career to play football during his senior year in high school      When Loss Gets Personal Michelle M. Falter, Steven T. Bickmore, 2018-11-23 When Loss Gets Personal considers how secondary language arts teachers can thoughtfully teach literature in their classrooms in which personal deaths like suicide cancer and accidents are a significant aspect of the texts Each chapter focuses on texts and provides activities that ask students to engage through writing activities and prompts      Tears of a Tiger Sharon M. Draper, 2013-07-23 The death of high school basketball star Rob Washington in an automobile accident affects the lives of his close friend Andy who was driving the car and many others in the school      The Perfect Norm Sandra Vavra, Sharon L. Spencer, 2009-02-01 Our goal in writing this book was to validate teachers for strong efforts in their life's work We often observe teachers' frustrations with what they perceive to be a multitude of different hot topics in education that they must attend to now but which they expect to come and go like the last hot topics So we wanted to help readers see similarities between many of these hot topics differentiation multiple intelligences culturally responsive teaching brain friendly strategies authentic assessment and ethical classroom management which we feel are not flashes in the pan And we trust that serious practitioners will not oversimplify the findings of neuroscientists and their application to education Reading studies and books by scientists a number of which are user friendly can help ensure that teachers separate the hype from credible information We have seen this professionally judicious approach in the work of graduate students Kolinski 2007 in adopting brain friendly strategies We have intentionally packed both theoretical research-based and practical information in this book because professional educators want to know why they should use certain approaches models and strategies In turn as professionals we should be able to explain why we teach the way we do not to justify but to educate others about our knowledge-based reflective decision-making processes and the impact on student learning Thus it is important to read Chapter 1 because it lays a foundation Each succeeding chapter 2-6 has unique and compelling twists and turns chock full of ideas to use or to adapt It is possible to gain lots of ideas processes and strategies from reading and implementing or adapting even one of the unit chapters or a part of it While some of the units are explicitly about literacy others focus on content using reading writing speaking and listening as critical in the learning process Thus literacy skills are reinforced and strengthened Additionally some of our colleagues and public school partners have given us feedback that they wanted to implement some of the units and activities themselves So feel free to use this book for self-exploration and professional development      100 Most Popular African American Authors Bernard A. Drew, 2006-11-30 Here's a one-stop resource containing 100 profiles of your favorite contemporary African American writers along with complete lists of their works. Focusing on writers who have made their mark in the past 25 years, this guide stresses African American writers of popular and genre literature from Rochelle Alers and Octavia Butler and Samuel Delaney to Walter Mosley and Omar Tyree, with a few classic literary giants also included. Short profiles provide an overview of the author's life and summarize his or her writing accomplishments. Many are accompanied by black and white photos of the author. The biographies are followed by a complete list of the author's published works. Where can you find information about popular contemporary African American authors? Web sites can be difficult to locate and unreliable, particularly for some of the newer authors, and their contents are inconsistent and often inaccurate. Although there are a number of reference works on African American writers, the emphasis tends to be on historical and literary authors. Here's a single volume containing 100 profiles of your favorite contemporary African American writers along with lists of their works. Short profiles provide an overview of the author's life and summarize his or her writing accomplishments. Many are accompanied by black and white photos of the author. The biographies are followed by a complete list of the author's published works. Focusing on writers who have made their mark in the past 25 years, this guide covers African American writers of popular and genre literature from Rochelle Alers, Octavia Butler, and Samuel Delaney to Walter Mosley, Omar Tyree, and Zane. A few classic literary giants who are popular with today's readers are also included, e.g., Maya Angelou, Toni Morrison, and Richard Wright. Readers who want to know more about their favorite African American authors or find other books written by those authors, students researching AA authors for reports and papers, and educators seeking background information for classes in African American literature will find this guide invaluable. High school and up      Teaching Young Adult Literature Today Judith A. Hayn, Jeffrey S. Kaplan, 2012 Teaching Young Adult Literature Today introduces the reader to what is current and relevant in the plethora of good books available for adolescents. More importantly, literary experts illustrate how teachers everywhere can help their students become lifelong readers by simply introducing them to great reads: smart, insightful, and engaging books that are specifically written for adolescents. Hayn, Kaplan, and their contributors address a wide range of topics: how to avoid common obstacles to using YAL; selecting quality YAL for classrooms while balancing these with curriculum requirements; engaging disenfranchised readers; pairing YAL with technology as an innovative way to teach curriculum standards across all content areas. Contributors also discuss more theoretical subjects such as the absence of lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and questioning LGBTQ young adult literature in secondary classrooms and contemporary YAL that responds to the changing expectations of digital generation readers who want to blur the boundaries between page and screen.
