English In Malaysia Postcolonial And Beyond Linguistic Insights:

English in Malaysia Hajar Abdul Rahim,Shakila Abdul Manan,2014 This book is a collection of research based papers on the development of Malaysian English ME from the immediate post Independence period to the present The chapters chart the chronological linguistic as well as functional development of contemporary ME that provide new information on the variety beyond its identity as a postcolonial English   English in Southeast Asia Ee Ling Low,Azirah Hashim,2012-01-01 This volume provides a first systematic comprehensive account of English in Southeast Asia SEA based on current research by leading scholars in the field The volume first provides a systematic account of the linguistic features across all sub varieties found within each country It also has a section dedicated to the historical context and language planning policies to provide a background to understanding the development of the linguistic features covered in Part I and finally the vibrancy of the sociolinguistic and pragmatic realities that govern actual language in use in a wide variety of domains such as the law education popular culture electronic media and actual pragmatic encounters are also given due coverage This volume also includes an extensive bibliography of works on English in SEA thus providing a useful and valuable resource for language researchers linguists classroom educators policy makers and anyone interested in the topic of English in SEA or World Englishes as a whole   Before the Raj James Mulholland,2021-04-27 Anglo India s regional literature was both a practical and imaginative response to a pivotal period in the early colonialism of South Asia Awarded as Honorable Mention of the Louis Gottschalk Prize by the American Society for Eighteenth Century Studies ASECS Shortlisted for the Kenshur Prize by the Center for Eighteenth Century Studies Indiana University John Ben Snow Prize by the North American Conference on British Studies Marilyn Gaull Book Award by the Wordsworth Coleridge Association During the later decades of the eighteenth century a rapid influx of English speaking Europeans arrived in India with an interest in expanding the creation and distribution of anglophone literature At the same time a series of military political and economic successes for the British in Asia created the first global crisis to shepherd in an international system of national ideologies In this study of colonial literary production James Mulholland proposes that the East India Company was a central actor in the institutionalization of anglophone literary culture in India The EIC drew its employees from around the British Isles bringing together people with a wide variety of ethnic and national origins Its cultural infrastructure expanded from presses and newspapers to poetry collections letters paper making and selling circulating libraries and amateur theaters Recovering this rich archive of documents and activities Mulholland shows how regional reading and writing reflected the knotty geopolitical situation and the comingling of Anglo and Indian cultures at a moment when the subcontinent s colonial future was not yet clear He shows why Anglo Indian literary publics cohered during this period reexamining the relationship between writing in English and imperial power in a way that moves beyond the easy correspondence of literature as an instrument of empire Tracing regional and translocal links among Madras Calcutta Bombay and settlements surrounding the Bay of Bengal Before the Raj recovers a network of authors reading publics and corporate agents to demonstrate that anglophone literature adapted itself to geographical politics and social circumstances rather than being simply imitative of the works produced in the English metropole Mulholland introduces readers to figures like the Calcutta born Eyles Irwin the first man to sustain a literary career from India We also meet James Romney an army officer who wrote poems and plays including a stage adaptation of Tristram Shandy Alongside these men were anonymous female poets hailed as the harbingers of an anglo asiatic taste and captive adolescent Europeans who caught up in the conflict with southern India s last independent ruler Tipu Sultan were forcibly converted to Islam castrated and made to cross dress as dancing boys for Tipu s entertainment Revealing the vibrant literary culture that existed long before the characters of Rudyard Kipling s best known works Before the Raj reveals how these writers operated within a web of colonial cities and trading outposts that borrowed from one another and produced vital interlinked aesthetics The Oxford Handbook of Southeast Asian Englishes Andrew J. Moody,2024 This volume describes both the history and the contemporary forms functions and status of English in Southeast Asia The chapters provide a comprehensive overview of current research on a wide range of topics addressing the impact of English as a language of globalization and exploring new approaches to the spread of English in the region Kwéyòl in Postcolonial Saint Lucia Aonghas St-Hilaire,2011-09-15 Can historically marginalized threatened languages be saved in the contemporary global era In relation to the wider postcolonial world especially the Caribbean this book focuses on efforts