Olszewski, 2017-08-04 In 1985 the Sohio oil company commissioned Claes Oldenburg and Coosje van Bruggen to design and construct a large outdoor sculpture for its new corporate headquarters in Cleveland Ohio The result was Free Stamp a bold and distinctive installation that captured both a Pop Art sensibility and a connection to the city's industrial past Sohio executives approved the design and work was already underway when British Petroleum acquired the company The new owners quickly decided that the sculpture was inappropriate for their building and attempted to rid themselves of Free Stamp by donating it to the city of Cleveland a gift that the city initially had no desire to accept After much debate and public protest the sculpture found a home in Willard Park where it stands today This is the first study of any sculpture by Oldenburg and van Bruggen to examine the genesis of their art from conception to installation Edward J Olszewski has put together a fascinating narrative based on interviews with the artists archival material from city records and in house corporate memoranda as well as letters to the editor and political cartoons He traces the development of the sculpture from the artists first sketches and models to the installation of the completed work in its urban environment Claes Oldenburg Nadja Rottner, 2012-02-03 Contemporary criticism interviews scholarly reassessments and texts by the artist focusing on Claes Oldenburg's sculptures installations and multimedia performances between 1960 and 1965 Claes Oldenburg born in 1929 is largely known today as a pop art sculptor Oldenburg himself described his formless canvas and vinyl soft sculptures gigantic hamburgers and ice cream cones cushiony toilets and typewriters as objects that elude definition This collection of writings revisits not only Oldenburg's soft objects from the early to mid 1960s but also his pioneering installations The Street 1960 and The Store 1961 1962 and his often overlooked multimedia performances As the artist translated his ideas and beliefs into various media and formats his work drew on a range of styles and schools including abstract expressionism Happenings pop art minimalism and postminimalism Perhaps because of their refusal to be classified these artworks are as contemporary today as they were when they were created between 1960 and 1965 This collection serves both as a summation of early critical thinking on Oldenburg's art and a starting point for consideration of the artist as a forerunner of current art trends of stylelessness and intermediality It includes both contemporary criticism and more recent scholarly reassessments interviews with the artist and Oldenburg's own unpublished manifesto on the Ray Gun Theater the artist's name for his performance series in the back of The Store Claes Oldenburg, Coosje van Bruggen, 2007
