Clambakes Chaos Mystery Summer Diamond:

Clambakes and Chaos: a Nanny Blu Cozy Mystery Maci Grant, Lillianna Blake, 2015-12-12 It's that time of summer again. Preparations for the annual end of summer clambake are in full swing in Diamond Bay. During an early morning community clam dig, Nanny Blu finds herself once again shielding the children's eyes from the discovery of a body. The festivities are put on hold while Chief Pitman along with the ever helpful Blu Parker work to collect suspects and clues and the Chief's nephew AJ works tirelessly to collect on the date that's been promised him by Blu. But can he convince her to take a chance on him? Can he convince her that the end of summer and her move back to Manhattan doesn't have to mean an end to their budding romance? Note: This is a cozy mystery, a clean read. Lifeguards and Liars Maci Grant, Lillianna Blake, 2015-11-13 Blu Parker, nanny extraordinaire, is on a mission to make this the best summer ever for her and the two kids she cares for something that's not difficult to do in the sweet little beach community of Diamond Bay. Unlike many of the other younger nannies, twenty-eight-year-old Blu hardly notices Mr. Hottie lifeguard until she gets news of his death one morning and then what's described as an accidental drowning is all she can think about. The local police chief is about to meet one determined young woman who isn't only interested in getting her summer tan. Nanny Blu's curiosity and natural instinct for justice will have her seeking out more than play dates as she finds herself firmly involved in the middle of the investigation. Ice Cream and Intrigue Maci Grant, Lillianna Blake, 2015-11-13 Summer in Diamond Bay means many things to Nanny Blu and the kids she cares for: long days at the beach, picnic lunches in the park, and ice cream. Lots of ice cream. Peddler's Ice Cream Shop, their favorite place to indulge, can always be counted on for fun, new flavors, and the kind faces of its owners. Until one day everything comes to a grinding halt. One body found by a dumpster, one wrong man in jail, and one relentless nanny on a quest to find a killer will leave the residents of Diamond Bay shaken and confused about what has happened to one of their own. If it's true what they say about the third time being a charm, Chief Pitman will finally take Nanny Blu seriously. But three murders already in one summer, Blu's quiet summer by the beach sure has gotten interesting. Note: This is a cozy mystery, a clean read. Maci Grant, Lillianna Blake, 2015-11-24 Nanny Blu loves to take the kids to the lighthouse in Diamond Bay. There's a bit of history inside, the view is gorgeous, and the kids love to eat the hot dogs from the stand out front. On one particular ordinary lighthouse visiting day while strolling through the exhibits, screams erupt and Blu hurries the children away just as she sees a body being covered outside. Why a man would jump to his death is the disturbing initial question in Blu's mind but after she finds herself involved once again in one of Chief Pitman's cases the real question becomes one of a murder. Blu's mind is consumed with young lovers and talk of cheating spouses and all the while she can hardly breathe when the Chief's nephew AJ looks at her the way he does. She's become used to taking chances when it comes to murder mysteries and finding answers but with love that's a mystery she'd not at all sure she's ready to tackle but she is one for taking chances. When a chance to enter the local sandcastle competition presents itself the three are fully onboard especially when Blu finds out that it's being hosted by the Beach Bum and her favorite resident bartender. But before the contest can even begin one of the expert and more than slightly awful contestants ends up six feet under the sand that is The ever skeptical Chief Pitman barely tolerates Nanny Blu but she's convinced that she has the clues that will lead them to the killer if only the chief will finally take her seriously.
