

SS.912.1.1.1 The student will explain the major events of the Civil War.

a. Identify major battles and campaigns: Fort Sumter, Gettysburg, the Atlanta Campaign, Sherman's March to the Sea, and Appomattox Court House.

SS.912.1.1.2 The student will locate important places in the United States.

b. Including Gettysburg, PA

Battle of Fort Sumter (April of 1861)—The Confederates attacked the United States fort in South Carolina, but not they claimed they were now their own country, so U.S. forces needed to leave their country. The South won the battle and the Civil War had begun.

Battle of Chancellorsville (May of 1863)—The south was outnumbered 2 soldiers to 1, but won the battle. Great leadership by generals such as “General” Jackson helped the South sweep winning battles when they were outnumbered. Jackson died in this battle, which was a huge loss for the south.

Battle of Gettysburg (July of 1863)—The South had finally pushed all the way into Northern territory. If they would have won, the Civil War may have ended differently, because they could have then gone on to the nearby northern capital. The North won this very bloody battle and after this battle began winning almost every battle. Most historians consider Gettysburg to be the turning point of the war.

Atlanta Campaign (July of 1864)—The North wanted to destroy the southern capital of Atlanta, which was also a railroad hub for supplies. Atlanta was destroyed and the North moved on, closer to victory.

Sherman's March to the Sea (November through December of 1864)—After destroying Atlanta, General Sherman continued destroying everything in his path, all the way to Savannah and then up into South Carolina. His goal was to cause so much damage that the south would realize they had to surrender.

Appomattox Court House (April of 1865)—General Robert E. Lee surrendered to General Ulysses S. Grant. The south was defeated and the United States was joined back together as one country.
