As chaplain for the US Army's 102nd Evacuation Hospital in the European Theater Renwick C Kennedy Ren to those who knew him witnessed great courage extreme talent and many lives snatched from the precipice of death all under the most trying conditions He also observed drug and alcohol abuse prejudice narrow mindedness and chronic depression What he saw he chronicled in his journal and what he wrote he processed with an intellectual and ethical rigor born of his remarkably sophisticated worldview and his deeply held Christian faith With Kennedy's war diaries and postwar articles published in Christian Century and Time magazines in front of him historian Tennant McWilliams spent a year retracing every step every turn every location of the 102nd in wartime France Belgium Luxembourg and Germany compiling rich detail on this episode in Kennedy's life McWilliams's interviews with citizens of France and Luxembourg who recall the 102nd further revealed local people's reactions to the army hospital that illuminated both Kennedy's severe criticism and his enduring praise for evac life The result is a candid view of what went on in the World War II evac hospitals With a nuanced and gritty style The Chaplain's Conflict shatters the self interested and sometimes sentimental images of evacs held by some among the medical community This complex and compelling observation of doctors practicing war zone medicine in World War II will hold great appeal for readers of military and medical history as well as those interested in the socio cultural ethical and religious implications of war and military service Navy Comptroller Manual United States.
