

CIVIL WAR

A Nation Divided The American Civil War

-1861-1865-

For a period of four years in American history, there were two countries and two presidents of our great nation. From 1861-1865, our nation saw a division so deep that separated families and bloodlines. Join your fellow classmates on a journey back in time and discover what it was like as a citizen during this tumultuous time in American history. You will learn about the strengths and weaknesses of both sides, strategies of the war, the presidents and commanding Generals, how women impacted the war, famous battles and their outcomes, and the impact that the 13th-15th Amendments had on the citizens.
