Claiborne Human Development Family Place Culture:

Human Development Wendy Drewery, Lise Bird Claiborne, 2013-08-27 This text builds on the success of the previous edition. In this edition, Drewery and Claiborne are joined by co-authors who are internationally recognised scholars and researchers in Human Development which enhances the content by including current and culturally relevant material. It also provides more emphasis on NZ Māori Pasifika content and is able to ensure a solid conceptual foundation through discussions and interesting contemporary examples. Throughout the book, students will find 'What do YOU think' activities that encourage students to think about and apply concepts they are learning to their own lives, allowing them to engage with core concepts on a deeper and personal level. Within each chapter, features Tutorial suggestions that provide activities and discussion topics designed to promote critical thinking and teamwork skills. They can also be utilised by instructors in tutorials or by students outside the classroom.

Safe, Supportive, and Inclusive Learning Environments for Young People in Crisis and Trauma Patty Towl, Sheryl A. Hemphill, 2020-06-02 Children and young people from diverse populations are statistically more at risk of exclusion; however, education providers can make a difference to all children and young persons' learning outcomes no matter what their personal circumstances. To achieve this, not only must educators form closer and more authentic relationships with these children and their communities, but the governments that fund learning environments must also be prepared to provide adequate resourcing and training opportunities. Safe, Supportive, and Inclusive Learning Environments for Young People in Crisis and Trauma addresses both the general and specific issues that may prevent children and young people from diverse populations from being safe, supported, and included in learning environments. Some chapters focus on general factors that contribute to both inclusion and exclusion at early childhood and in formal school environments, while others present research-based best practice and practical advice to enable good education outcomes for indigenous, migrant, and LGBTQI children and those who experience mental health problems, drug misuse, and abuse. Lastly, the book includes information about how to negotiate and set up programmes that have been shown to be effective with communities that differ from the dominant culture. This book provides practitioners in education health and social work with information and practical advice on how to retain all children and young people in early childhood formal school education and tertiary settings