to preserve and promote Lesser Antillean French Creole Kw y l as the national language of Saint Lucia and on the legacy of colonialism and impact of globalization with which English has become the universal lingua franca as mitigating factors undermining these efforts It deals specifically with language planning for democratization and government literacy the schools and higher education and the mass media It also examines changes in the status of and attitudes toward Kw y l English and French since national independence and presents language planning implications from these changes and steps already undertaken to elevate Kw y l The book offers new insight into globalization and its impact on linguistic pluralism language planning national development Creole languages and cultural identity in the Caribbean The Englishized Subject Kwok-kan Tam,2019-01-08 This book addresses issues of how the cultures in Hong Kong Singapore and Malaysia have been Englishized in postcolonial and globcalized contexts not just in terms of language but also in writers people s subjectivity Taking a cultural literary approach to the study of Englishized subjectivity the book offers a unique study of hybridized literary language forms by relating them to bilingual thinking and bicultural sensibility Poets novelists and playwrights have different strategies to cope with new images and new forms of expression that can capture their sense of hybridized identity and as a result hybridity becomes creativity Malaysian Crossings Cheow Thia Chan,2022-12-27 Malaysian Chinese Mahua literature is marginalized on several fronts In the international literary space which privileges the West Malaysia is considered remote The institutions of modern Chinese literature favor mainland China Taiwan and Hong Kong Within

Malaysia only texts in Malay the national language are considered national literature by the state However Mahua authors have produced creative and thought provoking works that have won growing critical recognition showing Malaysia to be a laboratory for imaginative Chinese writing Highlighting Mahua literature s distinctive mode of evolution Cheow Thia Chan demonstrates that authors grasp of their marginality in the world Chinese literary space has been the impetus for rather than a barrier to aesthetic inventiveness He foregrounds the historical links between Malaysia and other Chinese speaking regions tracing how Mahua writers engage in the worlding of modern Chinese literature by navigating interconnected literary spaces Focusing on writers including Lin Cantian Han Suyin Wang Anyi and Li Yongping whose works craft signature literary languages Chan examines narrative representations of multilingual social realities and authorial reflections on colonial Malaya or independent Malaysia as valid literary terrain Delineating the inter Asian crossings of Mahua literary production physical journeys interactions among social groups and mindset shifts from the 1930s to the 2000s he contends that new perspectives from the periphery are essential to understanding the globalization of modern Chinese literature By emphasizing the inner diversities and connected histories in the margins Malaysian Crossings offers a powerful argument for remapping global Chinese literature and world literature The Routledge Encyclopedia of Second Language Acquisition Peter Robinson,2012-08-21 The Routledge Encyclopedia of Second Language Acquisition offers a user friendly authoritative survey of terms and constructs that are important to understanding research in second language acquisition SLA and its applications The Encyclopedia is designed for use as a reference tool by students researchers teachers and professionals with an interest in SLA The Encyclopedia has the following features 252 alphabetized entries written in an accessible style including cross references to other related entries in the Encyclopedia and suggestions for further reading Among these 9 survey entries that cover the foundational areas of SLA in detail Development in SLA Discourse and Pragmatics in SLA Individual Differences in SLA Instructed SLA Language and the Lexicon in SLA Measuring and Researching SLA Psycholingustics of SLA Social and Sociocultural Approaches to SLA Theoretical Constructs in SLA The rest of the entries cover all the major subdisciplines methodologies and concepts of SLA from Accommodation to the ZISA project Written by an international team of specialists the Routledge Encyclopedia of Second Language Acquisition is an invaluable resource for students and researchers with an academic interest in SLA Linguistics and Language Behavior Abstracts ,2008 The Routledge Encyclopedia of Second Language Acquisition Peter Jake Robinson,2013 The Routledge Encyclopedia of Second Language Acquisition offers a user friendly authoritative survey of terms and constructs that are important to understanding research in second language acquisition SLA and its applications The Encyclopedia is designed for use as a reference tool by students researchers teachers and professionals with an interest in SLA The Encyclopedia has the following features 252 alphabetized entries written in an accessible style including cross references to other related entries in the Encyclopedia and suggestions for further reading Among these 9 survey entries that cover the
