language learning and are failing to motivate students as a result This book focuses on Asia where this shift has been particularly in evidence TBLT has often been implemented in top down approaches to curriculum development which presents a huge range of challenges at the cultural as well as the pedagogic level Contemporary Task Based Language Teaching in Asia looks at the drivers stakeholders and obstacles across the region Some countries have adapted TBLT to deal with the local constraints others have found it hard to apply and many are still in the process of investigating its implementation in their specific contexts This collection is important to all involved in language development from curriculum reform to materials development It assists from programme evaluation to the setting of assessment standards The chapters cover all aspects of language education across Asia from primary to tertiary private and public education as well as innovations at local regional and national levels

Student-Led Assessment Starr Sackstein, 2024-01-03 The single greatest authority on student learning is the student doing the learning but the right structures must be in place for students voices to be clearly heard and truly valued Conventional formative and summative assessment are most often conducted through one size fits all quizzes and tests that yield narrow predetermined categories of data about students academic progress But if we want a truly accurate look at what how and to what extent students are learning who better to consult than the obvious experts on the matter the students themselves In this lively and comprehensive guide veteran teacher and author Starr Sackstein provides the tools needed to help students compile and present evidence of learning through portfolios and student led conferences from templates and rubrics to personal testimonials reflection questions and activities The book features Forms applicable across grade levels and content areas for unpacking standards co constructing success criteria with students evaluating current classroom practices and more Real life perspectives and scenarios from educators in the field who have embraced portfolios and student led conferences over standardized tests and letter grades Practical experience based guidance for building classroom and schoolwide learning cultures that promote both learner agency and academic achievement The resources recommendations and reflections in Student Led Assessment allow educators at all levels to develop systems and protocols for ensuring student ownership of and pride in their own hard won achievement

Latin Notes , 1923 Beyond Outcomes Richard Haswell, 2001-05-30 Writing assessment programs help place entering and mid career students in composition courses at the appropriate level monitor the progress of those students and assist in placing them in writing courses throughout their undergraduate careers These same universities also have writing instruction programs which might include writing centers writing across the curriculum initiatives and freshman and advanced composition programs At many institutions though writing assessment is not necessarily considered fundamental to writing instruction and there is little communication between the assessment program and the composition program This book demonstrates that writing assessment and instruction programs may be successfully integrated The contributors analyze the development of the writing assessment and instruction program at Washington State University which is nationally recognized for its success In doing so they provide guidance to other institutions planning to develop similar integrated programs The volume argues that writing assessment and instruction should inform and influence each other that they should evolve together and that they should be developed locally By tracing the success of the WSU program the authors directly challenge the use of national packaged assessment programs such as standardized placement tests
